Cross your t's in writing, but do not cross your letters. In the best appointed households a wise economy prevails. Waik as if you were conscious that your body has a soul in it.

Speech of one a self ought to be seldom, and well chosen. Perfect machinery works noiselessly; so does a perfect hostess. It is good to travel. " Home-keeping youth have ever homely wits." "Shun the wretch who goes about saking riddles and making puns." Never forget that your rheumatism is a matter of national concern. At home, as abroad, what we should spe cially cultivate is manners.

Elaborate monograms and gorgeous creats on stationery are vulgar.

A gentleman will never admit that he has malacies-in conversation. Observe in making an introduction always to present the gentleman to the lady. Half the failures in life are caused by spurring one's horse to leap beyond his strength. A married lady should treat a stranger with reserve, an acquaintance with reti

-A rudely arrogant speech often rankles in been forgotten.

or indirectly) invites you. desire that you would go.

struggle to keep up appearances.

feels flittered by the reflection that you searing hissing into the air. think him too clever to be es joled.

body's place.

Good humored gossip is the salt of ordinor misrepresents.

You may learr the grammar of a language and fork and sink back in her chair. and yet know nothing of its genius; so you the true spriit of hospitality.

ple weep at his extravagance; so a wise housekeeper will be willing that his friends shall respect his prudence rather then smile covertly at his ostentation.

ascribe to them as great a potency as beauty | that my future will be darker than death." possesses. No doubt they go far to supply the want of beauty and constitute the secret patient voice was heard without, apparently of that fascination which we often see ex- insisting on admittance, which was being erted by persons who cannot claim to be feebly denied, but an instant later both to make them feel that they are thoroughly along the uncarpeted corridor that was floorwelcome, and give up to them all your thoughts and attention. Do this not so much out of respect to them as to yourself. No one benefits more by an act of courtesy than the person who performs it.

It was said of Lady Maynard : "To her husband she was the immediate gift of God, sent for a good angel as well as for a wife. As a mother she evinced an unspeakable lem population of Cairo is up in arms, and tenderness and loving thoughtfulness toward her children. The servants respected her and rection urging them to a general massacre her friends loved her."

The Brakeman's Presence of Mind.

brakeman. "I saw Billy once, and at that death in the Esbekiah, with a thousand time I wished I hadn't. It was when I was ruffians standing by and applauding the a brakeman on the Central. One day we act. 'Tis said that thirty thousand starving were shifting cars at a little station near Egyptians, all too feeble to move, are prop Syracuse, when a special car, with a locomo- ped up naked in thirty thousand doorways, tive attached, came in and stood on the with labels attached to their almost fleshless main track near where we were at work, bones, and written on each in Arabic: we didn't pay much attention to this one, them back the bread that the unbeliever and I began to get mad myself. Then I in even less." gave it another trial, but still it wouldn't The young officer ceased, more apparently it a sling into the creek, and swore into that he had no further horrors to relate.

was Billy Vanderbitt. been watching you. Do you know whose all events." the creek ?

pecting to be bounced the next minute. "Well, whose was it?" " 'The Pennsylvania Railroad's, sir,' wasn't bounced, either."

A Bear Incident about three miles above Niagara Falls saw cause the wires have been cut, and it is rea bear as imming in the river. Thinking he ported that the Arabs are tearing up the would be a capital prize, they rowed to line near Kalyuh as well. So, for heaven's wards him is a large substantial log canoe sake avoid the railway terminus, for I or "dug out." When they had overtaken should not at all wonder if there the massahim, he seemed quite obliged for their at- cre wasn't commenced, but rather drive in tention, and, quietly putting his paws on your own carriage to Umm Dinar, and there the side of the cance, drew himself into take boat for Alexandria, for that would be it, notwithstanding that they vehemently by far the safest plan." belaboured him with their paddles. As he with the follow Mr. Donelly's came is part add, two of the men went advice," pleaded Nellie, earnestly. into the water on the other side. The third, It was this plea, which seemed to recal who may be called Fisher, could not swim, Mr. Trezarr's presence of mind. and naturally enough felt somewhat embar- "I think you very much for your no rassed. Mach to his relief, the animal de doubt excellent intentions and counsel, Mr. liberately satidown in the bow of the canoe Donelly," he said, coldly. "But the fact facing him. As the noise of the rapids and is that neither I nor my family have the roar of the Falls requinded him that they least cause for apprehension. His excellenwere omlinously near, Fisher resolved to cy the war minister has most graciously and take advantage of the truce and pull vigor- considerately offered us the shelter of his ously for the shore. But, when he began to palace until the public excitement has calm ominous grins Fisher desisted for a while, guard us in safety thereto." but feeling their constant and insidious ap- On receiving this information, the young proach to the rapids, he tried again to use Irishman turned pale and glanced at Nell e, his paddle. Rruin then raised his note of who said resolutely : bation an octave higher, and made "I shall not accompany my parents a motion as if he intended to "go for" him. he war minister's" The men who had swum ashore soon, how- Frank, who by this time had approachever, reappeared, in another cance, with a ed close to the levely girl's chair, alone loaded musket, shot the bear, and ended heard the words (which was fortunate, per-new men like new English Parliament, and for a time the inhabitants of the galthe names of those who are speaking. But the wen's sake, Nellie, grant me five that we have to fear, darling, and we shall among the new and the young men will be minutes in the garden before we are parted, meet few enough of his kind on the desert Talbot, "the father of the Hones," who pen to hear what he was saying.

tenemanas

VOL. XIII.

