in case of fire. The wind-mills manufactured by the same firm are doing their work satisfactorily. We understand a large one is already planned, which will turn the grindstone. Other inventions too numerous to mention are also under way. Success to the enterprising company!

North Verulam.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

HYMENEAL.—A very happy event took place at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Joseph Davies, on Wednesday, the 20th ult., being the marriage of his second daughter, Miss Mary Jane Davies, to Mr. James Walker Lamb, by the Rev. Mr. Fraser, at 11 o'clock. Miss Ellen Lamb attended the bride, and Mr. S. Lamb supported the groom. Numerous presents were given by relatives and friends who gathered in the evening and spent a very enjoyable time until past midnight.

PERSONALS.—Miss Edith Yeo, of the township of Brock, is the guest of Mrs. John Davies this week. Mr. G. Burk, of Reaboro', is here on business and visiting friends. Mr. John Lamb moved into his new brick house on the 21st inst. Mr. Johnston Fell is busy stumping for Mr. James Lamb Sr.

CHARITY CONCERT.—A concert in aid of the village poor will be given on the evening of Tuesday, December 17th. Full particulars next week.

If you want a good watch for $6, try R. J. Frost's, "The Jeweller."

PHRENOLOGY.—Prof. Hugo Campbell, the well known and popular phrenologist, has taken rooms for professional examinations at the Mansion House for a few days only.

All kinds of watch and clock repairing done at R. J. Frost's, "The Jeweller."

THE SOCIAL TO-NIGHT.—Don't forget the Presbyterian Sunday School Social and entertainment in Dickson's hall to-night. The programme is a good one and the price of admission only 15 cents. Doors open at 7 o'clock. All are invited.

Just arrived, a beautiful assortment of Gold Brooches, at R. J. Frost's, "The Jeweller."

SLEIGHING.—This (Friday) morning there is good sleighing, nearly or quite a foot of snow having fallen since Wednesday morning. Some think that winter has set in; while others are of the opinion that the snow will all melt and the weather become mild again.

PHOTOGRAPHS reduced in price during the month of November. Card size, $1 and $1.50 per dozen. Cabinets $2.50 and $3 per dozen. Also all other sizes reduced in price. Give us a call, as we guarantee satisfaction. Photos of groups and babies a specialty.—FOWLER & CO., corner of Kent and William streets, Lindsay.

SHIPMENT OF HORSES.—On Friday last fifteen or sixteen horses owned by Boyd & Company of Bobcaygeon were brought to the Falls and sent by train to Toronto, there to be sold by auction. The animals had all or nearly all been employed in shanties, but were no longer wanted, as lumbering operations this winter will be on a smaller scale than usual.

CATTLE FOR THE SHANTIES.—Our enterprising townsman Mr. Henry Austin some time ago took a contract to supply Messrs. Gilmore's lumbering shanties in the township of Harvey with beef during the coming winter, and with that end in view purchased forty-five head of cattle, which, according to a careful estimate, was the number required. Ten of them were sent out last week and on Tuesday morning Messrs. Arnold, McConaghy and Waffle left with the other thirty-five. The nearest of the three shanties to be supplied is about 25 miles from the Falls and the furthest about 45 miles. The cattle will be distributed according to the number of men in each shanty, and, after resting over night, or a few hours as the case may be, will all be slaughtered, skinned and quartered for use. Messrs. Arnold, Waffle & McConaghy are expected back on Saturday, and, as they went provided with guns, rifles and ammunition, they may possibly bring a bear or two, or other game, home with them.

The scheme of the Hungarian Government, already in operation, for buying up taverns throughout the country and turning them into school houses, will be watched with interest in all other countries.

They have had some queer sacred entertainments in the East, but nothing to compare with one given in a Colorado town on a recent Sunday evening, and which was advertised as "A Grand Sacred Dog Fight."

A mine near Recklinghausen, Westphalia, has been flooded, and two hundred and fifty men have been imprisoned since Friday evening. Should the water recede, there is some hope that the men will be rescued.

Trustee and Teacher.

PETERBORO', Nov. 25.—The Peterboro' Collegiate Institute has had considerable troubles in the past, but all School Board squabbles tamed before the sensation caused this morning by a leading member of the Board, Mr. J. B. McWilliams, entering the room of the modern language master and administering a vigorous castigation to the latter gentleman. On Friday his twelve-year-old son went to the school, and for some breach of discipline was severely punished by the teacher. The parent alleges that medical aid had to be summoned to dress the lad's hurts, and under the impulse of indignation Mr. McWilliams used a raw hide as a counter irritant. Mr. Colback denies that he punished or intended to punish the lad unduly, and says the assault was unprovoked. The affair has created a great local sensation and will likely come up in the Courts in the shape of an assault case.

The Maine Farmers.

A Nova Scotian who has been living in Maine for a number of years writes to the Canning Gazette "to say a word to the farmers who may be discouraged as they used to be" when he was in Nova Scotia. Referring to the potato crop he says an average yield in Maine is 75 to 100 bushels per acre, and the average price 50 cents per bushel. The Nova Scotia price is less, but the average yield is much larger with less labor. The Maine price for apples this year is $1 to $2 per barrel to three bushels, and this is the highest for five years. To quote the exact words of this Nova Scotian, who says he is not a farmer and does not care to be, "stock is worth mere nothing in Maine. A pair of cattle that girth seven feet sold the other day for $50." The Maine climate is also more changeable than that of Nova Scotia. In conclusion this correspondent, who bears the euphonious name of Bill Williams, says to the farmers of Annapolis that "they have got a little Garden of Eden, and should be as happy as clams at high water."—Moncton Times.

A Fight Between Locomotives.

When street car No. 32, of the Jackson Mound Park line, reached the steam railway crossing at Calhoun and Tennessee streets, at 2.30 yesterday afternoon, the way was found blocked by two freight trains, with the two engines facing each other. Neither of the trains made any motion to move, and the car-driver, whose name is Thomas, enquired of a brakeman the cause of the delay. The answer surprised him. "Well, they met on the same track: both of the engineers claim the right of way, and neither one will back down." At this juncture the engineer of one engine pulled his lever and attempted to force the other train back, but the effort was unsuccessful. Then the engineers argued the matter, and one suggested that they were keeping the crossing blocked, to which the other replied that he didn't care if it was kept blocked for an hour. Then the first engineer made another attempt to run the opposing train back, and again failed, whereupon he backed his engine a few feet and attacked the enemy with a running start, but in vain. It was a battle of giants in which both were equally powerful. The engineer then signalled an engineer, who was in his engine in the yard south of the crossing, for assistance. He responded, and ran his engine up in the rear of the north-bound train. Then both engineers started their engines together, and by their combined strength the south-bound train was pushed back and the crossing was cleared.—Memphis Avalanche.
