PERSONALS.

King Milan is said to bare the lar est man in Europe. It is planted pretty deeply in Balgarian clay.

Jesse tirant denies with emphasis the rumors in regard to Mrs. Sartoris and the alleged unto ppiness in her domestic life. Albasi recently sang before Que n Victoris, and had the choice b tween an India shawi and one of Her Maj-sty's published works as a souvenir. Of course she took the book. Dr. Dio Lewis says "that wearing large, thick heavy boots and blue hand-knit stockings will improve a woman's complexion.' We fear it will require more than this te kill the sale of face lotions and complexion powders. Elder L. R. Hurst, grandfather of the noted Miss Lulu Hurst, the electric girl, predicts the end of the world in 1932. He symptoms of the coming event, after which starting developments will follow rapidly, such anthe moon turning to blood, the sun wi hholding its light and a general derange-

The Czar of Rossia and Kaiser Franz Joseph of Austria had a fine time at Gastien. The bills for the entertainment of the Emperors and their suites have been sent in, and amount to $200,000. The wine mer- doubt about it. All these accursed locusts Rhine wices. 2,500 bottles of various French | ters. They bring with them, too, their own vintages, 3,000 bottles of champagne and laws, in order that they may violate ours," 1.000 bottles of liquors.

ment of things.

An engine driver on a Saxon rallway has just retired from a service of forty years, during which he has traveled on his locomotive, without a single accident, a distance of 253 347 miles, equal to forty seven journeys around the earth.

The footmen who wait solely upon the very quaint uniform, consisting of tunic, petticoat and breeches edged with gold lace. Their attire includes a wonderful headdress, consisting of a kind of embroidered

Report comes from Turin of the death. aged 77 years, of Father Giacomo, the friend of Cavour. For years he was the dispenser of that stateman's charities, and when the Count lay dying the pricet went to receive his last confession and administer the last sacraments. It was his privilege then to have addressed to him the states. man's last words in this world : "Brother, a free church is a free State."

Charles Heber Clark (Max Adler), lately submitting to a transfusion of goat's blood, got a globule in his brain at church and bucked the sexton up into the pulpit.

Ella Wheeler-Wilcox was born in 1850, and is said to be below medium height. spare in chest and shoulders, but with shapely arms and hands. Her eyes are hazel, with a peculiar amber tint, approaching yellow. Their color has once been poetically defined as old gold. A prominent chin imparts an attenuated aspect to her features. Her complexion is pale, with a transient bloom that appears | the friend of the downtrodden and the op. | himself aloof. on the cheeks under the stimulus of any mental excitement. Her hair is of that texture and shade of brown that is the unerring indication of a refined nature. In phrenological development the imaginative qualities are strikingly prominent.

Col. Higginson writes to a Boston newspaper that the "shock" caused in Boston by Matthew Arnold s lecture on Emerson related, in the opinion of many persons, not so much to the subject of the lecture as the author. He recalls an anecdote of Mrs. Elizabeth Montague, who, while in Paris, was invited to hear Voltaire read an essay on Shakespeare, in which he attempted to show that the great poet was not a great anism to its olden glory shall be called poet. When Veltaire had finished reading | Ahmed, and is not thy name Ahmed? And the hope was expressed by some one present that the essay had not caused her pain. "Why should it pain me?' she said calmly, tury of the Hegira? And do we not enter | self. "I have not the honor to be one of the friends of M. de Voltaire."

often snow. When these rains cease, and the weather becomes settled, the surface of the earth has been cooled by them, but it ! ground below to the surface where it is ra-disted and the water rapidly evaporated, which gives the atmosphere its peculiar blue, hazy appearance. The escaping heat of the ground, added to that of the sun, causes the warm, pleasant weather of the Indian sum-

From what has been said this delightful season may be expe ted any time after September. It comes earlier in the east than the west. There it is expected in October, while here it men lly does not come until November, and it is generally of longer duration in the interior than on the coast, mainly because there is less wind in the interior, and the heat is radiated more slowly and retained in the air. In 1869 our Indian summer lasted until the middle of December. and every one will remember the long season of warm, dry weather that seemed almost provident ally to follow the Chicago fire in 1871. In 1874 it lasted until the day be- make it grow the quicker and bear fruit in fore thankegiving and wound up with the most bouterous snowstorm of the winter.

Boycotting with a Vengeance.

One of the most extraordimary contests between two classes of people in the same country is new in progress in Ireland, actain the necessaries of life from the shop mur is quickly suppressed. keepers of the vicinage.

of boycotting has assumed is the refusal of is shortly about to happen to those who are the Cattle Dealers' association of Munster to | engaged in the headlong pursuit of wealth ship cattle to England in the vessels of the and pleasure, did not those occupations en- to assume a galety of disposition which she scarlet and gold of the British cavalry ser- as to the value of alcohol in the treatment Cork steamship company, unless the com- gross their entire and undivided attention is far from feeling, and in the artificial sus- vice, for he had been dining with Sir Ed. of disease -it was stated that in only three National league. In fact, the demand is that class, do not notice the hatred with which down. no cattle be shipped unless the shipper can the native population have begun to regard of the carriage, how- to accompany him hither.

