

Carpets and Oil-Cloths, No. 9 Keenan's Block, Kent Street, Lindsay.

EXPRESSION OF THANKS.—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ellis desire us to express their heartfelt thanks to the crowd of sympathizers in the terrible loss of their poor boy, and especially those who rendered such valuable assistance in the search for him. Words cannot express their deep gratitude to the people in this their sad affliction.

M. I. EXCURSION.—On Wednesday last, the civic holiday, the Mechanics' Institute's excursion to Bobcaygeon was held according to announcement, and was well attended, although the morning was cloudy, and a little rain fell just at the time it would have the effect of deciding some few to stay at home. The Dominion and Paragon left the Falls at 9.30 a. m. and Bobcaygeon at 4.30 p. m., taking three hours each way. The visitors had plenty of time to interview all points of interest and call upon friends, and those who had never been there before expressed much admiration of the picturesque and romantic little village. No music had been provided by the managers, but some one had a fiddle, to the inspiring strains of which dancing was indulged in, and on the return trip there was some delightful singing. The trip was exceedingly pleasant, and a few dollars were added to the funds of the Institute.

Gullibility and Idiocy.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The Jubilee plunger's book, "How I Lost £250,000 in Two Years," was issued yesterday. It is a mere record of foolish extravagances, and proves its author to have been one of the most gullible asses ever on earth. From a long time before he reached his majority he has been the prey of money lenders, gamblers and blacklegs of every description. While still under age he gave a note of £10,000 for £1,500 in cash. One lender who held his notes for £30,000 had lent him less than £500. He also owed one Sam Lewis, whom he calls his best friend, £33,600, which he paid him the day he came of age. At his first horse race he lost £6,000, and during his first year his losses were as high as £3,200 and £5,000 per week. At cards he often lost as much as £16,000 and £17,000 per night at the Field club, and he once lost £10,000 playing a chemin de fer game while waiting for a train ten minutes.

A Bedford girl suicided because a man told her, "If I were as ugly as you, I would drown myself in the swamp."

A Mohammedan mosque has been built in Working, England, and a Buddhist temple has been opened in Paris. There are about 300 Buddhists in Paris.

The craze for pearl fishing has extended from Wisconsin into Illinois. At Belvidere, on the Kishwaukee river, a baker found 300 pearls, for which he has been offered in Chicago an average price of 35 cents a pearl.

The manufacture of the new six-inch gun, of which 100 have been ordered for British land and sea service, has been stopped until a cartridge case of solid drawn metal can be devised which will stand the shock of the discharge of 12 pounds of smokeless powder, and which can be used over and over again. This the authorities have not yet been able to do, and the machinery engaged in the manufacture of these guns is all standing idle, as well as the guns already manufactured.

We have for sale here and at Lindsay all kinds of Building Lumber, Joist, Scantling Plank, Timber, Lath, Pickets, Shingles, Fence Posts and all kinds of Planed and Matched Lumber from one to two years old. Our Common Lumber, both Pine and Hemlock, inch and two inch, is mostly new stock, cut last season, well roofed, dry and bright, manufactured expressly for the local trade of Fenelon Falls and Lindsay and surrounding country.

From our long experience in the business, and being builders ourselves, we have a good idea of what is required for first class or common building materials for houses, barns and outbuildings.

We have assorted and piled by themselves both qualities to suit purchasers. Prices from $3 50 to $5 per M feet and upwards.

We have about two million feet that must be sold to make room for new stock. Parties requiring any of the above stock will save money by calling before purchasing elsewhere, or by sending their bills here or to Lindsay for quotations. Bills estimated and returned for approval. Can ship by car loads to all points. Can get special rates on to April next. Send on your orders. "One Dollar Saved is Two Dollars Earned."