FENELON FALLS, ONTARIO, SATURDAY, JAN. 16, 1886.

NO. 48.

A Story of Love and Wild Adventure, founded upon Startling Revelations five minutes they were crossing its resoundin the Career of Arabia Pasha.

By the Author of "NINA, THE NIHILIST," "THE RED SPOT," "THE RUSSIAN SPY,

CHAPTER XXL "THEY'LL NEED SWIFT STEEDS WHO FOLLOW,"

SAID YOUNG LOCHINVAR.

It was a dinner in name, but hardly a dinner in fact.

Anxiety concerning something, though ness. they hardly knew what, had caused the cook to make many a mistake and the other serthe mind long after an unjust action has case, but even had they been the right ones den; the window is open; we have but to they would have falled in this instance to raise the Venetians and step out." "A high-bred lady," says Thackeray, "is stimulate the appetites of those who had sat the most complete of all Heaven s subjects around the unfestive board.

The evening was very hot, and the dark. the scorching air.

Outside the open but Venetian blind exclaiming: In making calls never stay so long as to screened windows all was still as death, save There is nothing so contemptible as that a rising wind, was wafted from a neighbordistinct rumblings as of heavy baggage or mit you to leave them more.' artillery wagons passing along a rutty road, Truth is the best policy. Every person and a sound like fireworks being let off and

The trio who sat at the table and also the

"Come, Nellie, there is nothing to be may be precise in your knowledge of the frightened at. We are quite safe at all rules of etiquette, and utterly ignorant of events. Nothing like having a friend at court, eh? Why, Nell, you may indirectly de ert them at such a time?" Louis XII. said that he had rather see his and those of our entire household as well, courtiers laugh at his avarice than his peo- for every living soul at Mount Carmel is embraced in the war minister's invitation, and such a thought should make you glad." "I shall never know what it is to feel glad any more," sobbed Nellie. "I have a "Wonderful power of manners! We may | presentiment which amounts to a conviction As she utters the words an eager and im-voices ceased and were succeeded by hurri-While guests are with you do your best ed strides and the musical ring of spurs ed with perfumed chunam wood, and then the room door was opened violently and Frank Donelly broke into the apartment with a flushed and excited face and blood trickling down his cheek.

"Mr. Trezarr, you would not listen to my warning this morning, but for the sake of those you love, I beseech you to give good heed unto me now. The fanatic Mosthe santons and dervishes are in every di of Europeans. Isolated acts of murder have already been perpetrated, whilst assaults and beatings can be counted by the score, insults and indignities by the hundred. "So Vanderbilt is dead," said a freight A poor Christian woman has been stoned to work ; and then I took that link and gave because he was out of breath than by reason the bargain. In about ten seconds I heard Pulling out a handkerchief, he began to on the platform of the special car. I knew | terrified glance with : "A mere prick, that him as soon as I set my eyes on him -it is all; but the fellow who gave it to me is past doing any further mischief, I returned "See, here, young man, says he. 'I've him more than a Roland for his Oliver, at property you've just been throwing into "What is to be done?" ejaculated Mrs. Trezarr, for a moment losing confidence " Yes, sir,' said I, trembling, and ex- even in the war minister, and she looked anxiously at her husband as she put the

"What you decide on doing should be done at once," broke in Frank, without al-" On !' said Vanderbilt ; and then he lowing Mr. Trezarr time to make reply. went into his car and shut the door. I "Your flight should be immediate, and not by rail, for the station is already crowded by refugees who can't get away by reason that there are not half sufficient carriages to hold them or engines to draw them. They In the summer of 1816 three men living can't telegraph to Alexandria for more be-paddle, the bear began to grow I his object- ed down, and almost every minute I expect ions, entoreis the mist the same time with the arrival of the armed escort which is to Fisher's Perrible suspense. Bruin weighed haps, under the circumstances), for the atbeen suddenly attracted and engrossed by the jumble of wheels, the tramping of horses and the jingling of weapons and accountrements outside, which united told them that the promised escort had arrived. a sprinkling of very old beads. In addition perhaps for ever," said Frank, purposely to Mr. Gladstone, there will be Mr. John using such words as should allay any suspibe Mr. Gladstone, there will be Mr. John using such words as should allay any suspibe Mr. John using such words But the buxom dame was too excited to