several stockholders of the company are ground after they have passed by? land leaguers, and that a majority of them Tis true that one or two consuls have great crystal tears to escape from her beau- the young lady saw him likewise and wonder- was 22,500. are liberals in politics. Tals gives color to lodged complaints of not being saluted by tiful violet eyes. the change on their part that the catttle deal. Egyptian sentries when in official uniform And now the carriage has entered Cairo despising him in her heart, in that she fan who, under the pseudonym of "Lierre," a proper, through the great Gate of Victory, cied he was afraid of her mother, and all short time ago opened a milliner's shop in May he was while he was in the desert, unless he is all hungry looks recall a face I shall never look was a deserter, replied the hopeful pupil, who shall particularly blame Mr. Tresarr, hands, upon again."

Sencion Sais Gazette.

VOL. XIII.

FENELON FALLS, ONTARIO, SATURDAY, NOV. 28, 1885.

NO. 41.

EGYPTIAN ROMANCE.

declares that the next year will witness A Story of Love and Wild Adventure, founded upon Startling Revelations in the Career of Arabi Pasha.

> By the Author of " NINA, THE NIHILIST," "THE RED SPOT," "THE RUSSIAN SPY," ETC., ETC.

> > the rich English banker, for allowing his comely wife and lovely daughter to attend

life when an easy chair and a newspaper, huge precious stones.

wretches' real, expense.

near the Rue de Moscow.

Nellie is not looking her best, for her col-to be good breeding. Frank had tried to persuade himself that he was glad he had not been allowed time to ask what he had called expressly to ask, since he had been forced milk of human kindness in Nellie's parents'

"And if they persisted in not forgiving constitutions than he had before supposed.

er she would mope and fret, and instead o

wretched, on which account I shall sacrifice

my own happiness for hers without further struggle," had been Frank's final resolve;

scene of action, instead of which, with a atrange, yet natural, inconsistency, he still lingered on in Cairo, though there was not the slightest necessity for doing so, his health

having by this time been quite re-estab-

Though the young dragoon had resolved to give Nellie up, he could not tear himsel

state of the case. He still had no small degree of comfort in gazing at her afar off, and even in looking at the windows of the house in which she dwelt if he had been unable to catch a view of her fair self for a few days.

some great essential service which would

CHAPTER VII .- (CONTINUED)

"It is certainly so. There can be no chant's bill enumerates 1,500 bottles of old who settle down in Egypt become our masgrunted Toulba Pasha, to which Suleiman Bey added with an oath :

" No doubt about it, and what is worse, they not only start business here unasked, but they claim indemnities when they fail therein, indemnities which our weak-minded ruler always seems ready to pay."

" Raising the taxes of our poor until they either cheat the collectors and get the bas-Queen of Sweden and her daughter wear a tinado on being detected, or else pay and starve. People such as these make very good rebels, for there is nothing to make them loyal," said Toulba. "Should Allah call upon me to reign over skull-cap from which arises three estrich them I will make them loyal, for the fellah, feathers, none of whichis less than three like a dog, would lay down his very life for a kind master. By the Prophet, would that he knew better what it was to have one, said the war minister proudly, and Toulba Pasha at once made answer : "That is because he has so many masters.

There are twenty foreign consuls in Egypt, and each is a petty prince. They are above all Egypt. Their watches regulate even the spairingly at the tiny copper coins that to stead of asked for as a favor. sun. Let a Feringhee do what wrong he the value of the thirteenth part of a dollar Mrs. Trezarr, however, who knew that of pit and stalls, was marble pavement, with oven. twice injured by the seeking of redress."

"That is true, for his case is tried, not converted, has some of the old man left in by his own laws, but by those of the man him still. He managed to raise a lively who has injured him, which of cours; there shindy in the Church Congress at New is no understanding, so that in seeking to Haven and enjoyed the fun as much as the recover his stolen coat the chances are that Suleiman Bey.

we count the sands of the desert or the seashore? No, no, but we can try to save ourselves from being buried beneath them, nev- or and spirits seem to have alike forsaken ertheless My friends, we must lose no time, in teaching through trusty but secret emis. Donelly, whom she has only seen oone since Arabic. saries the population of our great cities the the fete at the Gizereh Palace, now an event how they can best rid themselves of them. pressed, and as being ready to lay down my life in their cause. Should they elect me as world to stir up a daughter to needlessly shall be murdered. their champion my battle cry will be ' Egypt rebel against those to whom she rightly owed silence in order that we rasp amidst the out of her way, help her to forget him in

So spoke the war minister. Toulba Pasha made answer: "A victory that has been vouched for by the unlying tongue of pro phecy, for has it not been foretold that the great leader who shall restore Mohammedhas not the time in which this deed will be wrought been fixed for the thirteenth cenupon that century in the course of a few

