Local Items.

W. C. T. U. SOCIAL.—On the evening of Friday, the 17th inst., a social will be given in Dickson's hall by the members of the W. C. T. U. All are invited. Admission 10c.

HOT.—The persons who maintain that there is no spring worth talking about in this part of Canada are not far astray. A very short time ago fur caps and overcoats could be worn without inconvenience, and now, before the middle of May, everybody is complaining of the heat. But it's good for the crops, which are growing splendidly, though they will be needing rain if it don't come before long.

BOYS FOR FARMERS.—The second party of boys for the Marchmont Home, Belleville, leaves Liverpool on the 9th of May. They will be healthy well-trained boys from eight to thirteen and fourteen years old, some young enough for adoption and others able to help with little chores. The first party went off very quickly, and farmers needing these should send in their applications at once, accompanied with minister's reference, to Mrs. Ellen A. Bilbrough Wallace, Marchmont Home, Belleville.

RIFLE MATCH.—The Victoria Co.
Rifle Association, in connection with the 45th Battalion, will hold its annual prize meeting at the county ranges, Lindsay, on Wednesday, the 29th of May inst, commencing at 9 a. m. sharp.
A large number of prizes will be awarded, and the resident of Victoria County standing highest in the association match will take the cup. In the "All Comers" and "Association" matches, Snider rifles pulling at least six pounds must be used, but any open-sighted rifle may be shot with in the "Extra Series" match. It costs only one dollar to become a member of the Association.

THE MAPLE LEAF.—Seeing a number of persons on and around the swing bridge last Tuesday afternoon, we went to see what they were all looking at, and found that the little steamer Maple Leaf was lying almost on her right side at the bottom of the upper lock. It seems that she had been backed in for the purpose of having her broken screw replaced by a new one cast at the Cameron Lake foundry; and, when the water was let out, she partially upset in consequence of not being properly secured. However, no harm was done; she was soon pulled onto her keel by means of a rope, and a few hours later was on her way to Cayceon.

DOG vs. Cow.—Last Sunday Mr.
John Byers, of Fenelon, set his dog upon a cow owned by his neighbour, Mr.
Peter Moffat, and she was chased into a muddy creek in a beaver meadow, from which she was rescued with much difficulty, and in which she might have been swallowed up alive if she had not been seen. Mr. Moffat therefore summoned Mr. Byers, who appeared before James Dickson and Robert McFarland, J. P.'s, in Jordan's hall yesterday afternoon. About half a dozen witnesses were examined, and the case occupied more than two hours. It was not denied that the cow was trespassing in the pasture field; but as it was proved that the fences were very bad, and that Mr.
Byers had on several occasions been requested to "fix" them, the magistrates fined him $5 and costs.

BIRTHS.

LANSFIELD.—In Fenelon Falls, on Monday, April 29th, the wife of Mr. Edward Lansfield of a son.

Gabriel Dumont at Batoche.

The Mounted Police Department has received a detailed report from one of its officers of the half-breed meeting recently held at Batoche on the call of Gabriel Dumont. About one hundred Metis were present. The report says the tone of Dumont's address was anything but hostile to the Government.
After recounting to his audience some of his experiences and ideas of eastern Canada, he touched on the late rebellion, but in a mild manner. His strongest expression was that although in their ignorance they had rebelled and taken up arms, and were also aware that they could not hope successfully to contend against the Government, yet they had proven that they were not afraid to defend their families and homes. He urged his hearers to form a committee to draw up a petition to the Government praying for such of their rights as they deemed proper. The results of the meeting have been favorably commented on in the Prince Albert District, as it was expected that a vigorous attack would be made on the Administration.

She Changed Her Mind.

This is told by the Ingersoll Sun:— Joseph Barnes, a Muskoka widower of fifty, lately advertised for a wife. From among those who replied he chose a Toronto widow. Correspondence and a change of photographs ensued. An engagement was made and the marriage was to have taken place in Orillia a day or two ago. Joseph put on his best clothes, and went to Toronto to meet his charmer at the Union station. This was the first time they had met. They proceeded to Orillia and put up at the Russell house, Joseph writing in bold caligraphy on the register, "Joseph Barnes and wife." While he was out buying the license the widow repented, and when Joseph told her that all things were ready she told him that she wasn't; that he was not as good looking as the photograph sent to her, and that the wedding was indefinitely postponed.
She returned to Toronto that afternoon, and Joseph proceeded northward to hide his grief among the Muskoka rocks.

One of the Six Hundred.

Christopher Hanlon, late of H. M.
13th Light Dragoons, left for Montreal yesterday en route for Liverpool, and thence to the home for veteran soldiers, the Royal Hospital at Kilmainham, near Dublin, where he will spend the remainder of his days. A number of veterans saw him off at Don station of the G. T. R. Mr. Hanlon is one of the survivors of the Six Hundred of Balcava fame, in which engagement he received eleven sabre wounds and a bullet in the head, besides being taken prisoner and carried 1,800 miles into the interior of Russia and detained until the close of the war. Through the efforts of Messrs. John Munn and Gibb, a goodly sum was raised to defray the old man's expenses to Dublin, and Ald.
Frankland offered to take charge of him during the voyage.—Toronto News.

A Dramatic Scene.

CUMBERLAND, Md., May 2.—During the trial yesterday of Melvin C. Garlitz for the murder of his wife a very exciting scene occurred. While a witness was describing how Garlitz stood over his wife while she was lying down and fired three shots into her body, Joseph White, the father of the dead woman, sprang up with a wild cry of rage, and, seizing a chair, upraised it and made a rush toward Garlitz. He was grabbed by several policemen and taken to an ante-room until he regained his composure. His daughter Myrtle, who had shortly before testified, shrieked aloud as her father cried out and flung herself upon him. For a few moments the excitement was intense, and it was some time before the trial could proceed.

The two-cent drop letter regulation came into force on May the 9th.

Wm. O'Connor, the oarsman, has covered Searle's deposit for a race over the Thames championship course in August or September.

The fine old oak which was blown down the other day in front of the White House was planted by Martha Washington.

A serious fight occurred near New Brunswick, N.J., on Saturday night over the building of a railway spur across a man's property.
