Cobocook.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

Our school is filling up again. Sickness is still prevalent, but not as bad as formerly.

Mr. Wilkinson has moved his boiler from his shingle mill here back to his limits, where he expects to make it "hot" for broom handles, &c.

The genial face of Mr. John Fell, M. P. P., might have been seen here on Friday night. He came from Toronto to attend a meeting of the Somerville council. Mr. James Wilson, from Kilmount, met him here and drove him over to the council chamber. Parliament seems to agree with him.

The annual meeting of the Somerville Agricultural Society was held here on Thursday, the 9th inst. There was quite a large attendance of farmers, and increased interest was manifested in the affairs of the Society. The following officers were elected:—President, J. H. Carnegie; 1st vice-president, B. Burtchall; 2nd vice-president, Geo. Rumney; directors, S. Suddaby, J. Daniel; Secretary, J. G. Morris.

Since my last letter another has gone from our midst to join the great and silent majority. The late Mr. Pattie came here nearly ten years ago, and by his upright conduct, his business tact, and his interest in the welfare of our village, won for himself a warm place in our hearts, and it was with more than ordinary feelings of sadness that his brother Oddfellows consigned him to his last resting place. He was born in the county of Down, Ireland, in 1833. He had more than a usual share of suffering, especially during the last two years of his life, and his patience under pain was remarkable.

Powles's Corners.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

Mr. Thos. Miers is recovering from the measles and la grippe. He is getting along nicely.

Every one is waiting for snow; and if it doesn't come a large quantity of cordwood, ties, posts, &c., will have to be kept until next winter.

Why can't the day school be opened at nine o'clock, which is the right time, instead of half past nine and a quarter to ten. Perhaps this is the last year.

A quick horse-doctor from Lindsay has been through this part selling medicine to cure la grippe, and another kind as a preventative. When we want medicine we can get it at the drug store.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. A. T. Willock, who has suffered so long from la grippe, is slowly recovering. He is a general favourite around here, and his recovery is eagerly hoped for.

Mr. N. Day has returned from M. W. Dunham's horse-breeding establishment, U. S., with another Percheron horse. Mr. Day took "Paulus" back to Dunham's, as we learn that he only had the horse on trial.

The many friends of Miss Ruby Ingram will regret to learn of her departure for Argos, Indiana. Miss Ingram will make her home at Mr. George A. Powles's. We wish her a pleasant trip and a safe one.

HAWK AND PIGEON.—Last Monday forenoon a large hawk was seen approaching the main street with a tame pigeon in his talons. Just as he was over the sidewalk in front of Twomey's hotel, he dropped his prey, which appeared to be too heavy a load for him, and was afraid to follow it to the ground, as several persons were around. A moment or two later the pigeon, seemingly unhurt, sprang into the air and flew rapidly away.

THE TENNESSEANS.—The concert given in the Methodist church last Tuesday evening by the Fisk Tennesseans was well attended; but the prices of admission—35 cents for adults and 25 cents for children—were higher than we are accustomed to in this village, and the church, therefore was not much more than two-thirds full. The concert gave great satisfaction, three or four of the singers having remarkably fine voices; but we are informed that nearly all the company have had la grippe, from which some of them have hardly recovered.

A BROKEN ARM.—On Tuesday evening last our old friend Mr. Wm. Powles, of Fenelon, met with a serious accident. He was in his cattle shed, which is divided into two compartments, with a door opening from one into the other; and while he was standing with his left arm around the edge of the door, one of the animals ran against it, crushing his arm between the door and the frame, and breaking both the bones a little above the wrist. Mr. Powles immediately came to the Falls and had the bones set by Dr. Wilson, after which he went to the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Robert McCallum, where he spent the night.

ACCIDENT.—During the afternoon of Wednesday, the 12th inst., Mr. W. H. Brokenshire, of Islay, in the township of Fenelon, met with a serious accident while skidding logs alone in his own woods. As he was putting a small one on the skid his handspike slipped, and the log rolled on to his left leg, breaking both bones below the knee. Mr. Brokenshire was about twenty rods from a ploughed field, which he reached with his horses by driving them the length of the lines and then stopping them until he crawled up to them. On the ploughed ground he could make no progress, and he lay at the edge of the woods for about an hour, suffering greatly from the cold as well as from the pain in his leg, until his mother and a neighbour reached him almost simultaneously, both having noticed that the horses had not moved for a long time. A sleigh was procured; and as soon as Mr. Brokenshire had been taken to the house a messenger was sent to Cambury for Dr. Ray, under whose care the patient is doing well.

AN ICE FAMINE IN CHICAGO is feared to be inevitable.

The Irish tenants' defence fund now exceeds $43,000.

Serious damage is feared from the swollen streams in Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio.

Two industrious Brazilian boomsters have been arrested in Germany on account of their gilded stories.

DIED.

PATTIE.—In Cobocook, on Thursday, Feb. 6th, John Pattie, aged 37 years.

WORSLEY.—In the township of Fenelon, on Sunday, Feb. 6th, Joseph Worsley Sr., aged 82 years and 5 months.

LAMB.—In the township of Verulam, on Tuesday, Feb. 18th, Joseph Lamb, aged 84 years.