"Inshallah, be it as God wills," replied the war minister devoutly; and then he certainly Nellie had some excuse for doing questions that are discussed as often as it High. So go away, and lose no time in sow. | in the illumined palace gardens the night | shedding of whole rivors of Christian gore." comes. The causes of our Indian summer ing the good seed, yet be careful that it falls before-namely, whether she would marry "Nellie, you are a little fool, and may On a clear day it can be seen very easily are not very hard to find. During the sum. not upon stony ground, where the birds of him without her parents' consent. mer the earth becomes heated to the depth | the air will see and devour it. With this | In plain truth, the young dragoon had ed as an insult to the Christians, that dress- course taken by the C. P. R. steamer, which currence of the autumnal equinox there are also with the parting assurances that as I soar atmospheric changes in the northern hemi- you will soar, therefore remember that and then the mother had come into the room scruples will prevent them from eating the tremity of the island. Its length northeast sphere that result in storms of cold rain and Allah blesses the birds that remember their and directly afterwards the father and lit's a pity if and southwest is about 45 miles, and its

Perhaps this warning was not altogether unheeded; but be that as it may, the trio later he had received his cool conge from from me it is that our carriage windows are in the way of human habitations, and it has at once begins to bring the heat from the parted with mutual expressions of fidelity the severe paterfamilias, who had followed broken."

CHAPTER VIII.

THE HANGING AND THE ROASTING OF A PIG Yet another week has passed away and a Huropean opera company is playing "The Sorcerer" at the Cairo Theatre to crowded

Another case of dancing, singing and fiddling on the brink of chaos, though to be sure nobody guesses how close chaos is at hand, for the sowers of revolution have performed their labor in darkness and in silence, and no one perceives as yet the strong crop of knife, dagger and scimitar blades mingled with countless bayonet points that is springing up all around.

But very soon a shower of blood drops will be needed to replenish that crop and due season, and then as Feringhee blood will give it the strongest nourishment these dancers, singers and revelers will be aroused from their pleasant vision of ease, luxury and a nusement at the cost of the Egyptian, as though by a thunder clap.

So for the present the Frank hotels are crowded, and the European quarter of companied by the usual exhibitious of burn- the city is as bright and cheerful as any ing animosity conspicuous in the contentions | aristocratic suburb in Paris, London or New of that warm hearted and mercurial people. York, and only in the labyrinth of dark, Cablegrams say that the government finds filthy, intricate lanes and valleys, where the the task of fighting this boycotting with the upper stories of the flat-roofed houses on He also derived some degree of satisfaction, police to be a most for midable and vexations either side nod towards each other, where strain upon the resources for the preerva- the occupants of the highest rooms tion of the peace of the country. This is of all can easily shake hands across the toreasily conceivable when it is understood that tuous winding thoroughfares from their re- of peril and danger was near at hand in families who have taken land from which spective verandahs and balconies, are the which he might be able to render her or hers former tenants had been evicted find it not seethings of hatred and discontent allowed only impossible to work it, but even to ob- even to swell into a murmur, and that mur-

And yet are there a sufficiency of signs as any recorded in a novel. One of the oddest forms which this system and omens to give timely warning of what produce a certificate of league membership, them-the fisshing of the eyes, the curling One curious part of this procedure is that of the lips, the sound of the spitting on the

the remissions on the soldiers' part has been and rolling along the no longer level cause. unconscious that court etiquette prevented Fair, London-where it is said the Princess Another curious circumstance in this mel- set down to opium instead of impertinence, way presently reaches the opening to that his quitting the Khedival party. ancholy contention is that the boycotters are and has been either overlooked or forgotten. unsavory and evil reputationed locality, the There was one present who read her has fired the arr bitlen of other ladies to transportation statistics) since the great Fish. brought us face at last, but I repuls. indirectly working against the interest of Tis true, also, that many Europeans have Quartier du Crocodile. cattle relieve in the country, for the reason observed that the masses pay far more def Here the glare of flames and a shrill hub- evident chagrin, and he was Ahmed Arabi adopting for business purposes the name of that if the cattle are not shipped the values erence to the war minister, Arabi Pasha, bub of cries and laughter frightened the Pasha, who, far from having given up all Mme. Isabel, has now become partner in a of those remaining in the country must when he drives or rides abroad than they horses and caused both ladies to glance out hopes of making her his, had firmly resolv- well-known bonnet shop in Wigmore street. largely decline at the last his she should be directly the pat A leading motive in these English ladies in consider the reason for this to lie in the the strange, and to them as yet unmeaning, liently for the hour should arrive, when kis- taking up millinery as a career, next to the " Where did the prophet Elias go !" asked pasha's austere plety and boundless gener- spectacle of some street gamins, actively met or destiny should make him the master laudable aim of earning money thereby, is a Texas Sunday school teacher. " He went only, two qualities for which he has long sided by a few children, of large growth, and ruler of Egypt and of a ! that it contain to lead English fashions to be more inde-

THE CROCODILE QUARTER AND AT THE

himself? He had arrived at that time of coat, and his little short front legs dangled that the rival was beloved by both.