ETC, ETC, ETC. majestically out of the room, and Mr. Trezarr at once scurried after her to ascertain if the war minister had sent an officer in command of the escort sufficiently high in rank as to necessitate his being asked indoors and soldiers of Great Britain were destined to Directly both father and mother had disappeared, the young Irish dragoon whispered hurriedly in Nellie's ear: "This has condiments were brought round in every happened opportunely. Come into the gar-

The lovely girl followed him swiftly and of what he had been pondering. sagerly. The servants, of course, did not venture to oppose her exit, and a minute

"Oh, my darling, if we part now I feel ascreate in the mind of your hostess an intense when now and then a murmur as from an sured not only that we shall never meet angry but distant sea, cr a wall like that of again, but that your future will be a living is at one and the same time the bravest and grave in that grim pasha's harem. Should which animates the poor creatures who ing city, interspersed occasionally with in- once its wall enclose you he will never per-

"Frank, I feel so, too, but, oh, what i to be done?" responded Nellie, piteously. "Exactly that which we planned to do some three hours later, with trifling varia-In these words is comprehended the whole servants who walted upon them betrayed tions, such as altered circumstances render code of courtesy: Put everybody on the symptoms of, at all events, uneasiness when necessary. But this is a time for action and level as yourself and put yourself into every. ever these unfamiliar and unaccountable not for explanation, for every moment's noises forced themselves more especially start that we can obtain may be of the utmost value to us. Just outside that little Nellie's anxiety extended to another who door in the garden wall is my man, Pat ary conversation, but no well bred person was not present, and each morsel that she Monaghan, with two horses as fresh as will indulge in the gossip that peers into the attempted to swallow for appearance sake daisies and lively with their supper of oats. privacy of domestic life and either invents seemed as though it would choke her, so You must mount one and I the other, Pat that at last she was fain to drop her knife will follow us in whatever he can beg, borrow or steal, and in an hour we shall have left Caro and its bloodthirsty population far behind us.' "But my parents, Frank? How can

"Under Arabi Pasha's protection no possible danger can menace them." "I believe that. But then this dress.

How can I mount a horse clad thus?" And the lovely girl glanced deprecatingly at the snow white neck, shoulders and arms that were so liberally revealed by her rich "For goodness sake regard not such trifles at a moment like the present. The Egyptian night is so warm that there will be no fear of your catching cold, and did you reenter the house to change your apparel you would never succeed in leaving it again. Oh, do not lose the one and only opportunity that has been afforded us by Providence. Hark, they are calling to us already."

It was her father's voice, and speaking in stern, peremptory tones. That decided her. the door in the wall.

ion could hardly overtake her. But when the wall was reached she re-1. There is no time to be lost. ed up against with both hands pressed breathlessness and her excitement.

The dragoon unfastened the door, placed an arm around her waist, half swung her out into the roadway, and then said to a figure that loomed dimly out of the gloom : lady into your saddle like lightning.

Special cars were not very uncommon, and 'The result of Feringhee competition! Get as many resources as a fox. I've no fear corpse and flowers seems to me to have a as you can and come after us like steam. late to turn back, think you?"

wheeled Nellie's ateed round in an opposite us on with a murmured premise of safety."

CHAPTER XXII.

THE CAPTIVE OF THE LOTUS LILIES-CHASED INTO THE DESERT.

"You've told me more than once that beneath the galloping hoof-strokes of you've followed the hounds in Leicestershire | horse, and held your own in the first flight as well, Nellie, so I've not the slightest apprehension of how this wild night ride will end," said

"I thought that Port Said was our destination, to catch the English mail boat?" "It was, had we been able to get away by train, but you see that scheme has been knocked on the head. The rail is too dangerous. I dare not risk it with you. It is so | der ?'

easy for hostile Arabs to rip up a few plates and so send an entire train to the very dence. Still, we may take to it at some point or other of our journey, if either ourselves or our horses knock up, for we shall never be very far trom it the whole way." "Oh, Frank, I dread most having to ride through Cairo in this dress. See what a mark I am for stones and missiles of every quickly the thundering refrain : description. The fairness of my skin will point me out as a Coristian girl at any distance. The mob will tear me off my horse and stone or trample me to death. That is my horrible dread. "We are not going through Cairo, Nell. into the desert almost at once. By journey. ing down on the left bank of the Nile instead of the right we shall escape a hundred dangers, not the least being the many scores of canals that it would puzzle us sorely to been you that's been philandering on the ing of both whiskey and beer to drink." cross en horseback."

