When Adelaide Neilson died she had her potention a copy of every photograph of serself which had been published, and the total of these, cartes, cabinets, panels, etc., WM 609. Sir Michael Hicks Beach is a very nice looking gentleman, handsome, with small features, black hair parted down the middle, black beard and moustache, and a very pleasant expression of face. A young-look log man, too, in his forties.

Mr. Parnell is a bachelor and lives the simplest sort of life—in lodgings, as a rule, taking his dinner at a hotel. His habits are so quiet that he and his sister Anna were guests at the same hotel for weeks without knowing that they were under one

Mr. Gladstone is, as is well known, fond of using poetal cards for his communications. Although the law is that nothing must be written on the address side of the card save the name and address, he invariably puts either his name or his initials there. Thus the recipient is subjected to one penny extra postage. Great is the Commander of the Faithful Recently he took a notion to have an artithat he might take his favorite sultana sail- the side of the mountain, but which was long strike his knees in vain? Wherefore through which the blood gushed like a ing in a steam launch. So he had the huge almost hidden by a luxuriant growth of by every hair of the dogs that begot thee, fountain. basin prepared and the whole water supply creeping plants bearing great waxen-looking Abou Self the santon will take bitter venof Constantinople turned in, and all the city | flowers. had to go dry for a day until the ake was

"Diamond Joe" Reynolds is one of the millionaire curiosities of Chicago. He invariably wears a plain grey suit without an as bright as a dewarop. He owns more

George Tiptos was a farmer in Madison county, Kentucky, about twenty years ago. he amsesed great wealth. He ruled autonow on a visit to his native State, and is expected to take back with him a Blue Grass

It is pretty clear now that General Prendergast made no arrangement for maintaining order at Mandalay after the surrender of Thebaw, that a saguinary riot occurred, that the mob had possession of the town all night, that statements to this effect were caimly disbelieved by the British commander three miles off, and that the Times correspondent was sent back to Rangoon simply because he had telegraphed home a deoription of this discreditable bungling. Yet It may be taken for granted that Gen. Prendergast will not be repremanded, and that correspondent will be frowned upon by the whole of officialdom, both in India and

At the informal opening of Parliament when the Queen was not present in the the House of Commons who assembled on color as brightasif they had been laid on yes. fears were still chiefly of the supernatural, truth ov me words," observed Pat. the floor of the throne was Sir William Harcoust, who took the liberty of resting his arm upon the railing in front of the royal seat. For this offence-for it is an offence, it seems, when the throne is uncovered-he was promptly reproved by an effi. cial, who with equal promptitude was reported by the right hon, gentleman to the yeoman usher. Sad to say, the ex home der; for when the throne is denuded of its refuge there, might enter the tomb in turn in their rear and coming on at a much fast- not yet been ripped up. secretary was ruled to have been out of orbrown holland covering, the Queen is sup- and bestow on them the honor of making er pace than their own. posed to be present in scirit, if not in per- it their own. son, and that being the case the royal railings must not be leant upon-not even by their guide lead on, not before, however, he round they beheld the hideous scorpion eater such a descendant of royalty as Sir William

According to the Jewish Chronicle, Baron Alphonse de Rothschild is not the first Hebrew who has been admitted into the French Academy of Fine Arts. The late Achille Fould, the celebrated finance minister to Napoleon III., was elected a free member of composed of a bundle of sugarcanes bound the Academy in 1854. The illustrious com- tightly together and coated thick with a poser, Halevy, also had a seat in the body kind of gum) aloft in one hand, the santon section of the institute, viz., the Academy European as a serpant bite. Francaise, is the only one which has not yet given a fauteuil to a Jew.

Murdered by a Madman.

A Victorie, B. C., despatch says: A horrible tragedy is reported to have occurred on the road between New Westminster and yet differing from them in many essential Port Moody. A man named Walker has respects. squatted on some land and the other day | They had got down this high and wide he took L. Robson, his partner Smith, and ano ner man named Jones to the place, jackal walking quite amiably side by side, wishing to dispose of his right. They arriv- | though the two animals are as a rule the ed at the ranch late in the afternoon, and -- nest bitter enemies conceivable. after dark Walker picked up a double-bar- "If these are two of your infernal pets relied shot gun and said he was going to and you dare to set them on us your life shoot a crow. One of the men remarked shall pay the forfeit, remember," said Donthat it was rather late to go shooting, when elly, fiercely, and at the words the dull red Walker said i e might as well tell them his glare that had come into the santon's eyes intention, that he was going to cook their died out of them again, leaving them the goose for them. He then shot Robson same dull fishy gray as they had been spalpeens as are afther us come any further intention, that he was going to cook their died out of them again, leaving them the through the breast, killing him instantly. | before. Jones attempted to take the gun away from | He spoke half a dozen words in shril the murderer, but he received the contents | tones to the two beasts, at the same time of the second barrel in the leg, shattering wagging his left arm about with a gesture Greeks and Romans used to do we read of his knee. Walker then made for Smith of menace; and evidently understanding with a knife, but the latter succeeded in him, their tails dropped and they slunk getting out of the cabin and escaped. Walk- away into a narrow side passage, from whose er then lashed Jones to the body of Rebson | pitch dark depths their eyes presently and fled. The wounded and dead non were gleamed like live coals, found by constables, who arrived a few hours later. The dead body of Walker was soon afterwards found. He is supposed to have killed himself.