taken in conjunction with a prime cigar and lappels were thrown well back. a bottle of iced Chateau Lafitted, proved a fund of enjoyment much greater than even sumed his tail included), they were tucked mise en-scene. A quarter of an hour ago a ballet, far less an opera, could have afford- inside a pair of black cloth trousers that she had longed for the spectacle, but now ed him. So, after bidding his womankind were a mile too long for them, whilst some she had eyes for nothing but the objects of an impatient farewell, for he was in the how or other an eyeglass was fixed in front her love and hate, and she would have given middle of a leading article in a fortnight of one closed optic, and what had been once her very life to have been able to pluage a old Times, he had his armchair moved out a jaunty Paris high-crowned silk hat (though stiletto up to its very hilt in the white into the garden, where he might watch in a now disfigured by many a dent) was fasten | breast of her fairer and younger rival, and kind of drowsy enjoyment the gorgeous set ed (stuck a little on one side) atop of the to watch her die with greatest agony first. ting of the blood red Egyptian sun, from huge lop-eared head, which also hung a lit- Nor let these vengeful reelings on her part within a little summer house that was almost the on one side, owing to the manner in be wondered at, for Eastern blood is naturburied beneath fragrant jasmine, and in which the brute was hung.

front of which a drooping date tree gently | As the coachman was reducing his fractious and seclusion is apt to increase and foster all fruit, the sunlight causing them to resemble street roughs, the majority of them nearly to the study of aught that is good.

will, yet his consul wi'l protect him from represent a day's labor of sixteen hours in both pig and clothes must have been stolen a foudtain in the centre that threw spray inthe consequences, whilst the Egyptian is the burning sun, yet out of which the tax from Europeans, and had a vague and misty stead of water, which, instead of falling, gatherer will seize at least a quarter in order | idea that the whole show was meant as an | seemed to dissolve into the atmosphere and that rich Europeans may be feted at the idsult to the whole population, would not tend to cool and moisten it. Khedive's nominal, out of these poor starved | part with a single paietre, whilst Nellie, whose perceptions were keener, was too had to move about with bare or stockinged But while we are thus moralizing, the terrified even to feel for her purse. Happi- or feltsoled feet, so that no noise should dishandsome two-horsed charlot containing our | ly, at this juncture, the horses condesended | turb those who sat above, but the lowest man in one of his own stories who, after he looses all the rest of his apparel," said lovely heroine and her mother is dashing to spring forward in the right direction, classes amongst the audience were accomedalong the Choubrah road towards the city, which, however, they did with such sud- ated as with us in the topmost circle or gal-"By Allah and the Prophet, where is the | with coachman and footman in irreproach. denness that one importunate young beggar lery, and these celestials, like our own, were use of discussing these matters further? Can able liveries, en route to the Opera House, was knocked down and trod under their not always silent or well mannered, and had hoofs, whilst the wheels of the carriage passed over the toes of a second, extracting from the sufferers a chorus of howls, mingled her. The fact is, she is fretting about Frank with oaths and execrations in gutteral

> Then a shower of stones was thrown, and wrongs and injustices which they suffer and of the, to her, long ago; and on that solitary one, smashing a window, struck Nellie's the baser class of spectators seemed to reoccasion he had met with so cool a reception | creamy hued right shoulder with a force I, Ahmed Arabi, of Orabi, proclaim myself from her parents that he had ever since held that caused it to tingle and its fair possessor | belief in the supernatural, or the growls to cry out in alarm : The young officer was the last man in the

> for the Egyptians and down with the Euro- obedience, and as it had seemed to him very now, and were we to return we should have ination of the performance the audience bepean control. You, my friends, I am well evident that neither Mr. nor Mrs. Trezarr to pass it again. Besides, to be afraid of gan to disperse, the fashionable portion at aware, are with me hand and glove, whilst would ever sanction his marrying her, he the wretched natives would be very bad all events well pleased with the amusement the allies that we can number without are had made up his mind that both for Nellie's form, and to show our fear might be impru- that had been afforded them, and Nellie already more numerous than all the follow- sake and his own it would be better did he dent in addition. Mobs do strange things Trezare alone received any indication of ing of the Khedive. Go, then, and sow in try to forget her, and by zealously keeping even at home, sometimes, so you must not danger in the future. be afraid. I wonder what could have been the meaning of the show?"

> > But Nellie, far from giving him credit for kindly and unselfish motives, had made up her mind that he had surrendered her far tire race as they were serving its represent- black as ebony from behind, but when she too easily; and then jealousy, of course, ative?" "The representative of our race a pig?

