

Carpets and Oil-Cloths, No. 9 Keenan's Block, Kent Street, Lindsay.

only shows that his circle of church-going friends must be small, or the hundreds who did hear it thought it too small a matter ever to repeat it. Two courses are now open to the public, either wait patiently until Mr. C. can conveniently return to the Falls or accept the five cents which the Church has openly offered to refund. For the present let me say that in the future I shall regard whatever comes from the pen of "Querist" as untruthful as the rest of his writings and therefore unworthy of any further reply.

Yours truly,
F. McAMMOND.
Fenelon Falls, May 6th, 1889.

To the Editor of the Fenelon Falls Gazette.

Sir,—
Kindly allow me space in your valued columns to answer a statement made by "Querist" in your last edition. He says the last moments of an aged one were disturbed, on the night of Mr. Clarke's lecture, by the din made by the instruments assisting the rendering of comic songs. As my father is the one referred to, I beg leave to state that "Querist" has been misinformed. The band came up to the church—playing a hymn—just as my father breathed his last, and his ears were closed to all earthly sounds. I write these few lines in justice to Mr. McAmmond, as all the members of our family feel deeply grateful to him for his many acts of kindness in the hour of affliction, and for assisting in the funeral services of the one we loved so dearly. Thanking you for the space,
I am, sir,
Yours respectfully,
L. MACNIVEN.

Drink St. Leon Water!

THE GREAT LIFE-GIVING ST. LEON.

W. W. Blott has received a fresh shipment of this rare mineral water direct from the wells. Its name and fame as a curative and rejuvenating agent are beyond all calculation. Read the following from the Toronto Globe of March 16th:

"From Nature's breast Truth priceless rings,
Fresh food, fruit, flowers and healing springs."

That truth lives, grows, convalesces all of nature's priceless value. That truth that led eminent practitioners to exclaim "Impossible to overrate the value of St. Leon Mineral Water."

That rare element deficient in our far inland clime, the soul of life, that impulse is derived through the use of St. Leon.

That impulse that electrifies the vital forces, giving tone and vigor to the organism, till, like nature's bard, we would sing aloud with joy, and feel as flowing through us "The golden hours on angel wings."

This pure, rare, ripe, rich fuel tones up the paralyzed organs, charges the blood with ripe molecular life-food to brain, nerve, bone, muscle and flesh. Its amalgamating and gaseous principles seek egress through channels and pores laden with poisonous waste.

Young and old, stiff, sore, sickly, or even healthy, after fairly testing St. Leon attain heights of vigor and joy past imagining.

All who value life-long, lasting strength and happiness drink St. Leon.
"For love and mercy here we see Thy hand and wisdom, Deity." 37r.

WHERE DID YOU GET THAT SHIRT?

Rather an impertinent question, you will probably say, and yet when you consider the importance of such a necessary part of your wearing apparel you will probably conclude that we are justified in asking the question, as so very many are puzzled, and justly so too, to know exactly where to go to get a perfect fitting and well-made shirt at a reasonable price. Some imagine that they cannot be fitted unless they are measured and have their shirts made to order and pay a big price. This idea is entirely erroneous.

We can give you a better Shirt for $1 than you can have made to order for $2.

We buy our shirts direct of the manufacturers and have them made according to our own plans and specifications, and have introduced some entirely new and original ideas, thus perfecting our shirts to such a degree as to make them comfortable and perfect fitting. Our Shirts are all reinforced back and front, artistically cut and skilfully made and none but the very best material used in their manufacture. We can, therefore, with confidence invite you to buy your shirts at the City Store, knowing as we do the satisfaction and comfort you will enjoy in one of our perfect fitting shirts. We keep shirts of every grade and quality, and are always fully assorted in sizes and prices. At the present time we are offering a great bonanza in dressed white shirts. We have secured a line of 50 dozen which we are selling at 60c. each, the regular wholesale price of which is $10.50 per dozen. To make a long story short we are selling a regular dollar shirt for sixty cents.