D. L. Robson, murdered by a squatter in British Columbia, is a Kingstonian, and a rushing noise greeted their ears, like a flapstep-brother of Mrs. Black, wife of the Mon. ping of ghostly wings, so that Pat began to treal City Treasurer. He was in Montreal last winter, and only a week before the Afrits, or Giant Devils, were upon them, murder he wrote a letter to a nephew here, while Nellie uttered a little acream, and saying that as soon as he purshased the even Frank became utterly disconcerted. claim of a squatter he would start for Kingston again. He was wealthy, and was probably murdered for his money.

The Latest Tramp Dodge.

Right in the midst of the late January blizzard, a forlorn-locking tramp was blown once full of fluttering wings, hideous little to the front door of a cottage, and when the horned heads, and shrill squeaks, and then woman came out at his knock, he handed all in an instant the torch was extinguished her a little note-book, with the request : and the three fugitives felt themselves beat "Please write my name in this 'ere leedle about their faces by quickly fispping, skinbook." "Cortainly I will. What name, please?"

to become known in this town.

"Does anybody in this town know you !' vantage of the opporunity, with a wrench santon under the full impression, no doubt, When they had seen to their own steeds "No, ma'am." "Then what difference does it make what name you call yourself ?" mether livin' in this County, and, as I'm In another minute th y cou'd hear him They were soon undeceived on this point, quite ready for flight. dyin' of starvation, I want ter hide my real shouting in the distance : dead man on the street, with acthin' in his names of Allah and the hundred and four- Captain Denelly's and Pat Monagnan's re- cross a chesboard, with the rival knights, Mr. Harris of the Atlanta Constitution with peveral days.

Senelon Salls Gazette.

VOL. XIII.

FENELON FALLS, ONTARIO, SATURDAY, FEB. 13, 1886.

NO. 52.

THE FARM.

Forcing Rhubarb and Asparagus.

A method which we have frequently prac-

Timely Suggestions

can easily ascertain which cows are profitable for cream by setting a little milk from each cow in a tumbler, or better in a cream gauge. There will be a difference in the thickness of the cream, and that very marked, unless your cows are all of the

A good condition powder may be cheaply soda, half a pound of chloride of iron, and tablespoonful doses twice a day, will greatly assist the appetite and promote the condi-

Crumbly Butter.

tificate of quality. It is usually white and

ine. Stearle sold, or steerine, is hard, less proportion, being used up in making

be hard and crumbly, and white in color,

This fact applies also to some cows, which Winter-made butter carries Its own cer-

in the cream may be noticeable.

ROMANCE. EGYPTIAN

A Story of Love and Wild Adventure, founded upon Startling Revelations in the Career of Arabi Pasha;

By the Author of " NINA, THE NIHILIST," "THE RED SPOT," "THE RUSSIAN SPY, ETC., ETC.

back," said Frank Donelly.

Then, far behind them, there suddenly above their scarlet shawl turbans.

hands together in an sgeny of terror.

auddenly exclaimed:

can come up with us."

"Bedad, but any how I'll kill some

Frank Donelly, however, had better words of consolation than Pat's, for he

"If there's a red light behind there's a white one ahead, Nellie, darling, and unless I'm greatly mistaken we will be out in the moonlight again before those fellows

CHAPTER XXX.

A COMBAT OF TWO TO TWELVE-AGAIN ON THE

Frank Donelly's words proved prophetic ones, for every minute now the light became brighter in their front, enabling them to push forward every whit as rapidly as they were pursued, so that presently they squeezed their horses one by one through a narrow fissure that was hardly large enough to admit of their passage; indeed, Pat went so far as to declare that it was very like a

of a needle," he should think,

every chamber ?"

ask you, Nellie.

drew rein.

"rich man struggling to get through the eye

"An sure, yer Honor," he quickly add.

at all at all, for sure we might defend this parrow opening agin long odds from now till the crack of doom, if need be, like those old

" Another fine idea of yours, Pat; and

"Oh, Frank ! don't rush into any need-

"No, darling; that we will leave our

Frank Donelly motioned to her, however, to move a triflle more to the right, fearing gave all his attention to the latter gentry.

in the poethry and the story books."

camels and the drumbledollies."

less danger," pleaded the fair girl.

CHAPIFR XXIX.

