The Fenelon Falls Gazette.

Friday, November 8th, 1889.

The 5th of November.

The celebration of the anniversary of the Gunpowder Plot was held, according to announcement, in Fenelon Falls on Tuesday last. The proceedings commenced a little before train time in the afternoon, when the members of L. O.
L. No. 996 and the village band turned out and repaired to the station for the purpose of welcoming Bro. White, ex-M. P. of Hastings, and past Grand Master of Ontario East, who upon his arrival was marched in procession thro' the principal streets and then conducted to Ingram's hall, where a repast good enough for the Queen and plentiful enough for all the royal family (including the most distant relatives) had been provided by the ladies of the village. About 8 o'clock the subsequent proceedings commenced in Dick-son's hall, where Dr. A. Wilson was called to the chair, and, after a few appropriate remarks, read a letter from Mr. John A. Barron, M. P.; who was unable to be present, as he was addressing an audience at Midland. The programme consisted of vocal and instrumental music and addresses. The singing was by Mrs. Hamilton, of Peterborough, Mrs. Joseph McArthur, Miss Reynolds, of Rosedale, jovial John Petty, of Lindsay, whose comic songs and reading convulsed the audience, and Messrs. W. E. Ellis, B. H. Wills and George Rutherford. Some of the accomplishments were played by Mrs.
A. Wilson and some by Miss Reynolds.
Mrs. Hamilton performed two or three solos admirably on the violin, and used the same instrument in a quartette, in which Mr. Jas. Campbell also played a violin, Prof. Sylvester a cornet and Mr.
Wills the organ. Brief addresses—so good that everybody wished they were longer—were delivered by Rev. Mr.
Parker and Mr. John Fell, M. P. P.; but Bro. White's speech—though it made up in quantity what it wanted in quality—was, we are compelled to admit, a great disappointment. Mr.
White appears to be a good natured man and an out-and-out Protestant; but he is evidently no orator. In the words of a (Canadian) poet,

"He done his level best," but, as one of his hearers remarked, his speech was like a pawnbroker's shop, "full of a miscellaneous assortment of second-hand odds and ends." Still, he came a long way in compliance with the request of persons who didn't know him; and probably no one be-grudged him the vote of thanks that was moved by the Rev. Mr. Logan and seconded by the Rev. Mr. Lohead.

The band, which had given selections at intervals during the evening, then played the national anthem, after which, at Mr. White's suggestion, three cheers for the Queen were heartily given.

TEMPERANCE MEETINGS.—A series of Gospel temperance meetings conducted by Messrs. Mouell & Rossiter, representatives of the Royal Templars of Temperance will commence (D. V.) in the Methodist church on Sabbath, 10th inst., at 3.30 p. m. Second meeting to be held the same evening in the Baptist church at 7 o'clock. All invited.

Sentenced to Death.

Wm. H. Harvey, who a few months ago murdered his wife and two daughters, and, it is believed, intended to kill his son and then take his own life, was found guilty at Guelph on Saturday last, and sentenced to be hanged on Friday, the 29th inst. Although the jury, after an hour's consultation, found him guilty, and did not append to their verdict a recommendation to mercy, it is not only possible, but even probable, that he will not be executed, and a petition for a commutation of his sentence to imprisonment for life is already in circulation. Four eminent experts in insanity, Drs. Stephen Lett, Daniel Clark, Charles H. Clark and Joseph Workman, have all sworn that, from the testimony as to Harvey's demeanour both before and after the murders, they believe him to have been insane when he committed them, and this is also the belief of the general public. The case is, as far as we know, without an exact precedent, and the facts are, we are inclined to think, inconsistent with the theory of the wretched man's perfect sanity. Well bred and well educated, and moving in respectable society, he was naturally overwhelmed with shame at being detected in an act of embezzlement; but it is almost incredible that, unless something was wrong with his mental faculties, he should resolve to kill his whole family, of whom he was known to be very fond, and then commit suicide, especially as it was not by any means certain that he would be prosecuted for his dishonesty. The brain is so complex an organ, and liable to so strange a variety of diseases, that it frequently puzzles the greatest experts to say whether a man is responsible for his actions or not, and in this case there is certainly room for a doubt, of which the condemned man should be given the benefit. The jury are not blamed for ignoring the plea of insanity, as it is so commonly set up, and, if they had accepted it, their verdict would have been final; but it does not prevent further enquiry into the state of the criminal's mind, which—notwithstanding the perfect sanity indicated by his ordinary actions—the majority of people believe to have been more or less unhinged at the time he committed the appalling deed for which he has been condemned to death.

The Equal Rights Meetings.

