Mr. Henry Junkin returned to Belleville on Monday.
 Mr. J. W. Fitzgerald, of Parry Harbour, left for home on Tuesday morning.
 Mr. Samuel Hooper, of the "Red Store," returned to the Falls on Wednesday.
 Mr. Bradley Mowry, Jr., of Gravenhurst, was at the Falls from Monday evening until Tuesday morning.
 Mr. & Mrs. Daniel Gladstone, of Lindsay, have been at the Falls upwards of a week, and will leave next Monday.
 Mr. James Dickson and Mr. Samuel Barr returned on New Year's Day from the Algoma District. They had been from home about ten weeks.
 Mr. & Mrs. VanNostrand, of Toronto, Mr. C. J. Logan, of Galt, and Mr. W. C. C. Logan, of Peterborough, all spent two or three days of this week at the Rectory.
 Mr. Neil Clark, of Cannington and Mr. Donald Clark, of Marmora, sons of Mr. A. Clark, of this village, were here on New Year's Day, and left next morning. Mr. Neil Clark was accompanied by his wife and four children, who will remain until next week.

LEFT OVER.—Correspondence from Powles's Corner and North Verulam, and Layman's letter, are unavoidably left over until next week.

ELECTION OF TRUSTEES.—There will be no change in the school board this year, as Messrs. Austin, Nie and Robson, the retiring trustees, were the only persons nominated on Monday last, and they were accordingly declared re-elected.

THE WEATHER.—There seems to be no end to the vagaries of the weather, and everybody is weary of the changes. The proprietor of a goose-bone prophecy says that we are to have an open winter, and at present the odds appear to be greatly in his favour.

THEY DUG IN VAIN.—Last Saturday forenoon a large otter was seen to swim across the Fenelon River below the falls and land near a small tree. From there its tracks led to a hole in the rock, at which a number of men worked with picks and shovels until nearly dark; but when they got to the end of the hole the otter wasn't there.

THE CANADIAN HORTICULTURIST.—This publication improves every year, both in appearance, illustrations, colored plates and reading matter. Every fruit grower, gardener and farmer should have it. The editor is a practical fruit grower, and the other writers are the leading practical gardeners and fruit growers in Ontario. One dollar, addressed to the editor, Grimsby, Ont., secures this monthly, the interesting Annual Report of the Fruit Growers, and a choice of plants for testing.

PRESBYTERIAN S. S. REPORT FOR 1889.—No. of books in library, 120; estimated value of library, $40. Each scholar received one of the following papers free each Sunday: Young People's Weekly, Weekly Magnet, Happy Hours or Weekly Welcome. Total number of papers distributed during the year, 3,700; number of classes for first half, 12; average attendance, 80; average collection, $1.03; number of classes for second half, 9; average attendance, 67; average collection, 78c.

BAPTIST ANNIVERSARY.—The Baptist Anniversary was held on Wednesday evening; but we cannot find room for more than a very brief notice, as the pastor of the church has appropriated so much of our space. Owing to the heavy rain the attendance was not as large as usual, but the church was fairly filled with the exception of two or three of the front pews. After an excellent tea, addresses were delivered by Messrs. Fraed, of Sunderland, Parker, of Peterborough, and Anderson, of Lindsay. Rev. Mr. Fraser, pastor of the congregation, officiated as chairman and spoke briefly, and plenty of excellent music was furnished by the choir. On Thursday a social was held to dispose of the surplus tables, and the proceeds of the two evenings amounted to nearly $60.

It is said that the cause of the czar's recent illness was poison in his food.

An old man named Phillips was frozen to death in Saturday's storm in Spink county, South Dakota.

The Hungarians living in the village of Troop, near Scranton, Pa., have substituted cat flesh for beef.

A bright young fellow in London earns a living by writing speeches for wedding breakfasts. In England speeches are still expected from the bridegroom, and they are generally very bungling affairs.

A Minnesota schoolma'am, reported devoured by wolves, comes up smiling a week after her bones were picked, and explains that she simply took a week's vacation to get married in. It's a shame to disappoint the public in this fashion.

The Czar, it is said, is going to abolish banishment to Siberia, largely because of Mr. George Kennan's famous letters in The Century Magazine. The New York Times recently complained that the Czar had excluded that excellent daily from Russia, and thereby deprived it of its Russian subscription list. From which facts it may be inferred that American journalism has been having a disturbing influence upon Russian affairs.