THE TERBORS OF THE MOUNTAIN TOMBS. As he spoke the scorpion eater pointed to "Have no fear, they are very tame," was upon him." the now thoroughly cowed scorpion eater's answer, and the next minute the entire it were, they could hear his rapidly receding, rearing horses, hissing fiercely and party had plunged into the profound dark. ing footsteps, mingled with fresh peals of burying their poison fangs in their prey. ness of the mountain tomb. Nellie, to her chuckling laughter. nella gaiters that have been out of style for years, and always has in his shirt front a first water diamond as large as a filbert and few words, or, when they could be conveniently spared, of no words at all; but this too late, at all at all," grunted Pat Mona- ance to loud cries of horror and dismay. and ships more grain than any two men on the Chicago Board of Trade.

"Just pass the spear over to me, Pat, to see they nad disappeared altogether from view Captain Donelly and Pat were in their wonderful, indeed, if under the circuminder of the chicago Board of Trade.

"Just pass the spear over to me, Pat, to see they nad disappeared altogether from whilst he howled out a genuine Irish hullander the circuminder of the chicago Board of Trade.

"Just pass the spear over to me, Pat, to see they nad disappeared altogether from whilst he howled out a genuine Irish hullander of the control of the chicago Board of Trade.

"Just pass the spear over to me, Pat, to see they nad disappeared altogether from whilst he howled out a genuine Irish hullander of the chicago Board of Trade. stances his thoughts had been pleasant.

These mountains had, indeed, more than He became financially involved and went to once been pointed out to him from the ram the West Indies. He secured control of a parts that surrounded the Citadel of Cairo small island of the Bahama group which as the haunt of the Djins or Evil Genil and proved to be rich in phosphates, from which | the Spirits or Giant Devils, who, with their powerful breaths, blow up the desert ands cratically, and no women or intoxicating until they overtake and bury travelers beliquors were permitted upon the island. The neath them, and who are, furthermore, the ruier of this Eveless and probibited Eden is guardians of buried treasure. So remempering these tales just when he would have most liked to have forgotten them, Pat widow and a full supply of Kentucky beur- | Monaghan was not quite so comfortable in his own mind as when he had ridden back to encounter with his single arm the three camel and dromedary riders. Great was his relief therefore when, after they had ridden a little way through the subterranean, trusting entirely to their horses to follow the one that led, he heard a horse as he spoke, feeling the way with the muttered " Halt !" come back from what long lance so that the animal should not Nellie. Why, we must have come out on he knew to be his master's lips, and then the unmistakable snapping sound of flint headlong down into some hole or pit.

kind of a torch was suddenly kindled, and anything but pleasant traveling when it was of time." then all three fugitives looked around impossible to know what possible dangers "Be the saints, yer honor, an' it's a good but that remark brought about our marthem in an amszement that was mingled might not be in the way. with admiration, for they were in the centre of a vast hall whose walls and even vinced that she heard the pattering feet of tree, be the bit branch that I tore off in ceilings were covered with paintings, both | the jackal and of the still more fearful lynx | plucking some of the fruit, an' there it lies of animate and inanimte nature, with the terday, yet which Frank Donelly and Nellie so that every instant he expected that Djin us ancient days when the Red Sea waves he did not even dare to conjecture. parted to permit of the goming of the Israelites and rushed together again for the drowning of Pharaoh and his host.

Frank Donelly therefore sternly bade flashed a glow of ruddy light, and looking had remarked that this was the recluse's coming down the subterranean at a speed usual abode, for there were sufficient evi. that was wonderful for his years, holding dences of the fact in the few necessaries that | a oft a torch in either hand and closely folit contained, consisting of a mat, a pitcher and a wooden bowl, but even the ordinary Egyptian peasant has nothing more.

Holding the torch (which seemed to be as a titular member. The election of Baron strode on again, his beard still grasped by Rethachild raises the number of Jewish mem- his captor, who could now watch the movebers of the Institute of France to eight, his ments of the scorpions as they continued to colleagues being MM. Breal, Joseph Deren- wander all about his person, apparently at bourg, Henri Weil, and Oppert of the Aca- their own sweet will, and which, whenever of Inscriptions and Belles Lettres; one of them approached too near unto his and giant devils. Adolph Franck, whose election dates back hand, the young officer dirlodged and sent to 1844, of the Academy of Moral and Poll- clattering to the ground with the point of tical Sciences; Loswy and Maurice Levy of his sword. For well he knew that the sting the Academy of Sciences. The most famous of these hideous vermin is as fatal to a

And now they enter the great painted hall, in the centre of which a vast tomb had evidently once stood, for a wide passage whose walls (where they were not painted) were covered with millions of hieroglyphics, somewhat like those which we see on Cleopatra's Needle and the Obelisk of Luxor, passage very far, when they met a lynx and Nellie, whose heart had palpitated painfully at sight of the savage beasts, drew her breath more freely when they were gone, but one hour seemed to crowd fast upon the heels of another, for as they presently peered into a second and narrower passage a loud patter a Pater Noster, making sure that the

Had he noticed the sly and exultant expression of the scorpion eater he might have been better prepared for what was to come and how to avoid its consequences, for, lo, the uncanny noises rapidly increased volume, the semi-darkness became all at ny leather substances, whilst an intolerable of fire, stench assailed their nostrils, so that it is "My name is Jim Barto, but I want yer little wonder that in the sudden darkness, Sam Soudger. I don't want my real name instant relaxed the tightness of its grip on require it, pounding along through the subthe santon's beard or that he, taking ad- terranean at the beels of the onward rushing his horses leashings.

