

Carpets and Oil-Cloths, No. 9 Keenan's Block, Kent Street, Lindsay.

INSTITUTE MEETING.—The annual meeting of the members of the Fenelon Falls Mechanics' Institute will be held in the reading room on the evening of Monday next, the 5th inst., for the purpose of electing officers for the year and transacting other business. A full attendance is requested.

THE FIRST LOGS.—On Friday last the steamer Beaubouge came to the Falls from Bobcaygeon with Boyd & Co.'s cribs, capstan and horses, which were put through the locks next morning and taken to the mouth of Burnt River. On Wednesday morning a drive of the company's logs, about 30,000 in number, from above Gooderham, reached Cameron Lake in charge of Mr. A. Barnhart, and by the middle of next week, if not earlier, the first of them will be running over the slide.

$3 A TON.—The remark in last week's Gazette that the price of ice was rapidly rising was quite true, and the Monetary Times said in its last issue that ice was held in the storehouses at $2 50 a ton, and to day it is probably worth $3 per ton on the cars at Fenelon Falls. Our villagers who went into the ice business all did exceedingly well, and were wise to sell at a highly remunerative figure; but if Mr. Ellis and Messrs McDougall & Brandon could have seen into the future and had held on until now, they would have added several thousands of dollars to their profits.

S. A. NOTES.—A week of Salvation Army special meetings commenced on Friday last. On the previous Wednesday Adj. Manton, of the Candidate Department, was at the Falls, and obtained three applications from soldiers who wished to become officers and devote themselves entirely to the work. Capt. Robert Cunningham, late of the Irish constabulary, has led the meetings and been the chief attraction during the week. The following local officers have been appointed: Maggie Rutherford, secretary; Sarah Ellery, sergeant, and Sarah Brokenshire, corporal, of the Visiting Department; Susie Brokenshire, sergeant, and Lizzie Boice, corporal, of the War Cry Department; Joe LePage, color sergeant.

At the Grave.

A MONUMENT FALLS AND AN EXCITING SCENE ENSUES.

SYRACUSE, April 25.—The funeral of Frank Hotchkiss, who was killed by a falling elevator at Cortland, was held yesterday afternoon and an exciting scene took place at the grave, into which the body, coffin, a pall-bearer and part of a monument were dumped. The family monument had been undermined and it fell just as the coffin was about to be lowered. The base went into the grave, followed by the shaft, which crushed the coffin and carried James Robinson with it. It was some time before he could be taken out and he was badly bruised and cut. One woman fainted and there was much excitement. The body had to be placed in a new coffin and the ceremonies had to be postponed for an hour.

A Scott Act Sensation.

The judgment of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick, confirming the conviction of six persons in Fredericton for violation of the Scott Act, has caused a large sensation. As these are the third offences the parties are sentenced to fine and imprisonment. Among the six are the proprietors of the two leading hotels of the capital, the Barker house and the Queen's, in one or other of which nearly all the members of the Legislature boarded during the session. They are both men of substance and standing, and to their case public attention is specially directed. Both have left Fredericton and were in St. John yesterday, it is said with the view of leaving the country at least for a time. This is the most determined and spirited attempt that has been made for the complete enforcement of the Scott Act in this province.

Kemmler's Execution Postponed.

AUBURN, N. Y., April 29.—Judge Wallace, of the U. S. Court, has granted a writ of habeas corpus, returnable June 17, in the case of Kemmler. The ground for the writ is that the Act under which execution was to take place is in violation of the Constitution. Roger M. Sherman, of New York, is attorney for Kemmler. It is said the action of Harold Brown, in charge of the electrical apparatus, in making business capital out of the execution, led to the granting of the writ.

A terrific hail storm visited Baltimore on Sunday. Windows were smashed, and horses and carriages were abandoned in the streets. The damage is considerable.

The German emperor spent Sunday with Queen Victoria at Darmstadt. Crowfoot, the famous Chief of the Blackfoot Indians, died on Friday. All the prisoners in jail at Newbery, Mich., escaped on Saturday and are still at large.

A cloud-burst struck English, Indiana, Saturday morning and much damage was done.

The bill providing for the closing of saloons in Ireland on Sunday has passed its second reading in the Commons.

A gravedigger has been sentenced to one month's imprisonment in Berlin for cutting the hair from the heads of corpses and selling the same to dealers.

A cattle disease of extraordinary virulence has made its appearance with fatal effect in the vicinity of Seedwarzen-Eupen, Prussia. Traffic in cattle has been strictly prohibited with the infected districts.

A reign of terror prevails in Santiago de Cuba owing to the daring raids of two bodies of bandits who have been ravaging the country. The outlaws recently engaged in a conflict with the guards and three of the latter were killed.

There was a destructive wind and rain storm in Woodruff county, Ark., early on the morning of April 26th. The village of Yorkville was almost entirely blown away and the disaster is very great. Horses, barns, fences and structures of all kinds were taken up by the wind and carried some distance.

On Thursday evening burglars attempted to enter Patter & Co.'s store at Ironwood, Mich. A clerk fired a shotgun in the face of the foremost man and the burglars fled. On Friday night the burglar, whose name is found to be John Richards, turned up at the hospital with his face nearly gone. He refused to name his accomplices and died on Sunday.

A man at Tiflis, in Russia, paid an assassin $75 to kill an enemy, and $90 more when the assassin brought an ear in proof that he had committed the crime. The assassin went to the enemy and obtained $100 for revealing the plot, and produced a bogus ear. The man who paid to have his enemy assassinated is now suing the "swindler" to recover the money he paid.

Sergius Sheritob, Socialist and editor-in-chief of The Volks Zeitung, who has been an exile in America for 22 years, having been banished from Russia owing to his political opposition to the Czar, has been forgiven by the latter and will return to his native land. His large ancestral estates, which were confiscated, will be restored to him. He will leave for Russia in a few days with his wife.

J. M. Ferguson arrived at Baton Rouge April 26th from the rear of Pointe Coupee parish in a skiff. He states that at a point between Morgan sea and Labelle, about nine miles inland, a family of five negroes named Watson were swept out of existence. On his way he ran across the drowned body of a negro man floating in the swamp. Hundreds of drowned stock were passed, and Mr. Ferguson said the suffering is terrible in the interior. Baton Rouge is full of refugees.

The latest and most unique invention is a machine for buttering bread. It is used in connection with a great patent bread-cutter, and is intended for use in prisons, work-houses and other reformatory institutions. There is a cylindrical shaped brush which is fed with butter, and lays a thin layer on the bread as it comes from the cutter. The machine can be worked by hand, steam or electricity, and has a capacity of cutting and buttering 750 loaves of bread an hour. The saving of butter and bread and the decrease in the quantity of crumbs is said to be very large.

DIED.

MARTIN.—In the township of Verulam, on Sunday, April 27th, Mrs. Ann Martin, in the 88th year of her age.