crept into her heart to make her still more I don't follow you, my dear.' uncomfortable, and she began to believe that after all he must have learned to care much more for the Egyptian lady whose life he in part because we are swine exters, and had saved than he had ever done for her- therefore do they not coup'e us with the to them unclean animal which we make our food? Was not the bitterest scandal that There is not one girl in a hundred who would not torture herself in a very similar they could concoct about the Khedive the tale that his European favorites had taught manner under the same circumstances, and him to like ham? Should he lose his crown added: "You may tell that prophecy so, since when her lover had called at Mount and our lives a pig will be at the bottom of There is nothing that happens with such unto the people likewise, for if Allah speaks | Carmel on that one solitary occasion which it. I feel sure that it was in the bloody unfailing regularity about which there is through his prophet and I am the person | we have mentioned, he had never as much Indian mutiny when the falso rumor that more dispute than our Indian summer. who is alluded to, I dare not, even if I as asked her for an answer to the question the Mohammedan sowar's caroine cartridges It contains several mining locations of more What is it, when is it, and why is it, are would, refuse to obey the beheat of the Most | which he had propounded with such fervor | had been greased with hog's lard led to the depend upon it that instead of being Intend- with the naked eye from Port Arthur. The ed up animal was merely a kind of Moham- runs direct from Sault Ste. Marie to Port had no time to do so, for he had wasted a precious five minutes in the usual greetings, medan Guy Faux. It's a pity that their Arthur, passes close to the north-eastern exnot left him alone with Nellie for a single they've stolen it from a poor man instead of greatest breadth nine miles. Beyond a few instant hereafter, and when half an hour a rich one, and if you want a third regret fishing huts and mining camps it has little him outside the drawing room door in order to be as coldly impertinent as he could make you were hit 'tis fortunate that the stone now unknown and extinct. Here are to be himself consonant with what he considered was not a sharp one, for the bruise will not found open cuttings more than a mile in show until to-morrow. Here we are at the length, and connected by tunnels or drifts, theatre, so do call up a smile, my dear." ceeded, for the bright lamps, the flaunting pre-historic people worked, are still to be by their conduct to the conclusion that there play bills and the richly carpeted and light- found scattered about the scenes of their was less of Christian forgiveness and the ed interior of the dress circle entrance lock- long neglected labors. Stone hammers, coped so homelike and European that they per knives and other tools have been found seemed to breathe an assurance of safety. threw open the carriage door and assisted his ten to thirty pounds. The copper tools were making her happy I should only make her ladies to alight, and a minute or two later found to have been tempered by fire. At they were in the company of a score of other least one generation of forest trees has elegantly dressed Christian woman in the grown over workings made by this now forsumptuously filled up cloak room, whose gotten people. There is a cluster of rocky but he would have been able to carry it out silvery laughter and anticipation of coming islets located at the northeastern extremity better if he had at once retired from the enjoyment caused Mrs. Trezarrat all events of Isle Royal, some of which are mere reefs to forget the outward occurrence that had of solld rock scarcely rising above the surhappened during their drive thither.

particularly bright, for the performance that | was a sea on would be swift and certain deevening was under royal (that is to say, struction, which could hardly be unattend-Khedival) patronage, so that the centre of ed with loss of life, for right beside these the dress circle (the heat of the climate for- reefs and islets there is often found from wholly away from her; that was the true boxes) was brilliant with rich uniforms, can be learned at present it would seem that gold lace and glittering jeweled orders. Prince Tewfik was seated in a golden chair of state, and around him stood a goodly array of pashas, beys and effendis, misgled with many an embroidered coated European consul, and here and there an English, though it was certainly ailied with still more French, Austrian, German or Italian officer of uneasiness, in the suspicion (which he was in the uniform of his corps and country.

one of the very few to entertain) that a time To the right and the left of this gay assemblage sat many a comely dame or lovely maiden, attended by father, husband, brother or lover, all clad in sombre black, for they create a revolution in their sentiments to- had been in uniform or official dress they ward him and lead up to as happy a climax must, by court etiquette, have gone over to matrimory stood on a tombstone to be moves it. Grease may be removed from swell the respiendent group who encircled | wedded. But Nellie has no such hopes or comforts | the Khedive, amongst whom were Ahmed to buoy her up, and her sorrew is all the Arabi Pasha, the war minister, and Captain to the London Temperance Hospital - an harder to bear because her pride forces her Frank Donelly, the latter clad in the brilliant establishment started to test the question pany refuses to ship cattle boycotted by the Can it be possible that the Europeans, as a taining of which she is constantly breaking ward Malet, the consul-general, and after out of upward of 3,000 cases last year had > giring way to her real feelings suffers the ther enter the circle, and it was not long ere patients treated since the commencement ed that he cid not ceme over to her, rather | The example of Lady Grenville Gordon, wife, but merely one of the many beautiful THE slaves of his harem.

But the swarthy war minister's was not the only malevolent gaze that was fixed up-Yes, it was a comical sight enough when on poor Nellie, for from behind the gilded not viewed as a suggestive one, and there lattice work that concealed the ladies of the was nothing in it of cruelty to cause a shud. Khedival harem from the view of the entire der, for the pig was dead, and from the audience, whilst it permitted them to see serene expression of its porcine countenance house and stage alike, a pair of large, black, he died (for one of its race) happily.

A stiff shirt collar and a high black satin steel, were fixed alternately upon our herostock concealed very probably the gap in | ine and her two admirers, taking fierce cogthe throat which had let the steel in and the nizance of the expressions of each, whilst life out, while his capacious paunch was the fire of fiercest hate was kindled in the the Opera House even unaccompanied by covered with an immaculate white waist heart of their possessor as she discovered inside the sleeves of a black cloth coat, whose The excellence of the music was as powerless to attract her attention as the rich dress-As for his hinder legs (and it is to be pre- es of the performers or the beauty of the ally hot and vengetul, and a life of idleness

The habitants of this part of the house ot the European portion of the spectators It so secure in their self-conceit they ight have noted many things to cause them fe en more than uneasiness.

mBut neither the marked disapprobation eve comic incantation scene which many of gard as an insulting burlesque on their own and ejaculations that greeted each appear-"Oh, let us return home, mamma, or we ance of the British grenadier officer who is one of the leading characters in the opera, " No, my dear. The danger is behind us | were regarded or noticed, and at the term-

The warning came in the shape of a piece of rather thick writing paper folded in two, "What could it mean, mamma, except which was suddenly pushed into her white that the fanatics would like to serve our en- kid gloved hand by a huge and bare one as looked round she could give no guess as to paper and read in delicately traced charact- ing. "Oh, mamma, don't the natives hate us ers: "The dove who hovers near the eagle's nest should beware its claws and beak."