"Yallah! Y-llah! By the nine'y-nine crack! crack! crack! crack! went they were like three poor fawns trying to stomach but a whist of eat straw, my peor te'n chapters of the E K stan. By the fig volvers, the rapid reports going rumbling bishops, rooks and queen all bent on reader- requests for his signature. A friend of his old mother will never know it was her poor, and the olive and the soul of Khaled the and roaring into the innermost recesses of ing the attempt a matter of she r impossible says he always drope such letters in the blessed, you shall all die in the bowels of the vast subterraneans and awakening a lity. That Christian lady stuffed his wer bless the mountains without ever seeing the day- score and more of echoes, which were quick- As yet they were evidently unseen, but as ner the elevator boy amuses himself by fill-

high deml-pique saddles to the re-cunding bodies with shriller cries still, intent on and then held a brief consulation with Pat taking vengeance on the slaughterers of Monaghan, the result of which was that all their brethren before they could reload. But Captain Donelly and Pat Monaghan had six charges yet remaining in their revoivers, and now, stepping suddenly for-ward into view, they discharged them full in the faces and breasts of their swarthy foes, when so near that their tossing and straining horses' heads were almost within fry forever and forever in the fiery pit of arm's length of their muzzles.

Borhut. You have cast dirt upon my beard | Each bullet found its billet on this occaand set my turban awry, you dogs, for is it sion, and down went the shrieking Bedouins, not written that " he who lendeth succor to one over the other, and amongst them the a vast fissure that at that point perforated the oppressor or the unbeliever shall ere santon, with a hole in his throat, out

As he went crashing down his weight geance for the indignities that ye have cast burst open the basket at his back, and the great flesh colored serpents, gliding forth, And having thus spat out his venom, as sprang upon the fallen men, and the plung-As for the Bedouins who still remained spear, which sure an' I'd have done if it number they were but three, they wheeled yet for all that himself keeping in the rear, all round and over it. The bottom of the nurritive value of foods. When they cannot

Ere they had disappeared altogether from back, for that old rascal has gone to bring the Bedouine after us, and knowing all the wholly rid of the rascals, for the three who ins and outs of this place we'd have no still survive will let us depart in peace, I chance of overtaking him, even on horse- imagine," said Frank, and then he added as a puzzled expression came over his fine "Lord preserve us from him and the countenance: "I wish that we knew how to likes of him," muttered Pat, as he passed recross the mountain, for we are now on the the lance over Nellie's head, whom, as he side of the great desert, which stretches for took it, Frank comforted with the words: hundreds of leagues to and the very centre "I feel sure that this passage will event- of Africa."

"No, Frank, it cannot be," replied Nellie, ually lead to freedom, my darling, and the creatures that put out the lights and startled "for I feel certain that that is Cairo which us so much were but bats. I saw them dis- I see over away yonder. And there, there tinctly. Now that the accustomed darkness are the Pyramids, too, and I feel equally that they delight in has returned again they sure that I can just make out a train steamtrouble us no longer, you see, so let us get ing in that direction, the direction of the North Star, which must be Alexandria- band, "a pair of earrings caused the Bur- pound salt, one pound sulphate of soda, an already. He waited for no reply, but urged on his ward, I take it."

"By all that's glorious, you are right, strange." knock its head against anything or plunge the same side of the mountain as that at stranger things." which we entered. We have described the It was, in fact, that kind of darkness that half of a half, or more likely of an oval, A second later there was a star of light writers say "may be felt," or "may be within the subterranean. I dared not have ample. One night in Boston a young man, > down that we are into the bargain. It's riage.' More than once Nellie Trezarr felt con- just meself that knows this blessed plum coming after them, whilst Pat Monaghan's in the middle of the track to witness to the

All was as clear now as the sun at noon-Trezarr, at all events, knew must have or giant devil would spring upon him and day, and all that they seemingly had to do been antique works of art even in those to bear him away, where or for what purpose was to re-cross the desert till they struck the railway at the little village of Et-Tar-But imagination was soon destined to ranch, where there was a station at which give way to reality, for when they had pro- they would be able to take train for Alexceeded in this slow and cautious manner for andria, for the train, which they could still This was not a time, however, for the about teu minutes, the path appearing to perceive, or to be more correct, the steam studying of ancient art, for the Bedouins, trend gradually downward the while, they from her engine, was proof that the line bedid they but imagine that they had taken heard the unmistakable sound of other hoofs tween the capital and the great seaport had