"But may we not lose our way in the desert, or get lost in the shifting sands?" "Not between the river and the moun- especial." tains. Its breadth is too contracted for

"But in the mountains there are tigers," hyenas and wolves in whole packs, Frank, "And in the river there are crocodiles and hippopotami : but the dwellers of the Nile will no more molest us than the dwelvers of the mountain. Man is the only wild beast track which we are about to follow,"

are quite safe !"

ened m . And we will be married at Alexeandria ?"

harbor almost as soon as they arrive." They had by this time turned off late the by this an' by that, I shouldn't wonder if road that led unto the bridge, and in about they were running still." hoarse murmur of the Nile, as its rapid cur- the horse as you say." rent swept on towards the distant sea; the same current which in past ages has borne made the Agyptians run? Bedad, thin forgiven whilst these events recurred to his or." mind for wondering if the scarlet uniformed shown a certain degree of civility and politeof conquerors. a sense of danger, and she exclaimed : "Of what are you thinking, Frank? Have "No, darling," and he forthwith told her required no little care and attention. The however."

later the lawn was reached, when Frank spirited animal seemed disposed to shy and must not walk with her, unless she (directly stored no coolness to the parched sarth or turned round, folded her in his arms and clasped her to his heart, at the same time planks of the pontoon bridge were not at all to increase the speed of her horse, sitting to his liking and the shimmering of the the fine animal like an Amazon. water and of the stars that were reflected therein added to his uneasiness : for a horse hends, cowardly when brought in contact with anything unusual that he fails to exactly understand.

> Nellie suddenly. "Even the river lends no coolness to the air, so what will it be when we get on to the desert sands? Don't you feel it. Frank ?"

"How stiffingly close it is," exclaimed rappiness and delight when you are so The lovely girl's answer to this tender | had discovered 5,000. speech was a cry of either terror or dismay, and at the same time she caught up the curb with a sudden jerk that caused her steed to snort, rise on end and paw the air with his fore hoofs. In an instant, however, Frank's hand and voice had restored him to promise obedience, though he still trembled, snorted, pricked his ears sharply forward and gazed nervously at something in the river. Nellie's beautiful eyes being riveted with horror on apparently the same spot, the young dragoon turned to look in the same direction, when he beheld floating close to the bridge amidst a tangled maze of snowy lotus flowers the dead body of a Euro-of its clothing before being consigned to the English heart. river, which revealed the fact that not only was the throat cut across, but that the chest was riddled with knife stabs, and it was the phosphorescent glow given forth from the putrefying body that revealed its presence and that of the flowers amongst which it floated.

"Nellie, if the sight is so terrible, why She spoke no word, but started across the | not look another way. I fear that such lawn, like a timid fawn, in the direction of victims will be counted by the hundred this night in yonder city. Hark, I can hear So great was her speed that her compan- cries of terror or of anguish from that direction even now, darling. Let us press on. "Oh, Frank, the lotus flowers, the twin egainst her throbbing heart, owing to her horror of the opal ring," gasped the levely "The lotus flowers? It is their matted tendrils that uphold the corpse, darling." "Yes, yes; I know, I know; but I attach a prophetic meaning to the sight. The saddle, and as Nellie involuntarily kicked terious and once deemed sacred flower wheel, while singing "King of Thule." her foot into the stirrup and gathered up the avenges both itself and its slighted mistress. the presentiment of your own doom. Even with telephones. The object is to give perthat pale, unearthly light that hovers o'er sons suffering from contagious diseases a son. I've no fear corpse and flawers seems to me to have a reins she felt a return of courage and confid- Pray heaven that you have not looked upon tor you. Nevertheless, get a mount as fast horrible significance. Oh, Frank, is it too Pretty soon I was making a coupling, but has stolen from them, and if the bread canthe link wouldn't fit. I trick it two or not be got, then give them blood to drink, three times, and the engineer got out of and you may depend on it the very gutters as you can and come after us like "team. late to turn back, think you?

We shall cross the bridge and journey down on the left bank of the Nile. The road runs three times, and the engineer got out of and you may depend on it the very gutters alongside the river for a long way, and in us, and at the very worst it may not lurk patience backing up for me so n any times, will run blood in another hour, aye, perhaps alongside the river for a long way, and in us, and at the very worst it may not lurk who smoke will draw a lesson from the case heart, they will often haul with ease loads gritty fellow. Both men are single. After half an hour the moon while up. Youv's in front. A fig for signs and omens; I be- of a 12-year-old lad in London, who died in of double the size they could after the front the wounded men had been made as countertgot a good revolver in your belt, money in lieve in none of them. See, Nellie, darling, consequence of smoking a pennyworth of is out of the ground in spring, and especial, able as possible, it was found that there your pocket and brains in your head, and no bridge and river lie in our rear and from the double twist. "We may at least," says ly over land which, after the frost is out, were no more grudges to settle, and, as I (I dark blue dome of heaven a thousand bright the venerable editor, "advise every sensi- would be so wet and soft as to be almost im- everybody present felt kindly disposed to-"Bedad, yer honor, and I'll have a horse stars of hope shine down on the groves of ble boy to regard tobacco as a poison." between my legs in five minntes if ye'll only lime and citron trees that we are about to a plug-hatted, side-wiskered man standing cheek, the next instant answering Nellie's be getting away with the Lidy instead of enter, causing every green leaf to gleam as 984. The navy consists of 13 iron-clads, 14 speechifying," and with these words Pat though tipped with liquid fire, whilst away armored vessels (gunboats for coast de- draw it to the field we should put it where Monaghan darted away toward the male en- in the distance the drooping palms seem to trance to Mount Carmel, whilst Frank | nod to us from the desert plain and to beckon "Frank, your words cheer me. I feel myself again. But, hark 1 no sooner does hope bor service, and 10 pilot vessels and firecreep into my heart than despair rushes ships. after it. We are already pursued. Donelly checked his horse and listened, and true enough the wooden bridge that they had just left behind was reverberating

