CORRESPONDENCE.

To Messrs. Thomas Roberts and Thomas Austin, Churchwardens, St. James's Church, Fen-elon Falls.

Dear Sirs,—

The time for the periodical change of incumbent for this Parish has come and gone, and a crisis in consequence seems to have set in. I wish to make a few reflections on the situation. When Mr. Dean was employed as Curate for the purpose of taking my place, he was deceived (though not purposely) by those who let their zeal run before their knowledge. It was presented to him that he was to be Rector and that I had so much stipend which as matter of course I would have to give over to him.
That my successor may not be deceived in the same way I think that it is only right that I should explain to you the true state of the case. I brought here with me $400 (annually) of my official income; that I take with me wherever I go, and it is assured to me during my life time. It is the interest of $7000 I got from the government as a commutation of $400 per annum, which I, for several years, received from the government as stipend from the Clergy Reserve Fund. This money I put into a common fund to form an endowment for the Church-for ever, only to receive the interest of it during my life time. All the clergy of the Diocese, with one exception, did the same.
The fund now amounts to $352,689.25.
There are eighteen of the original commu-tators still alive, of whom I am one, and there are twenty-three who have taken the places of those who have died, which they do in their order of service in the Diocese. You will see then that the congregation has nothing to do with the disposal of this, my private property. And now, though the clergy come upon the commutation trust fund in the order of their service, yet it is with limitation. No one succeeding me as Rector of St. James', Fenelon Falls, can be placed on that fund, simply because the endowment produces more than $400 per annum.
If the endowment only produced, say $300, my successor, when his time should come for being placed on the fund could draw to the amount of $100 per annum and no more.
He cannot in any case receive more than $400 from the endowment and the commutation trust fund combined. The following is the law on the subject: "That as often as the trust committee shall report a surplus, as above provided, it shall be paid to the senior eligible clergymen of the Diocese (as above herein and hereafter defined) not being on the commutation list, nor enjoying an income of more than $400 per annum from any endowment or Rectory Fund, whether invested or otherwise, nor an income of $1200 per annum as defined in section 8. No clergyman shall receive from this fund a sum, which together with the amount he receives from any endowment or Rectory Fund will amount to more than $100 per quarter." See Amended Canon on Clergy Commutation Trust Fund Surplus, Synod Report, 1888, page 147.

Now with regard to the law relating to superannuation: "In the following cases a clergyman shall have the right, upon his own application, to be placed on the superannuation list and to claim upon this fund:
(a) If he has served thirty-five years in this Diocese.
(b) If he has served forty years in the ministry of the Church of England, of which at least ten have been spent in this Diocese.
(c) If he be 65 years of age, and has served not less than 10 years in this Diocese.

Now I claim under all these three heads.
"Such clergymen upon their complying with the terms of this canon, shall, if the state of the fund permit, receive an allowance of not less than $100 per annum, in consideration of every period of five years active service in this Diocese, not exceeding eight such periods, or forty years." Now I think that you can see pretty clearly that I can retire on an allowance of $80 per annum. Now where is it to come from?
The law provides for that too in my case and cases like mine. "Until this fund shall be able to pay all allowances in full, in the case of any clergyman who is in the enjoyment of a local endowment, a sum equal to one half of the income thereof, shall be deducted from the grant which would be otherwise coming to him from this fund." That is, instead of receiving $100 from the fund I would only receive $103, half the income of the endowment fund, would make up the balance, $103 plus $297 equal to $400. Now when you see and understand the nature of the case you will be better able to act with judgment for the best. If the bishop's consent could be obtained—and nothing can be done in the matter without it—it would be much to my advantage to retire, but in the present state of things I positively object to being the party to make the application. The time was in this Diocese, when a clergyman was used as long as he was useful, and then sent back to his friends, if he had any, to keep him in his old age, or otherwise he might take care of himself as best he could. This, I have reason to believe, was the intention with me when Mr. Dean was employed to take my place. Happily for me this state of things is now changed.

Now a few words with regard to the subject of my last letter,—the alienation of Church property and the consent of the congregations to the same. I find the following on page 228 of the Consolidated Canons, &c., 1886. "The said Bishop, by and with the consent of the Incorporated Synod of the Diocese, shall have power to sell, alien, and transfer any lands or personalty, which now are, or may hereafter be vested in, or conveyed to him for the general uses and purposes of the said See or of the said Church, and by and with the consent of the said Synod, and of the Rector or Incumbent of the Parish or Mission to which
