

Carpets and Oil-Cloths, No. 9 Keenan's Block, Kent Street, Lindsay.

Birchall has sold his autobiography for $1,700 to Mr. Bunting, of the Mail, and an American publisher, and it will appear simultaneously in Canada and the States. It will be eagerly read, no matter how uninteresting.

A book published in England last week had a remarkably rapid sale, namely, Gen. Booth's "In Darkest England," which was sold out three hours after it was issued. The elaborate scheme proposed therein is as remarkable as it is courageous, and, despite its somewhat utopian theories and conclusions, the general has received already several very handsome promises of aid toward the realization of the proposed objects.

We have assorted and piled by themselves both qualities to suit purchasers. Prices from $3 50 to $5 per M feet and upwards.

We have about two million feet that must be sold to make room for new stock.