"It is but a single individual, and if he is pursuing us he rides on a fool's errand. But I d much rather say it was another fugitive Frank Donelly cheerfully, as they cantered like unto ourselves. Anyhow, let us speed along the Chonbrah road. "Alexandria is up our nage, for the being overtaken by a from Cairo exactly a hundred and twenty friend would be more unpalatable to me not be half so easy to get rid of him."

presently drew rein again, exclaiming : singing. Can he be your servant, I won-

Even Donelly drew up at this and listened intently in turn to the rapid thud of the galloping horse's hoof, that were now beating upon the hard, baked up earth,

How got you that jolly red nose?"

came a roar the next instant, and just "Cinnamon and ginger, nutmegs, rum and cloves, Twas they that gave poor Pat such a folly red nose, and hardly had the last words of the old campa going drinking chorus escaped the singer's lips than, mounted on a fine Arab steed dinner at a farm house, and was so astonishand flourishing a long lance above and around ed that he writes to a London newspaper We shall cross the pontoon bridge and get his head as though it had been a shillelah, about it. "I wonder how often in merrie appeared Mr. Patrick Monaghan in propria England," he says, "a farmer, with his persons, and apparently in the most boister- family and two men servants, sits down to oue spirite to boot.

"Arrah, captain, dear, an' it must have way, for it's not on this side of Umm Dinar mount in a very short time."

dark, an' having made it, I creeps up unob. ren. served on all fours, grabe he d of one of the Another English physician, Dr. Heald of comes of it all. spalpeen's legs as was in my saddle, pitches Leeds, was lately accused of indecent as-

"Yer honor, it's the gospel truth that I'm telling yez I brandlehed my spear and I "Or aboard some English vessel in the cursed them for murthering haythins, an' I made a dozen ov 'em run like steam ; aye,

"Come, come, I m not going to believe ing planks, to the accompan ment of the all that, though I doubt not that you got "What, yer honor don't believe that successively to conquest the Ethlopian, the can prove it, for here they come on to the Assyrian, the Persian, the Roman and the Sar- bridge like a pack o' hounds in full cry, acen, for each in turn wielded the destinies and here peeps out the moon as a witness of Egypt, and the young dragoon may be on my side to show 'em clearly to yer hon-"Oh, you ran first and they ran after you?

Now I see what you mean, Pat. Well, we next tread that historic soil in the character will make them run in the same manner, for they are trying to run down more im- the farm, His silence oppressed his companion with | portant game than yourself, of that be assur-"Nellie, we are pursued," added Frank, turning to his girl companion, "for my brave but blundering follower has contrived to set the sleuth hounds of the war minister upon the right scent. Have not the Nellie made no answer, indeed her horse slightest fear that they will overtake us, "Nor will I have such a fear," respond-

FOREIGN NOTES.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

The Cologne Gazette says there is not hereafter to be a Parliament at Westminster, but a " Parnellment."

or over $250. for each inhabitant. The completeness of the work done "No, darling, for I can feel nothing but the earlier astronomers is shown by the fact, recently stated, that out of the 6,000 or more nebulae now known the Herschels

The Smithsonian Institution no longer St. John's wort or pennyroyal, he will find dispute waxed pretty warm, and a comarde gives away its publications, but offers them the salivary glands to be excited in this named Tom Harris came out and tried to for sale at about cost price. The principal manner. The effect is removed by eating make peace. place of sale is Brentano's new publication any dry substance, as oatmeal, middlings or pass through the Suez Canal only in day- this will put a stop to it at once. The waste pute grew warmer, and both men pulled light ; but now war ships and steamers of saliva is exceedingly weakening to a horse, provided with electric lights of sufficient for saliva is not mere water, but contains a and Johnson were facing each other but a power to illuminate the canal 1,200 yards quantity of potash, soda, lime, acid, phos- few feet apart. Harris grabbed both pistols, shead may go at night.

