

Carpets and Oil-Cloths, No. 9 Keenan's Block, Kent Street, Lindsay.

The British Museum received one day last week a Chinese bank note issued from the Imperial mint 300 years before the first use of paper money in England.

Mrs. Susan Ney, of Boston, aged 45, by mistake drank a glass of lemonade in which she had put strychnine, with the intention of giving it to her husband. She died in a few hours.

A number of physicians from Washington, New York and other places are at Phillippi, W. Va., investigating the wonderful discovery of a German farmer, named G. W. Hamrick, who claims that in an hour he can mummify a body without making an incision of any sort or removing any part of the body, so that it may be taken around the world without ice or arsenical fluids. The bodies of two human beings thus prepared have lain in his house for two years, and are as perfect as in life. The house is filled with specimens of animals, etc., similarly prepared.