(TO BE CONTINUED)

A Desolare Spot.

Isle Royal, where the ill-fated Algoma was lost, is the largest island in Lake Superior, and lying about forty-five miles south of Port Arthur. It is wholly American territory. Like other islands in the great inland sea, it is rugged and rooky in character. or less value, and is a favorite resort for travellers in search of amethysts and agates. no permanent population. Copper veins "Mamma, tell me if my shoulder is cut." have been discovered on the island, which "No, my dear, I dont see a mark. If must have been worked by a race of people which were timbered with beams now broken Nellie essayed the task, and in part suc- and decayed. The tools with which this in these old workings in great abundance. The footman, descending from the box, The stone hammers ranged in weight from face of the water. For a steamer to run in-The house when they entered it looked to one of these rocky labyrinths when there bidding the construction of close, stuffy ten to twenty fathoms of water. As far as this was the fate of the Algoma.

Wreckless engineering is what is wanted on railroads and steamboats.

Mystery is another name for our ignortreat him to pretzels. At Acworth, Ga., a few days ago, two persons, about to enter into the bonds of and then soap and water more easily 1e-

At the recent opening of a new addition wards, rather against his will, been induced alcohol been used. In these three cases no sensible benefit had resulted, while the ever, she makes no attempt to sustain the He was no longer sorry that he had come average mortality in the hospital since 1873 part which she has set herself to act, but when he beheld Nellie Trezarr and her mo- had been but five per cent. The number of

of Wales bought goods to the value of $500 thoughts and rejoiced in her mistake and go and do likewise. A late student of Girton, into the desert. " What was Elisa while he been famed, and their confidence in the hanging a large pig that was dressed like a ed, though he had almost determined more pendent of Continental inspiration, working was in the wilderness?" "I dunno what Joint Control. Christiam over a fire to roast, taking good than once that as a punishment for her after designs better adapted of English habits of boiled and sifted squash, one-half cup of sugar, one cup of scalded milk, one spoon-ful of shortening, salt, and one half cake of supposed. The Medicinische Wochenschrift compressed yeast dissolved in a spoonful of state that in one year there were establishglorious eyes, soft as velvet, yet sharp as cold water, and m'x in flour till stiff enough ed in Prussia 20,636 official inspecting to mold. Raise over night, mold, and cut stations. Out of 4,000,000 of the animals them out in biscuit, raise an hour and bake.

HOUSEHOLD

Choice Recipes.

PRESERVED CITRON MELON, -Cut the melon in strips, remove the soft pulp contwo sliced lemons to every pound of melon; 1.44. when the syrup is clear add the citron-melon; let it boil once, then put into jars while hot.

RAISED BROWN BREAD. - Put one quart of yellow Indian meal in an earthen bowl, pour over it sufficient boiling water to entirely moisten it, and let it cool to blood heat; rock, one at its base and another some sixwhen it is cool mix with it one quart of ryemeal, one cupful of molasses, one cupful of of animals. home-made yeast or half a cupful of baker's The French Government would like to give yeast, one teaspoonful of salt dissolved in a the army the privilege of wearing beards, waved its clusters of crimson and golden horses to obedience, a crowd of the young that is evil in a nature that is never given little water, and sufficient lukewarm water but feels the necessity of first consulting sevto make a soft paste; after thoroughly mix- eral high millitary authorities, as the opinions naked and more than half of them possess- Despite the great heat of the night in the | ing these ingredients put the dough into a on the subject are contradictory. Mean-"Assuredly his lot had fallen in pleasant log but one eye (for ophthalmies is a terrible narrow streets, the interior of the theatre buttered earthen or thick iron pan, smooth while the press falls back on history, and places," the rich man thought to himself, scourge in Egypt, and many parents also was kept deliciously cool by the continual it on top with a wooden spoon wet in cold finds that the conquerors of all ages were and he saw not Lazarus afar off in his little cut out the pupils of their children's eyes, so fiuttering of enormous punkas, worked by water, cover it with a folded towel, and about equally divided between the shorn mud hut thatched with straw, with its sole that they may escape when grown up the machinery. There was a free circulation of set it in a moderately warm place to rise; and the unshorn. furniture of a mat and two pitchers, eating horrors of military service) surrounded the air to everywhere, and the lamps in the aud- when the surface begins to crack open rut | The French lady doctors have carried the his evening meal of coarse maize bread, carriage, loudly demanding baksheesh, for itorium were not numerous enough to gen- it into a moderate oven, with another pan day. Henceforth the female medical studwhilst he gazes half savagely and half de- in Egypt a'ms are demanded as a right in- erate much heat of themselves; whilst be turned over it, for four hours; or steam it ents will be mesdemoirelles les internes, and low, in place of the European arrangement five hours, and then dry the crust in the as such they will be admitted to hospitals > of flour allow a quarter of a pound of suet, present rejoicing in the victory, among them weighed after it has been very finely chop- a young negrees, who is said to be one of ped and freed from every particle of skin or | most zealous students in Paris. fiber. Add a pinch of salt, mix thoroughly, consistency as bread before it is baked. Wring a perfectly clean cloth out in water as nearly boiling as may be, and flour well over the moistened cloth. Form the pudding into a long shape, like a jam roll. remembering in both these processes that it must not be bound up too tightly. A certain amount of room is necessary to allow it to swell or the pudding would be heavy With a needle and thread catch the cloth together along the side. Have ready a saucepan tull of boiling water, drop the pudding into it, put on the lid, and let it keep boiling for about an hour or an hour and a half. When done turn it out for a minute onto a clean, folded cloth to drain, cut off the ends, and serve it in a flat dish with a little sifted sugar over the top.