December has been a month of extraordinarily favorable weather for fox hunting in the south of Ireland, and no unpleasant incidents growing out of politics have marred It had evidently been partially stripped the sport so dear to the Irish as well as the

The number of words between "aut" Murray's great English dictionary is 9,135. order to apply enough of the essential ele- air. Brophy's shot took effect in Johuson's The work will embrace twenty-six part, on the calculation that there are about 240,- have much of it to handle, especially if we bone, passed through the body, and came 000 words in the language.

taken place in Paris after a single application of Dr. Debove's method of freezing the skin above the painful parts with a spray of chloride of methly. The operation is said to be applicable also to facial neuralgia. Dr. Hartwell of Johns Hopkins University says that a German soldier can scale a twenty-foot wall with his arms and accompulsory in the German schools. ing machines has offered Mme. Patti $1,000 time. Hauling out stable manure seems to carried back to the house. A doctor was "Off with you, Pat, and lift this young link that bound you to that beautiful but for each appearance, in addition to her be one of these jobs, which can not only be summoned and examined the wounds. As all of terrible Egyptian woman was a lotus flower. regular salary, if she will sit at one of his done as well, but much better, in winter, they were made with forty-five calibre wea-No sconer said than done. It was a side That link was broken by you, but the mys- sewing machines, instead of at the spinning when the ground is frozen, if snow is not pons scarcely more than arm's length away, An English company has perfected its ar-> chance to talk with their friends. Speaking-tubes are inadmissible on account of the infectious nature of the breath.

The officers of the German navy number fence), 9 cruiser frigates, 10 cruiser corvettes, 5 cruisers, 4 unarmored gunboats, 6 despatch boats, 10 training ships, I surveying vessel, 2 transports, 12 vessels for har-

Two French women entered into a contest to determine which of them could talk the faster. A mutual friend was appointed umpire, and the sum of 1,000 france was to go to the victor. For three hours they read from Eugene Sue's feuilleton, and during from the cart. This is not the best but the against those strongholds built upon the that time the victor succeeded in pronouncing 296,311 words. Her adversary came in a bad second with 203,560 words. Paris has twenty-two rquares of an area they are needed and not in spots, as they community, which abate the senses, but are of eleven hectares, while Berlin has fifty would be if left long in small heaps. than to be caught up by a foe, for it might equares of an area of forty hectares. The Many fear, that if manure is left spread "The best religion," remarks the United parks of London aggregate 877 hectares, on the surface for any length of time it will Presbyterian, " is that which has a good The lovely girl did as she was bidden, but against Berlin's 417 hectares, which, con- waste by evaporation, but I am satisfied, foundation of reason to build upon No sidering the difference in the population of by a careful study of the scientific aspect of great work of grace in any man's heart will a "He's gaining on us, Frank, and he is the two cities, is decidedly to the advantage the case, as well as by my own observation, be done, if it is not done rationally or acof the last named city. In the number of that there is no appreciable loss in this way conding to reason; and no great movement

> 000, is largely ahead. The Paris correspondent of the Lancet is by washing off from very hilly land, when at the bottom of it. The attempt to save states that when Dr. Pasteur read his last the ground is frozen, and that this loss is men and the world by unhallasted enthusireport on rables at the Academy of Science, seldom great. his friend, the late M. Bouley, asked whether dogs rendered insusceptible to hydrophobia by repeated inoculations would not themselves be liable to communicate the disease by biting. M. Pasteur could give no immediate reply, but admitted that it was a subject for serious consideration. An English sportsman, shooting on the north shore of Long Island, was invited to rosat turkey, chicken pie, with four or five vegetables, and cranberry ple, to say noth-

all that I've done since we last parted more called forth many expressions of regret in and little, until, if you would see them, you perceive the connection between topography England. She was one of the most dis- must seek them in the domain of squalor or and patriotism. Show me a man who cares "Tell us what you have done, Pat; not tinguished of the women graduates of Lou- vice, or if you would appraise them, you no more for one place than another, and it that we need remain still to listen, for time don University. In her examination in 1882 shall find them filled with his own ways, will show you in that same person one who is too precious for that, You found a good she held the first honors in anatomy and The moral wreck of a man who has all that loves nothing but himself. took the gold medal and scholarship. In heart could wish is often more utter and "Falth, yer honor, there was nothing so 1884 she was accorded honors in each sub- pitiable than that of the beggir. No, the Not the analogies of nature—the resurrection difficult about that, at all at all. There was ject. Her death was due to diphtheria, end is not reached, the final estimate is not of nature from a Winter grave—or the many's nag to select from just a few yards contracted while at her poet of house sur- taken when passion is gratified, and aims mancipation of the butterfly. Not even to

Farm Wrinkles.

A wire run along the top of the old-fashioned straight rail and block fence will keep the stock away from it, and save trouble in putting up riders.