A conviction prevails—and we hope it will prove to have been well founded —that the attendance at the Equal Rights meetings in this village on Friday next, the 15th inst., will be as large as it ought to be considering the importance of the question at issue.
Mr. E. D. Armour and Mr. A. S. Jones, who will address the audience, are said, by those who have heard them, to be very able speakers, and all who attend the meetings will without doubt be glad that they did so. Single fares will be granted by the G. T. R. to all who wish to be present, and the afternoon train at the Falls will be held until 5.20, an hour later than its usual time for leaving.

A paragraph having appeared in the Toronto papers to the effect that Mr.
Douglas Armour had been elected President of the Literary and Legal Society of Osgoode Hall, and that the annual dinner of the Society is to be held on the 15th inst., it is advisable to inform our readers that the Mr. Armour mentioned is the cousin of Mr. Edward Douglas Armour, from whom a telegram has been received, stating that he will be at the Falls on the 15th as advertised.

REMOVAL.—Dr. E. S. Wilson has removed into Mr. Wm. McArthur's new terrace—the next house, south, to that in which he lately resided.

Warner & Perry will sell you an extra large full weight white wool blankets for $2.50, at the sale of McCrimmon Bros. bankrupt stock, Lindsay.

NOT OFFENDED.—The Warder says there are three Catholic organs in the county, two in Lindsay and one in the country. We almost wonder it didn't include the Gazette as well as the Independent in the category, and say there were four. But we are not offended at being left out, the Gazette being fully as Protestant as the mighty journal which—its editor assures everybody—is "the best weekly in America."

Rubbers, Rubbers, Rubbers. All kinds and sizes kept in stock and at lowest prices at Kean's cheap store on the corner.

Suffering Cowboys.

THEIR TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE IN A
"NORTHER" WHILE ATTENDING CATTLE.

FOLSOM, N.M., Nov. 4.—Thursday night Henry Miller, range foreman for Col. R. C. Head, with several cowboys, camped near Sierra Grande with 1,800 beef cattle, which they were holding for the purpose of loading in cars. At four o'clock Friday morning a blizzard from the north-west struck the herd, driving the cattle toward Pan Handle, Texas, the cowboys being unable to hold them.
The snow was so blinding that it was impossible to see 50 feet ahead. Miller called his men together, and they started to follow the herd, and made an attempt to keep them bunched. The men became separated. On Friday night one of them wandered into Head's home ranch, half dead from cold and hunger. He told his story, and a rescuing party was immediately sent out.
On Saturday noon the frozen bodies of Henry Miller, Joe Martin and Charles Jolly were found on the open plains not far from Folsom. The other men found their way to camp before being overcome with cold.

Gobbled by the Britishers.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Levi Mayor, the legal representative of the English syndicate which purchased the Pillsbury and Washburn mill, states that the Star Elevators of Minneapolis and 75 of the G. W. Van Dusen & Co. elevators have also been purchased by an English company, and the two first instalments of the purchase money have been paid. The Van Dusen elevators comprise a long line extending along the Chicago & Northwestern Railway and across Dakota. A London cablegram notes the formation in that city of a company, with a capital of $2,500,- 000, capable of unlimited expansion, for the purpose of purchasing the grain elevators of Chicago. W. H. Harper, Treasurer of the Chicago & Pacific Elevator Company, said to-day the cablegram was probably well founded. Negotiations for the transfer of Chicago elevator property to the English syndicate are in progress. The Economist has information that the elevators belonging to Munger, Wheeler & Co., have been sold for $2,500,000 to the English syndicate. The Munger-Wheeler system is the largest in the city, having a capacity of 6,500,000 bushels.
The amount paid is said to be $2,250,- 000.

Starving Nova Scotians.

HALIFAX, Nov. 4.—A man who visited Terrence Bay, West Halifax, last week, found many families in the settlement bordering on a state of starvation.
There are but four families who have any provisions on hand, and as their less fortunate neighbors continue to beg enough to keep them and their families from starving, it is probable the flour, etc., will not hold out a month longer, and if fish do not strike in in the meantime there will be nothing to keep the 40 or 50 resident families from starvation. One sad case in particular came under the visitor's eye. A man 35 or 40 years of age, who had a wife and four or five children, and who had been in the hospital here all summer, was begging piteously for something to eat for his wife and little ones, and swore that not a mouthful of food had passed down his throat for five days. Mrs.
Slaughwhite, to whom he was speaking, gave him a piece of bread, which he took home, and this with about a gill of molasses, formed a day's food for the family of six or seven, who did not know where the next meal was to come from. The people of Lower Prospect are said to be but little better off than those at Terrence Bay. It is proposed to get up a petition to the Dominion Government, to be signed by residents, asking that their fishery bounty for this year and part of next year be divided among them immediately.

The United States during the past four years shipped to England green, dried and canned apples to the value of $11,000,000.

The new railway bridge across the Firth of Forth, one of the most marvellous pieces of engineering of the century, is shortly to be put to the test of carrying fifty locomotives hitched together, and travelling back and forth at varying rates of speed.