> "After all, we may be aboard a British ship before dawn, darling," said Frank Donelly, "for I dare say they'll be running trains from Cairo as often as circumstances will allow during the night, so cheer up." Nellie was quite willing to do so, for 'tis spair in the heart. As for Pat, he didn't re- it up he used morphine instead of quinine. lowed by a dezen or so of mounted Bedou ne, whose bright lance points twinkled like stars not his nature to look at the dark side of cine to Mrs. Potter who took it and died. " Lost, lost ! We shall be sat upon and slain in this horrible subterranean," gasped So they made they made their way down

Nellie, dropping her reins and clasping her the steep mountain side with ease and oirreached the desert plain steered straight ever were before." them first, just for company, retorted Pat across it as nearly as possible in the direc-Monaghan cheerlly, who looked upon the tion of Et Tarranch. Bedouins (even with the scorpion eater thrown in) as a great improvement on Djins without his host, for at least eighteen miles by grief. He could stay in New York no of desert lay between them and the railway longer, so he came down to Kentucky and, station, towards which they were steering, after awhile, went into business. Don't see and from all directions troops, regular and any light yet, do you!" irregular, were concentrating towards the capital to swell the forces of the War Min-

the once more fresh bracing air of the desert sent me to Arkansaw. I had been in this progressed more rapidly, and then it was clerk to drink on one certain occasion he the once not the desert at all.

neath his banner in less than a week, for him-" well he knew that these mounted robbers would swarm like vultures to a feast, for quite as respectable as Turkish Bashi-Bazouks the Bedeuin delights in slaughter and Watte, dogs delight to bark and bite. "Oh, if the moon were not quite so bright," thought the young officer to himself, country." for the grand luminary of night shed as clear and white a radiance over the sandy plain as a number of electric lights would diffuse over a boulevard or a street, and by St. Patrick, your namesake, we'll put it there were no shadows to take advantage of. in practice. Is your revolver charged in would be glad to avail himself of it himself. side of the opening, sheltered by the rocks, rash enough to have continued on their way; and, by George we'll give those rascals pep- whilst owing to their precaution large par-

Then, at last, the danger of discovery wonder; for in that desert place the sun of the lacteal vessels and the pertal vein. If seemed to grow less and less, and their part and continuing their journey, when, on sudenemies to do. They come on unasked, and denly looking round, Pat Monaghan beheld so they must take the consequences. Do as yet another party of Bedouins coming to- bulky landlord, and made known my comwards them, but following a course which plaint, She made no further opposition or obserbetokened that they would pass much nearer vation, but rode on a little way and then by than any of the preceding bodies of the savage horsemen had done. " Bedad, an' it's as straight as a bede line that she was somewhat in the Bedouin line that the varmints are coming and if we would save our lives we'd better be up and

When she had obeyed his mute sign he away, yer honor.' "By Jove, I believe you're right, Pat. They were by this time near enough to Up and away be it, then," rejoined his therefrom, and laughing shrilly and exult- the fugitives were hurrying down the moun- Nellie's, lo, the deft and spirited girl had antly, rushed away with the certainty that tain as fast as ever they could urge their not only released the animal and got him on day for six men. It furnished them with however, for at the same instant "crack! Before long, indeed, Denelly felt that

He called a halt, told Nellie that there floor of the passage, whilst those who sur-was nothing much to be alarmed at, but vived spurred forward over their writhing that nevertheless it was better to be cautious, three dismounted, forced their horses to lie ticed is to dig up, in the fall, or at any time neither neigh nor whinny, tied their legs frezen, a number of clumps with as many so that for them to rise was an equal impos- roots attached as possible, and place them sibility, and then in the course of a very few close together in a cold frame, sprinkle fine minutes raised a circular barrier of sand soil between and over them, water copiously high enough to conceal both their steeds and with lukewarm water, level again with soil, themselves as they crouched down. minutes at the least, and that brief space of care is the same as required for ordinary be robbers, who fied in terror. time might be of the utmost value under the cold frames, giving air on mild days, and great brandishing of scimitars and lances, lukewarm. the three fugitives were off at full speed again, Pat muttering something to the effect that "the devil might take the hindmost,"

"Thanks to Pat's suggestion, we have got Pat," exclaimed his master, somewhat annoyed. "This is no child's play, I would The present is the time to cull the herd, if lated to supply the place of animal food. have you remember, so just postpone all it has not been done already. Ten chances vaporing until we are tearing along at the to one you are keeping one or more cows tail of the iron horse instead of on the backs | that do not pay for the feed they eat. You of our own, my good fellow." (TO BE CONTINUED.)

THE LOGIC OF EVENTS.

How a Mistake in Filling a Prescription

Led to a Marriage. "Well, well," said Mrs. Catson, putting prepared on the farm. A mixture of one mese war, I never heard of anything so ounce of sulphur, pound of phosphate of "said Mr. Catson, "I have heard of half a pound of black antimony, given in tion of the animals. "Well, I have, and I'll give you an ex-which suddenly leapt into a flame as some out with a knife," and so on, so that it was hoped for such good fortune. It saves no end meeting an acquaintance, said: 'Come, let's have a drink.' I never was in Boston, thousands of recipes for the curing of sick titles. There are many other lakes in the "Why, George," exclaimed Mrs. Catson > in Boston. You must be losing your mind," "Tell you what I'll do; I promised to get their interior management may be preyou a new cloak, didn't I?"

can prove my assertion. "All right."