The juice of the common milkweed will generally cure warts on the bands or face. It is an inexplicable and painless application, and much preferable to cutting the excrescences out, which will not always extirrate them. It will probably serve the same purpose on the teats of cows, where warts often its owner, so with a thrill she opened the come and cause much inconvenience in milk-

Hard waters are to be preferred to soft waters in the teapot, as the hard waters dissolve less of the tannin of the leaves. After tea has been steeped in boiling wa ter for three minutes a large proportion of the valuable constituents are extracted. The most effectual remedy for slimy and greasy drain-pipes is copperas dissolved and left to work gradually through the pipe. Plaster of paris ornaments may be cleansed by covering them with a thick layer of starch, letting it dry thoroughly, and brush ing with a stiff brush. A room crowded to discomfort with fur niture and ornaments, no matter how cost-

y, is never restful and homelike, and always suggestive of the shop or the museum. A dark and gloomy room may be brightdoors and windows, grouping scarlet, yellow or gilded fans upon the walls, and placing pretty bric-a brac and vases in positions where they will be brought into relief by a cheerful background. A correspondent of the Fruit Recorder says he has boiled leaves and stems of tomato plants until the julce is all extracted, and finds the liquor deadly to caterpillars, lice, and many other enemies of vegetation.

It does not injure the growth of the plants, and its odor remains for a long time to disgust insect marauders. A good hair restorative is a mixture o equal parts of alcohol and castor oil. the combined quantity is four ounces, add to it two drachms of camphorides and a few dreps of any perfume. Colored hose that stain the feet should be thus treated: Put them into a pail of boiling hot clear water, let them stand until cool, rub them out hy hand, and put into hot salt water. When cool, rinse from that thoroughly, wring dry, and hang out smoothly in the shade to dry. Black cotton goods of all kinds are benefited by the same treatment the first time they are washed, soap after scalding. The ottener sarpets are shaken, the better they last, as the particles of dirt and sand which collect upon them grind the threads. Sweeping them also wears them. In putting down stair-carpets, house-

using the usual method of washing with keepers should be careful to tack a piece of folded paper or soft cloth over the edge of give him a square look in the face. He each step. It saves the carpet from wear. turned from me to another with his story All descriptions of woolen goods should be washed in very hot water with soap, and as goon as cleansed immersed in cold water ance; if we were omniscient, all would be and hung up to dry. Housekeepers well know how difficult it is to have flannels staggered off into the night. Girls, a delicate way of giving a young and other woolen goods properly washed, so man a hint that he is acting too fresh is to that they will not be ruinously shrunk. Use spirits of turpentine to remove grease spots from clothes. It dissolves the grease, undyed woolen also by a solution of pearl-Lime spots may be entirely removed by strong vinegar. The vinegar neutralizes the lime, but does not generally affect the death on the street was inside. color of the cloth. Dark cloth, the color of entirely restored.

At last a Cunard steamship has been lost pool to Constantinople, struck on a rock off had set sail for America to hunt me up at rea. The Sidon, on a voyage from Liver-Malpice Oct. 27, and was totally wrecked. Thieves plundered him of his every dollar,

The consumption of fish in Great Britain | written to him for years he had no clus, but has considerably increased (as shown by depended solely upon accident. Accident eries Exhibition of 1883.

justly censured these days. It is cowardly went hard with me to call up those things to kiss the poor little helpless things. We'd with his pinched, pale face before me and rather take somebody of our size.

"I'll join you presently," as the minister remarked to the young couple just as he started for the key to the church door. It is a Maine husband who has dubbed

A church at Terre Haute has been built in just eixteen days from the time the stone was laid. It is "very beautiful, finished in native woods, with windows of sapphire and ruby glass."

The Lancet states that a German observed er has found that cows milked three times a day gives much more milk than when milked twice only, and that the proportion of it is the same in both cases.

An attempt to punish an unruly boy in a Holyoke, Mass., school last week, brought on such a general fight that the police had to be called in to quell it, and the teacher and two pupils were marched off to the station house.

