

and Oil-Cloths, No. 9 Keenan's Block, Kent Street, Lindsay.

couple took the train next morning for Niagara Falls and other places.
The Sabbath School Anniversary will be held here on Sunday and Monday, 12th and 13th inst. Rev. Mr. Thomson of British Columbia will be present. All are cordially invited to attend. Proceeds in aid of the Sabbath school.

Laid Over.—The School Board met on Tuesday evening, and we have the minutes and Mr. Reazin's report; but we are compelled to lay them over until next week, in consequence of the length of Mr. Logan's communication and of the prize list in this issue.

Methodist Concert.—A concert in aid of the organ fund will be held in the Methodist church, Fenelon Falls, on the evening of Tuesday next, the 7th inst. Music will be rendered by the choir, and elocutionary exercises by Mrs. McNeil. Admission 10 cents.

Millinery &c.—Mrs. R. McDougall's new advertisement relating to millinery and mantle cloths, hats, bonnets, feathers, plumes &c.—of which she has received a large stock—will appear in our next issue. Look out for it, and, in the meantime, go and delight your eyes by an inspection of the goods.

The Band Concert.—The concert in aid of the Fenelon Falls brass band was given in Ingram's hall last Friday evening, according to announcement, and was very well attended. Circumstances prevented us from being present, and we were told by a friend who was there that we missed a treat. We can afford neither time nor space this week for the programme, which comprised vocal and instrumental music, readings and recitations. The playing of the Bobcaygeon Ladies' band, as well as of our own village band, was much admired.

More Boots & Shoes.—Mr. Henry Austin has rented the store lately vacated by Mr. Joseph McFarland, which he has had fixed up and painted, and is now opening out a large and choice assortment of ready-made boots and shoes, a good many of which will be on the shelves and ready for inspection by the time this announcement is in the hands of our readers. Mr. Austin has also chartered half a column in the Gazette, and next week will fill it with matters of interest to all in want—or likely to be in want—of the various commodities in which he deals.

The Chicago Times has discovered that in an out-of-the-way corner of a Boston graveyard stands a brown board, showing the marks of age and neglect and bearing the inscription, "Sacred to the memory of Eben Harvey, who departed this life suddenly and unexpectedly, by a cow kicking him, on the 14th of September, 1853. Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

The following advertisement appeared in The Liverpool Daily Post:—"Will the lady wearing spectacles, who, on Thursday evening, the 7th inst., drove a dark pony and four-wheeled phaeton, with groom behind, along Halewood road, and injured a valuable saddle-horse by not taking her side of the road, kindly get a better pair of glasses and take driving lessons before she ventures out again?"

DIED.

Whittle.—In Fenelon Falls, on Wednesday, October 1st, Mrs. Geo. Whittle, aged 30 years.