Have on hand a paper of copper rivets of different sizes and a piece of oiled leather for cutting strings to keep the harness mended

It is a painful fact that the half-baked

It takes about seventy good-sized ears to make a bushel of shelled seed corn. Three horses abreast is very often the most economical team for the heavy work of

In Spain an old custom among the country people is never to eat fruit out of doors without planting the seed. The roads are lined with trees whose fruit is free to all.

Slobbering and its Oure.

The frequent slobbering of horses at this season is variously accounted for. We have heard it attributed to the second growth clover, to the spiders web on the herbage, to lobelia, St. John's wort, and other plants, the first news of a fatal shooting affray at but never yet to pennyroyal. But having oa- Montruelto Plaza ranch, New Mexico. The casion to make use of a neighor's parture for trouble occurred at a wedding dance. There a few nights, for our horses, we found them is a pool camp at that point, and all the slobbering profusely from the effects of the boys were to attendance it the wedding pennyroyal which grew abundantly in the festivities. the daughter of Annastasia field. The cows which grazed in the field Martino had just been wedded to Francica were also troubled with profuse salivation. de Baca. The ceremony was performed We have had previous knowledge that lobe- about 7 o'clock in the evening, and dancelia and St. John's wort would produce the ing began immediately afterward. The New Zealand, with a population of about same trouble, and now are sure that penny- second set was on the floor when John 600,000, has a debt of nearly £31,000,000, royal may be added to the list. But we Brophy and William Johnson left the house, doubt very much that second growth clover and, meeting outside, had some words about will cause it; indeed, we have good reasons a disagreement that had existed between to know that it does not in some cases. The them some time. Brophy had charge of the slobbering of horses and cows is caused by camp, and Johnson, it seems, had heard the irritating effect upon the salivary glands, that Brophy had said that Johnson, "did of the strong essential of the plants which not go by his right name. Johnson wanted produce it. If one will chew some lobelia, Bropny to "take back" the remark. The

When and How to Apply Stable Manure. Stable manure is a heavy, bulky material, economical manner, is a matter of no little down were a probe could not reach it. sons, a very favorable time for hauling out into the house, put on his overcost, and manure. Every farmer should endeavor to started off. Brophy was carried into the coutrements, or jump an iron spiked fence keep his help and teams as industriously house and Johnson was not found until nearwithout getting caught. Gymnastics are employed as is reasonable during the whole ly an hour afterwards. He had walked deep, as at any other time of the year, the wounds, and especially that of Johnson, lar or other place where the manure is said Johnson was liable to die at any mo-

We can not afford to handle manure more | were quieted, and the interrupted dance ... than is absolutely necessary, and when we proceeded as though nothing had happened, it is to stay, either by spreading it directly from the cart, or by putting it in small heaps to be spread before they are soaked by rain or frozen so they cannot be spread with ease. We cannot afford in ordinary farm practice, again. But leaving manure in small heaps pect to be converted by a Sunday morning on the fields during winter I consider one of the least convenient ways of managing it. and though it is often done by good farmers, are of thine inward family, and, having a yet it looks to me like a very shiftless prace root in thy temper, plead a right and protice. A much better way is to spread it prietory in thee; raise timely barriers easiest way of handling it. When spread rock of nature, and which make this a great trees Paris, with 87,602, against Berlin's 38,- by the exposure of unfermented manure, among a people, no matter how true the and that the only possible loss of any amount aim, will finally succeed, unless it has this

The Downward Road to Ruin.

Evil, like fever, or madness, or consump inheres. Its lesue is always disaster and not what you will get, but what you will beruin, " the blackness of darkness for ever." will be in yourself. Take your burdens and "A little while and the wicked shall not be." It does not take long for individual wickedness to work out their rulnous Issues -the drunkard, the licentious, the fraudulent, the selfish. First successes seem joyous and satisfying enough; men succeed in their aims, they gratify their passions, ments is favorable both to individual and they realise their desires; but by and by national character. Our home, our birththeir wealth is gone, or, worse still, they place, our native land-think for awhile are permitted to retain it passion is burnt what the virtues are which arise out of the out, esteem is furfeited, social status is lost, feelings connected with these words, and if The death of Dr. F. Helen Prideaux has downwards, step by step, falling by little you have any intellectual eyes you will then away, so I took my choice of him all in the geon in the Paddington Hospital for Child- are secured. Walt and see the kind of life, the testimony of the fact of risen dead; for the kind of enjoyment, the kind of man that who does not know how shadowy and un-lished in the Santa Fe district of the Argen- is the living proof that makes the heaven to are quite safe?"

| Place, confiscates his lance and et ceteries presence of hysteria was shown at the trial, time Republic. Their territory occupies come credible. "Christ in you is the hope of the protection of so powerful a an makes about a dozen of his companions and the jury gave a verdict of acquittal ninety-five square leagues, and the settlers of glory." It is the eagle eye of late which and Mr. Cabel Wright, who enters on a Parliamentary carrier as member for Leigh dress and look out what we are to take with with 75 fears behind him.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run for it.