The Portland (Me.) Board of Health will place an officer on the Grand Trunk train, who will go out as far as Danville Junction and examine all passengers and baggage que coming from Montreal, using a system of SQUASH BISCUIT .- One and one-half cups checks to prevent persons getting through, In Germany the inspection of pigs for examined, 2,000 were trichinous. The Germans have nearly stamped out small-pox. In the years 1870-1874 the taining the seeds, and peel the pieces. Boll number of deaths from the disease per 100,in a liberal quantity of water containing an | 000 inhabitants in London, Paris, Vienna, ounce of alum to every gallon of water; Prague, and St. Petersburg was 101.05.

when tender, drain. Prepare a syrup, using In Berlin, Breslau, Hamburg, Munich, and a pound of sugar, half a pint of water, and Dresden during the same period it was but The painted rock of Santa Barbara county, Cal., is 150 feet high, and upon it are many color paintings in a good state of preservation that are thought to be the work of Indians. There are two caves in this g'ant

ty feet up, and in each of these are pictures

on the same terms as their male colleagues. LIGHT SUET PUDDING .- To half a pound | Sixty aspiran's to the M. D. degree are at

"Adirondack" Murray began a coturing meistening with as much cold water added tour at St. Johnbury, Vt., the other night gradually as will bring it to about the same and after he had finished his discourse lectured his audience because a local newspaper had called his life a wasted one. He said he had graduated from the ministry, and for six years had studied to fit himself for another kind of work; and that, instead Fold the cloth round it, tie the ends firmly, of having "dropped down and out from among forceful men," he proposed toon to appear in a quite opposite character.

There is in the extreme north of Utah a magnificent subterranean reservoir of first class soda water, bubbling and effervescing out of the ground in such quantities that all America might be suplied. In the extreme south, on the road to Orderville, is an exquisite circular lakelet that is always just full to the brim with water as clear and as green as beryl. And wherever the water overflows the lake's edge it encrusts with a five coating of limestone, so that the brim is growing higher and higher with im perceptible but certain growth of a coral reef and in the course of generations the lake will become a concreted basin.

The cave out of which Gen, Israel Putnam dragged the wolf is seldom visited, because it is in a stony mountainous forest in a remote corner of Connecticut. A picnic party this summer made the tedious trip, which involved several miles of rough walking. There are pictures in primers of Putnam entering the cave erect, with a blazing torch held above his head. The hole is really so small that it can only; be explored on hands and knees, and an adult cannot turn round in it. The length is 360 feet, and tradition says that he followed the beast to the further end, shot him between the eyes by their own glow, and was drawn out with him by means of a rope.

Not many years ago the late Lord Strath nairn was staying in a country house in Yorkshire. Among the guests in the smoking room one night were some young cavalry officers, who were narrating tales of various skylarking adventure in which they had lately been engaged. The veteran took himself off to bed, and, his room being overhead, they shortly after heard the furniture in that apartment being moved about. The next morning some one alluded to this at breakfast. "Ha, ha!" said Lord S., "I was not going to let you youngsters say you had drawn' a Field Marshal, so I put the chest of drawers against the door." He was over seventy at the time.

Turned Away. "Well, yes, I can spare you a dime, guess," he said as he produced the coin and handed it to an old man, whom any officer might arrest on sight as a vagrant. "What made you do that?" queried a bystander, when the mendicant had passed on. "Don't you know that every cent given to that class is an encouragement to vice ? "

"Wait a bit till you hear my story. I was only a boy when I first left England. Like some other boys I got into a bit of trouble with the law, and as a matter of fact, I ran away. Fether was terribly put out with me, and the last words he spoke were to disown me. I wrote several letters home after reaching this country, but never a one was replied to and I finally decided to paddle my own cance and make the best of it. Ten years after my arrival here, and when living in Chicago, I stood in front of a theater one bitter cold night, and an old man came up and began to tell me a pitiful story. I was waiting and looking for a party who was to meet me, and therefore paid little attention to the beggar. I did not even and I heard him say ; "I am hungry and penniless. For God's zake have compassion on a poor old man!" "You go away or I'll have you arrested !" was the unfeeling reply, and the old man

"Well, later on in the evening I got to wondering where I had heard the old man's voice before. I felt that it had a familiar sound, and yet I could not place it, and the thing worried me so that I could not sleep before midnight. Next morning, as I reach ed the corner of State and Sixteenth street on my way to work, I saw a crowd gathered before a door, and a boy told me the body of an old man who had been frozen to

"It came to me like a flish that this was which has been completely destroyed in the one who had addressed we, and I entered large spots, has thus had its original color the place. They had his face covered, but I removed the handkerchief. As true as there is a heaven beyond us that was the dead body of my old father ! I learned in time that mother was dead, and that father, finally forgiving me for my boylsh prank, and he had tramped a year like an old vagrant, hoping to find ms. As I had not ed him. He was pepuiless and hungry, and The custom of kissing bables is being I refused him a paltry trifls. I tell you it > bis voice forever stilled !" "And so !" "And so the old man who just left us may be hunting for a son or daughter. In any event, I cannot refuse them. Their words bring to mind that bitter night, and their