INSURANCE.

THE ROYAL CANADIAN INSURANCE Co. issues by far the best Farm policy in Canada.

JOHN AUSTIN,
Agent.

Fenelon Falls, June 12th, 1890. 17.

ROYAL CANADIAN
INSURANCE COMPANY,
vs.
THE LONDON MUTUAL,
FOR FARMERS.

The Royal Canadian offers the following advantages over the London Mutual:

1. If a building worth $1200 is insured for say $1000, the Royal Canadian is obliged to pay $1000, if a loss occurs. In such a case the London Mutual is obliged to pay only two thirds of the cash value, or $800.

2. If a horse worth $90 is killed in the fields by lightning, the Royal Canadian is obliged to pay $90. The London Mutual pays only $60.

3. For a cow worth $30 killed by lightning the Royal Canadian pays $30. The London Mutual pays only $20. For other animals the Royal Canadian pays the full value. The London Mutual pays not more than $5, no matter how valuable the animal may be.

4. In the Royal Canadian animals are insured against lightning while at pasture anywhere. In the London Mutual they are insured while pasturing on the premises of the insured only.

5. When articles are insured specifically, such as musical instruments, the Royal Canadian is obliged to pay the full amount insured up to the cash value of the article.
The London Mutual pays only two-third of the cash value, no matter what the insurance may be.

6. When "ordinary contents" of out-buildings are insured by the Royal Canadian ALL implements are included. In the London Mutual only one reaper and one mower are included, no matter how good others may be.

7. When the outbuildings are not joined to each other the Royal Canadian insures under one sum the "ordinary contents" of all building not cut off by a distance greater than 40 ft., the same as if the contents were all under one roof. The London Mutual requires a separate sum on the contents of each building, if the distance is more than 12 ft. This is a very important difference in many cases.

8. In the Royal Canadian it is a part of the contract that standard STEAM THRESHERS may be used without a special permit and without any restriction as to the distance from stacks or buildings, caretakers, piles of water, kind of fuel or direction of the wind. Many of the policy holders in the London Mutual were obliged to run their own risk while threshing last season, because it was found to be impossible to comply with the conditions of their permit.
When a farmer pays for insurance he should secure a policy which will hold him safe when it is most required.

9. The Royal Canadian is obliged to pay its losses within sixty days and usually takes much less. The London Mutual need not pay for ninety days, and since it has become so hard up as to be obliged to borrow money largely, it usually takes about the full time allowed.

10. The Royal Canadian policy is subject to the statutory conditions only. It has none of the numerous variations against the policy-holder printed in red ink on the back of the London Mutual policy.

11. As to security, the inspector of insurance reports that the Royal Canadian has $202,758, the amount he estimates to be necessary to enable the company to carry out all its engagements with its policy holders. Besides this he reports that it has to the good the $400,000 capital paid in cash by the shareholders, and a net surplus $117,697 making in all a total cash surplus of $517,697 to protect its policy-holders against unexpected contingencies. In addition to these cash items it has a subscribed capital of $100,000 not called up. Regarding the security of the London Mutual the inspector reports that the amount of unearned premium it should have on hand is $290,309. To make up this amount in cash a second call would have to be made on the premium notes for a large amount, leaving a surplus of only $74,218, even if there were no bad debts, and this surplus is made up wholly of the unpaid balance of premium notes already heavily assessed.

The company reports the losses adjusted but unpaid at the close of the year at $6-387, but the Inspector of Insurance finds that the liability for unpaid losses at the end of the year was $20,286. The cash on hand to pay these losses only amounted to $13,911.

In view of the foregoing facts farmers will have no difficulty in deciding as to the company in which they should be insured.

Agent, Lindsay.

Under the Wreckage.

HEARTRENDING SCENES ON THE WABASH RAILWAY.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 10.—Particulars of the wreck on the Wabash road yesterday say the scene at the wreck was a terrible one. Cars and engines were intermingled in one huge mass of debris, from under which came screams of wounded and dying. Some were cursing and begging to be killed, while others were praying for help. In one of the cars next to the engine was a most pitiful sight. The sides had been crushed and the roof was resting in an inclined position across the bed of Jas.
Keller and his son Frank. They were lying on their pillows just as they retired and never knew what hurt them, although they were horribly crushed.
About two feet from them was an imprisoned negro, who was alive but had a leg and arm fast under the wreckage.
In the same car two dead negroes were found, while a little further on was found one negro boy scalded and literally cooked alive, and a colored jockey buried under a car of shelled corn, from which position it took several men three hours to extricate him. A force of men worked from two o'clock until 7, resus-citating the unfortunates, and had it not been for rain the loss of life would have been much greater. There were in all eight head taken out, four whites and four negroes, and 25 wounded.
The eighth body is that of Frank Morton, 528 West Forty-fifth street, New York. The loss to the railroad will amount to over $200,000. Nine blooded horses were killed, while many were badly injured. Several persons are mis-singing, and the search for bodies under the wreck was continued at a late hour last night.

What a Buffalo Paper Says.

BUFFALO, June 7.—The News, in its issue of to-day, editorially says of the Ontario elections:—"The doughty little Attorney-General has been sustained and the destinies of Ontario will remain in his keeping for another long term. The province supports Sir John Macdonald in Dominion politics, but Oliver Mowat's personal popularity, his high personal character, his notable administrative powers and his genuine liberality of views have kept the Liberals in power in Provincial government for many years. Race and religion cries have been made against Mr. Mowat, and the campaign in many respects resembled those of the days of the Know-nothing agitation in this country. All liberal-minded citizens in this country who do not believe that such questions should be brought into politics will be pleased to see fanaticism given a black eye as it was."

A Seminole Reporter.

A half-breed Seminole has come from New Orleans to Pittsburg in a small paper canoe. John Ryegrass is the English translation of this Indian's un-pronounceable name. Mr. Ryegrass is tall and well formed, with the small hands and feet which Lord Byron says are the sure exemplars of noble descent.
Ryegrass was born at Tallahatchie, Florida, but was taken by Father Burger, a Jesuit Priest, to the New Orleans University at the age of 16 years. He seems to be fairly educated, and states that his ambition is to become a newspaper reporter. He will proceed up the Allegheny as far as it is navigable, and then return and transport his canoe to Lake Erie. John Ryegrass has written several articles for the New Orleans Pioneer and other southern papers.—