"If I succeed, you don't get the cloak." "I understand "Well, one night in Boston about ten years ago, a young man, meeting a friend, asked him to come out and have a drink. several drinks and got drunk. That settled not long ago. Since the occurrence, when-

"Settled what?" "The fact of our marriage." "How can you be so foolish ?" "Never mind, I'll explain. The drug ing to be driven.

clerk got drunk and went to the store. Shortly afterward a servant girl entered much pleasanter to encourage hope than de- and handed him a prescription. In putting quire any encouragement at all, as it was The girl went away, and delivered the medi-"Oh, what's the use of prolonging this foolishness ?"

"Hold on. The death of that woman cumspection, and directly that they had drew you and megoloser together than we "We were not acquainted with each other ten years ago." If Captain Donelly really thought that all "That is very true, but wait. Mr. Pot-

"Wait a minute. He had not been in business long until I met him. He took a The fugitives proceeded slowly at first, fancy to me and gave me employment. for their horses wanted breathing space, but After I had been with him several years, he was not long in at all events partially restor- State but a short time until I met you. Suming their strength and spirits when they mary: If the friend had not asked the drug that Captain Donelly very shortly discover- would not have got drunk. If he hadn't ed that the desert in this direction was for been drunk he would not have made a mistake in filling the prescription, and had he For across it small bands of Bedoains not made a mistake, Mrs. Potter would not seemed to be perpetually streaming, doubt- have beenkilled, and had she not died, Potter less on their way to make up the sixty would not have left New York, and had he thousand irregular cavalry that Arabi Pasha not left that city I should not have met had boasted he could have enrolled under- him, and had I not gene into business with

"Oh, for goodness sake, hush. You are enough to drive anybody crazy.' She arose and left the room. Her husband mused: "I'll make her another bet. I'll plunder quite as much as, according to Dr. | bet she doesn't get that cloak. I have always thought that the logic of events failed te meet with proper appreciation in this

Magnified Incidents.

When Frank Donnelly had read of this to seize on the most trivial events and wring ly free of it. Formerly those meals contain- shouldn't keep me awake. And would you desert ruse years previously he had never excitement from them, if they would find ed from 10 to 18 per cent. of oil, and they believe it, I overslept next morning a whole "Aye, I've reloaded it since I settled the imsgined that the time would come when he relief from the stagnations of their daily were then most valuable food for fattening hour later than usual !" life. A traveller among the San Francisco and the butter dairy. Now they are of no "Good; mine is in the some condition. We It was quite effectual, however, for within mountains tells, in Outing, his own experi- use for making fat, excepting so far as their will dismount, aling our bridle over our the next hour they would certainly have ence in finding a trivial circumstance digni- protein elements may be converted into it arms, and take up our positions one on each been sighted and pursued had they been fied into matter for discussion. He says: by a roundabout transformation; but it is Once at Ash Forks, a collection of a dezen known that fat, given in the feed, is formed shantles, the ceatless ruffian whe served a into an emulsion by the process of masticaper as they come up. Nellie, ride on a ties of Bedouins passed quite near by without mockery of a dinner brought me a glass of tion and digestion, and is assimilated dilittle way, my dear. We will overtake you perceiving them.

beats down with a tropical heat, Quite conscious of possible unpleasant rich in oil; and the best foed of this kind that they thought of once more remounting consequences, I objected to my milk. The we can use is hay or fodder, so that it is $1,000 at one of his sons a year ago and bearded waiter arms akimbo, stared defiant- thoroughly masticated and made to yield up said : "There it is, and it is the last dolly, then slouched to the door, where sat the | Its oil to the action of the saliva.

> No less than four idlers followed that landlord to my table. The unfertunate mesquitoes flourish in America. A Spanish down to Fiorida to see about a 3,000 acre glass of milk was passed in silence dewn or Italian lady would no more blush to be tract of land he had purchased at $3. an the line. I felt the situation to be serious. seen with a flea on her person than would sore for an orange grove. He went to the "Hanged if it ain't sour !" spoke at last an American girl to be bitten by a mosquito. headquarters of "The Florida Orange Grove the portly host, and every loafer echoed, But the American thinks that the presence "Hanged if it ain't !"

"Hanged if we don't make that ranchman drink the milk !" was the further ver-

"Shoot us of we won't!" That deranged milk was the event of the

THE WORLD OVER.

A farmer in New Hampshire has been fined for cruelty in not providing shelter for his cattle during the late cold weather. He was the richest man in the neigeborhood.

