INSURANCE.

THE ROYAL CANADIAN INSURANCE Co. issues by far the best Farm policy in Canada.

JOHN AUSTIN,
Agent.

Fenelon Falls, June 12th, 1890. 17.

ROYAL CANADIAN

INSURANCE COMPANY,

vs.

THE LONDON MUTUAL,

FOR FARMERS.

The Royal Canadian offers the following advantages over the London Mutual:

1. If a building worth $1200 is insured for say $1000, the Royal Canadian is obliged to pay $1000, if a loss occurs. In such a case the London Mutual is obliged to pay only two thirds of the cash value, or $800.

2. If a horse worth $90 is killed in the fields by lightning, the Royal Canadian is obliged to pay $90. The London Mutual pays only $60.

3. For a cow worth $30 killed by lightning the Royal Canadian pays $30. The London Mutual pays only $20. For other animals the Royal Canadian pays the full value. The London Mutual pays not more than $5, no matter how valuable the animal may be.

4. In the Royal Canadian animals are insured against lightning while at pasture anywhere. In the London Mutual they are insured while pasturing on the premises of the insured only.

5. When articles are insured specifically, such as musical instruments, the Royal Canadian is obliged to pay the full amount insured up to the cash value of the article.
The London Mutual pays only two-third of the cash value, no matter what the insurance may be.

6. When "ordinary contents" of out-buildings are insured by the Royal Canadian ALL implements are included. In the London Mutual only one reaper and one mower are included, no matter how good others may be.

7. When the outbuildings are not joined to each other the Royal Canadian insures under one sum the "ordinary contents" of all building not cut off by a distance greater than 40 ft., the same as if the contents were all under one roof. The London Mutual requires a separate sum on the contents of each building, if the distance is more than 12 ft. This is a very important difference in many cases.

8. In the Royal Canadian it is a part of the contract that standard STEAM THRESHERS may be used without a special permit and without any restriction as to the distance from stacks or buildings, caretakers, piles of water, kind of fuel or direction of the wind. Many of the policy holders in the London Mutual were obliged to run their own risk while threshing last season, because it was found to be impossible to comply with the conditions of their permit.
When a farmer pays for insurance he should secure a policy which will hold him safe when it is most required.

9. The Royal Canadian is obliged to pay its losses within sixty days and usually takes much less. The London Mutual need not pay for ninety days, and since it has become so hard up as to be obliged to borrow money largely, it usually takes about the full time allowed.

10. The Royal Canadian policy is subject to the statutory conditions only. It has none of the numerous variations against the policy-holder printed in red ink on the back of the London Mutual policy.

11. As to security, the inspector of insurance reports that the Royal Canadian has $202,758, the amount he estimates to be necessary to enable the company to carry out all its engagements with its policy holders. Besides this he reports that it has to the good the $400,000 capital paid in cash by the shareholders, and a net surplus $117,607 making in all a total cash surplus of $517,607 to protect its policy-holders against unexpected contingencies. In addition to these cash items it has a subscribed capital of $100,000 not called up. Regarding the security of the London Mutual the inspector reports that the amount of unearned premium it should have on hand is $290,309. To make up this amount in cash a second call would have to be made on the premium notes for a large amount, leaving a surplus of only $74,218, even if there were no bad debts, and this surplus is made up wholly of the unpaid balance of premium notes already heavily assessed.
The company reports the losses adjusted but unpaid at the close of the year at $6-387, but the Inspector of Insurance finds that the liability for unpaid losses at the end of the year was $20,286. The cash on hand to pay these losses only amounted to $13,911.

In view of the foregoing facts farmers will have no difficulty in deciding as to the company in which they should be insured.

VILLAGE OF FENELON FALLS.

COUNTY OF VICTORIA.

Notice is hereby given, that I have transmitted or delivered to the persons mentioned in sections 5 and 6 of "The Ontario Voters' List Act, 1889," the copies required by said sections to be so transmitted or delivered of the list, made pursuant to said Act, of all persons appearing by the last revised Assessment Roll of the said Municipality to be entitled to vote in the said Municipality at Elections for Members of the Legislative Assembly and at Municipal Elections; and that said list was first posted up at my office, at Fenelon Falls, on the 19th day of August, 1890, and remains there for inspection.

Electors are called upon to examine the said list, and, if any omissions or any other errors are found therein, to take immediate proceedings to have the said errors corrected according to law.

Dated the 19th day of August, 1890.

Potato Blight in Ireland.

DUBLIN, Aug. 16.—Reports received here show the potato blight is spreading in the counties of Donegal, Cork, Waterford, Tipperary and Limerick. Prices have already doubled at Westport, where the guardians of the Government are making exertions to avert the disaster.
The blight has spread over the whole of Galway. It is not confined to any particular soil. The blight is due partly to the sowing of old seed in old ground, but mostly to the rainy season.
In the worst districts the stalks are withered. In five out of six examinations made there were no roots, and in the sixth case the tubers were only the size of marbles. Michael Davitt writes to suggest that something be done to replace potatoes with such vegetables as will make food between now and March, and he asks suggestions without delay from those qualified to give advice.

Europe's Grain Supply.

Until the annual seed fair at Vienna on the 25th of this month we shall have no comprehensive notion of what Europe's grain supply is really going to be.
The Times' extended and careful estimate of the British crop yesterday put this year's total wheat yield at about 72,000,000 bushels, which is under the average, but better than was expected a month ago. Its survey concluded, however, with a statement that this was a critical period in the harvesting, and its forecast depended on fair weather for its realization. Unfortunately one of the heaviest storms of the year visited most parts of England yesterday, with violent winds and a heavy rainfall. Up to the present reports its damage was confined to shipping disasters, but at least it cannot have helped the crops.
The English farmer is in a hopeful frame of mind all the same, because wheat prices are rising steadily and are already higher than they have been since 1882, when the great decline began.
This will much more than compensate him for the slightly diminished yield.
Reports from the Continent are much less definite than is usual in mid-August, but, with the exception of France, Austro-Hungary and Turkey, the present estimates are of crops somewhat above the average.

A cyclone and hailstorm in the department of Aube, France, on the 17th, ravaged eighteen communes, destroying the harvested and growing crops. The loss is estimated at nearly 25,000,000 franes.
Imagine the surprise of Miss Eva McFadden, of Oxford, Pa., who, while cutting a loaf of bread, suddenly revealed the hiding-place of a rat. She had taken the loaf from a pantry, and just as she had cut off the first slice, out popped a rat from a hole in the bread and scampered off, until a lively cat pounced upon and made short work of him.