Iriend, how could they be otherwise, dear? run after a ten minutes' consultation. English number 1,359 families. During the last penetrates the grave, and sees far into the

THE FARM.

Till called by the sheriff, one bitter day, To sign the homestead farm away. . The father, shattered and seented with rum ; ga & The mother, sick and pale and thin, Under the weight of her sorrows dumb, In debt for the bed she was dying in

Oh, I saw the wrecked household around her stand— And the justice lifted her stembling hand, Helping her, as in her pain she lay, To sign the homestead farm away.

Ah, how she wept ! And the flood of tears Swept down her temples bare ! And the father, already bowed with years, Bowed lower with despair! Drink! Drink! It had ripened into woe For them and all they loved below, And forced them, poor and old and gray, Drunkard signing the farm away !

To sign the homestead farm away. Oh, many scenes have I met in life, And many a call to pray; But the saddest of all was the drunkard's wife Signing the farm away : Home once richest in all the town, Home, in that fatal cup poured down, Worse than fire or fl sod's dismay-

Signing the Farm Away. BY RIV. W. R. COORBRANE."

Orchard covered the slopes of the bits UTOIL

And they drank as they worked, and they drank as

And they labored less, and they squandered more. Chiefly for rum at the village store.

K-p' in the family name ;

Corndelds rich with golden ears
Oft as the harvest came;
Orowded barn and crowded bin.

And still the loads kept to using ip-

Cider - forty barrels, they say

Winter and summer early and late, Counting it as a great mishan

But, while the seasons crept along

As ever a drunkard knew,

And passions into habits grew, Their appetites became as strong

To befound "without a barrel on tap,"

they ate,

Rolling in for a hundred years; And the fourth in the family line appears.

Sure in season to come from the mill, 1 ?

To be tasted round Thanksgiving Day !

A COWBOY EPISODE.

Fatal Fighting at Arm's Length with Forty five-Calibre Revolvers. Sam Thompson of Liberty has trought in

Finally the disputants agreed to leave the stand in the rotunda of the National Mu- cornmeal, and the best remedy for it is to question to Harris and Charles Thompson to give any animal which is suffering from sall. settle. Harris went into the house to get Heretofore ships have been permitted to vation a feed of dry meal or middlings; Thompson, and while he was gone the distheir revolvers. As Harris came out Brophy. phoric acid, and organic matter, so that it turned the muzzles down, and stood between approaches very closely in character to the two angry men for nearly half an hour, or until his hands became so benumbed that he could stand it no longer. In vain he begged the men to put up their weapons. But his efforts were futile. Johnson demanded, "Let us loose and let us settle it; At last and in applying it to our land we have to Harris pushed the muzzles of the revolvers handle a large amount of water and other down as far as he could and jumped back, and "batten" in the second part of Dr. | material of comparatively little value, in Instantly two reports rang out in the night ments toc abundant crops. And when we chest about two inches below the collar have to draw it far at the busy season of out below the right shoulder blade. John-Cures of sciatica are reported as having planting, or over reft land in wet weather, son's first shot hit Brophy's watch, and aid we find it a tedious job, and often planting no further damage than to smash that time-note is considerably delayed by the time requir- keeper. Brophy then started to run. Johned to get the manure spread upon the land. son fired to second time, the ball entering Hence when and how to apply it in the most | the small of Brophy's back, and dropping when the ground is frozen is for several rea- shot took effect, but Johnson coolly walked year, and all jobs which can as well be done down to the corral in order to get is horse Figure says that a Yankee maker of sew- during winter, should be attended to at that and had fainted from loss of blood. He was Of course this implies that the barn cel- were ghastly and terrible. The physician drawn out during winter it not only fur- | well known in the territory. All their acnishes work for help and teams which other- quaintances speak of them as "mighty goodwise might not be employed, but the ground boys," Johnson, as was shown by his con-The Lancet hopes against hope that boys being frozen solld, and the teams in good duct after the shooting, was a remarkably BRILLIANTS. Mr. Moody says: "I have found Sunday night the best time to preach gospel sermons, because people seemingly do not ex-

ward everybody else, the fears of the ladies ave

Bid early defiance unto those vices that in this way the soluable parts will be soak. part of the militia of thy life; delude not by the rains evenly into the soil just where thyself into iniquities from participation or not oblique to them.

> asm will always fall. Take your duty, and be strong in it, as God will make you strong. The harder it is, the stronger in fact you will be. Under stand, also, that the great question here is, must and will, as your opportunity, knowing that God has girded you for greater things than these. Whatever strengthens our local attach-troubles and losses and wrongs, if come they

For what is our proof of immortality? substantial these intellectual proofs become in unspiritual frames of mind ? No ; the life Some twenty oclonies have been setab- of the spirit is the evidence. Heaven begun