Nearly 80,000 acres of lands under water along the Connecticut shore have been sold by the State to eyster growers, and last year's tax; s on this area (one fifth of which is in ure) yielded $8,000. A milkman slip, ed and fell in New London the other day in such a way that he went head foremost futo a can from which he had removed the cover, and, as it was a tight fit, a tinsmith's services were required to extricate him.

Few mocarchs can boast of progeny so illustrious as King Christian IX, of Deamark. Five out of his six children are hearled and have families. The eldest sors of each of viese families are the prospective merarchs of Deamark, Greece, the British employ,

Rrssia, and H mover. Two men called up the telegraph operator down, gagged them so that they could during winter when the ground is not at East Weymouth, Mass., recently, and order to send a telegram. As he entered the station the men drew revolvers and demanded the money in the safe, knowing it temporarily contained a large amount. cover all with a few inches of dry leaves Quick as a flash the operator whipped out a Her prompt action and saved a couple of and put on the sashes. The subsequent pistol and "got the drop upon the would

The purified fat of sheep's wool, which secure covering in cold weather. Water is has been introduced into the drag market Frank gave her a word or two of ardent rarely needed, as the leaves prevent rapid under the name of landlin, is said to possess praise and flung himself into his own saddle evaporation When cold-frames are not remarkable susceptibility to absorption by even whilst speaking them, nor was Pat available, the roots may be taken into a the skin. When one thousand parts of it slow in imitating his example, and just as warm cellar, under a window if possible, are mixed with one part of a soluble metalthey were perceived and the Moslem war and covered with soil and leaves, or straw. lie substance and applied to the scalp, a mecry of "Allah ackbar! Allah, Allah! hu!" Plants in a cellar need more water than in tallic taste is noticed in the mouth within a rent the air in their rear, accompanied by a a frame, and the water given should be few minutes. It is thought the substance will be of great value for ointments. Another, and very easy way to forward

According to the British Medical Journal Rhubarb, is to turn a one-headed barrel over the most flagrant dietetic errors on the part a strong plant, and bank fresh horse-manure of poor people arise from ignorance of the obliged to use a largely vegetable diet they make no distinction between unnutritious vegetables and those which, like peas and Keep no unprofitable cows over, winter. | beans, are rich in nitrogen and well care

Nearly three years have elapsed since Gambetta's remains were consigned to the grave at Nice, but nothing has you been dene to give even a desent appearance to his last resting place. An old friend of the departed statesman, who visited the cemetery on the anniversary of his death in order to strew flowers on his tomb, gives a melancholy account of the state of neglect into which it same breed, and even then the difference has been allowed to fall. He says it is only a temporary scaffolding, a pyramid of wood oevered with wreaths and offerings. The barrier which surrounds it is 1 4-rotten. aside a newspaper and turning to her hus. pound penugreek, one pound of gentian, one The great tribune, apparently, is forgotten

A member of the Geological Survey says that Salt Lake will be of great value in the near future, not only on account of the common salt it will produce, but also for the sodium sulphate it contains. The latter is separated in a flocculent precipitate by A farmer s scrap-book should be kept on the cold weather of widwinter, and annually every well-regulated farm. There are thrown up on the shore in enormous quananimals which may be of great value if re- far West whence an inexhaustible supply of ferred to at the proper time. Useful hints commercial alkalies may be obtained at regarding special crops may be forgotten small cost. Mono Lake, Cal., alone being "you are foolish. Neither of us were ever unless preserved in this manner, convenient estimated to hold over 78,000,000 tons of for reference. Plans for farm buildings or sodium carbonate.

The peasant Indians of Central America served until wanted. Gates, fences, ditches, and the numerous other things which make hold some curious superstitions, of which "Well, now I'll bet you the cloak that I up the business of the farm, require frequent the following are examples: When a child repairs or entire construction, and the hints is ill the mother takes a drake, singes its and helps which may be afforded if the tail feathers, and, muttering certain words, scrap-book has been well kept are of immense passes it over the patient. A weman feeds a parrot with a few pieces of tortilla and gives the child the crumbs which fall from The necessity of keeping horses away the beak, as they will make it talk ! Colio from quagmires in the public roads is shown is due to the evil eye; in order to get rid by the manner in which one of my horses The friend, a drug clerk, did so. He took is affected since it became stalled in one of the disturbing influence the woman ever the horse touches a soft place in the having mixed them with rue, places the road it trembles all over with fear, every whole under the child's bed; if the commuscle in its body seeming to shake, and pound be curdled in the morning the spirit has departed. it has to be led away from the spot, refus-

MERRY RIPPLES.

The Onondaga Indians worship a white tallowy, and crumbles into small fragments. dog. Their deity must be a hely terrier. It doan meck no diffunce how big er liar It is always deficient in the olly part of the fat. Fat consists of three acids - stearic, or pusson is, he hates er pusson dat won't margaric, and oleic, combined with glycer- tell de truth. When you see your neighbor in his back white, and friable; oleic acid, or oleine, is yard engaged in splitting wood you may at yellow, soit, and oily, and dilutes the whiter any moment send a cold chill down his and harder stearine and margarine. In the spine by sharply shouting at him, " Look winter the cleine of the butter as in much out for that clothes line ! Troubles never come singly, sure enough. appeared in scores of daily newspapers. Some persons seem to take a fiendish delight in multiplying grief.

concume the cleine of the food, and conse-A San Francisco family recently engaged quently make white, hard butter at all times; but much more so in winter than in sum. a young girl from the East who advertised mer, while other's make rich, yellow, and olly that she had been "four yours in her last butter. The rich butter of the Jersey cows place." The family subsequently learned is associated with a lean carcass, while that she would have remained longer than some other cows are always fat and sleek, four years in her last place if the Governor but their butter is white and of poor flavor. had not pardoned her when he did.

Much however, may be done in the way It's mighty seldom dat yer ken tell er of feeding to secure an excellent quality of pusson 'zactly how yer wants er thing done, butter, even in winter. Some of those who an' nine times outen ten it is better for er have made winter dairying a special busi- pusson to do it hisself, fur eben of it am' ness are much troubled by the poor quality of | done so well, he is better pleased wid de the butter, and farmers generally, who make job. When yer itches 'twixt de shoulders butter this season, complain almost univer- it's er mighty hard matter ter tell er pussally of the same difficulty. While some son whar to scratch.

part of it lies in the cows, beyond doubt, "There !" said Mrs. Gummidge, putting yet the greater part of the difficulty is in saide her paper. "Good for Lillie Deverthe feeding, and dairymen must provide an eux Blake." "What has she done, my abundance of food that is rich in oily mat- dear ?" "She says that Shakespeare was a ter, to supply both the want of the cow for brute, and that the play 'The Taming of herself to sustain the vital warmth and to the Shrew' does woman gross injustice. leave an abundant surplus for the butter. " Well, I think myself that it would have A caution may be given against depending been truer to nature if he hadn't a tamed on the so-called ollmeals for this purpose. her.

By the new processes in use in the mills Fesseden, who recently purchased an every particle of oil in cottonseed and lin- alarm clock, says the thing is a confounded seed is taken out, by means of benzine, or humbug. "I set the alarm," he explained, naphtha, as it is sometimes called, which " before going to bed, after taking the pre-The dwellers in lonely regions are forced dissolves the oil and leaves the meal entire- caution to stop the clock, so that its ticking

"Want your sidewalk cleaned off?" he asked of a citizen. "Just got a man." "Have any badges on?" "I believe he has five or six." "Then let him keep the job. I'm a tramp and hard up, but them roller-skating champions has got to earn a living somehow, and I'm not the man to stand in their way. They are entitled to public sympathy and assistance.

It was a New York capitalist who flung lar you'll get from me. You don't know enough to pound sait. Speculation ! Why you haven't sense enough to buy and ship Fleas abound in southern Europe, and eggs. The other day the old man went Retate Agency," and he found that his son was President, Secretary, Treasurer and sole owner. Half an hour later he discovered that his 3,000 acres raised alligators instead of oranges, and that the boy had cleared about $8,000 in the single transaction. A Teronto drummer succeeded last Fall in Suddenly he saw upon her satin neck a black object. It moved-it was an insect- taking three or four Ontario customers away from a Montreal house, but when he Taking the advantage to which men with | went his rounds a few days age he was coldgray hair are so prone, -a younger man ly received and no one would give him an would have been more timid, -he at once order. "I feel," he finally said, " that I removed the insect with his finger and have a right to demand an explanation.

Autograph hunters are said to deluge thumb. The young lady turned at the touch How have I forfeited your confidence ?" "Oh, you see, I have nothing against you "Parden me," said her companion, "but or your house," replied the party addressed, "but the fact is, the other drummer is en-The young lady showed mock displeasure. | gaged to one of my daughters, and I feel it "Should I not have removed it?" asked my duty to help him all I can." The Toronto man received the same explanation

"Ye e-es," she replied, hesitatingly, from all the others, and being a married -ne'l'in noithice+A will hide so full of well-cooked grub that it is light or the mountains without ever seeing the day.

Note the shricks, howis, he could hardly hope that they would coning out the blank cards and placing them in he anxiously, not likely he'll take to eating cat straw for so die and my lynx and jackal shall pick groans and executions of the wounded and tinue so for long, he was presently fain to the return envelopes addressed "Joel "Ye e-es,"

your bones, whilst your souls shall fixtle and | the dying as they fell clattering from their yield to the inevitable and adopt a rase. | Chandler Harris, Atlanta, Ga," genus pulex.

inquiringly. you had a flea on your neck."

"but you might have called it a mesquite." man he abandened the field.

we want to get rich milk we must feed feed

Flea and Mosquito.

of fless indicates uncleanliness, and this fact lies at the bottom of the amusing anecdote told by the Argonaut of San Francisco :

with a gentleman rather older than herself.

Some days ago a young lady was walking