 story. Good old John Bunyan says, I think is the Pilgrim's Progress:
 "The bitter must come before the sweet,
 And the sweet will taste the sweeter."
 And again:
 "He that is down need fear no fall,
 He that is low no pride;
 And he that is humble ever shall
 Have God to be his guide."
 Scripture says: "He that humbleth himself shall be exalted; he that exalteth himself shall be abased." The dark clouds that lowered over me on my first arrival here are breaking; "sailors' breeches" are appearing in the rifts; what are left of the dark clouds have a silver lining; and in a few months I hope to show the residents of Fenelon Falls that I am not an absconding debtor nor yet an incurable dead beat.
 Yours truly,
 JAMES TEAGUE.

Canadian cheese stood in the front rank and received the highest awards at the annual show of the British Dairy Farmers' Association in London recently.

Charles Riewling, a clerk in the Bedford Bank, Brooklyn, stabbed himself eight times with a carving knife on Friday night. He had quarreled with his wife, who, with their three daughters, witnessed the stabbing. The man is dead.

The Shelburne Economist says:—"People who are in the habit of using those small potash lozenges for throat affections should be very careful, as they are explosive. Last Monday, at Melancthon Council meeting, Mr. Richard Sack, township treasurer, had the lining of his coat badly burned. Some matches had come in contact with the lozenges in such a way as to cause an explosion resembling the firing of a small quantity of powder. Of course the fire was speedily extinguished. The editor's brother, H. T. Slack, had a similar experience during his sojourn in Shelburne. Probably some mysterious house fires have had their origin in the same manner."

THE ROYAL CANADIAN INSURANCE COMPANY, vs. THE LONDON MUTUAL, FOR FARMERS.

The Royal Canadian offers the following advantages over the London Mutual:

1. If a building worth $1200 is insured for say $1000, the Royal Canadian is obliged to pay $1000, if a loss occurs. In such a case the London Mutual is obliged to pay only two thirds of the cash value, or $800.

2. If a horse worth $90 is killed in the fields by lightning, the Royal Canadian is obliged to pay $90. The London Mutual pays only $60.

3. For a cow worth $30 killed by lightning the Royal Canadian pays $30. The London Mutual pays only $20. For other animals the Royal Canadian pays the full value. The London Mutual pays not more than $5, no matter how valuable the animal may be.

4. In the Royal Canadian animals are insured against lightning while at pasture anywhere. In the London Mutual they are insured while pasturing on the premises of the insured only.

5. When articles are insured specifically, such as musical instruments, the Royal Canadian is obliged to pay the full amount insured up to the cash value of the article. The London Mutual pays only two-thirds of the cash value, no matter what the insurance may be.

6. When "ordinary contents" of out buildings are insured by the Royal Canadian ALL implements are included. In the London Mutual only one reaper and one mower are included, no matter how good others may be.

7. When the outbuildings are not joined to each other the Royal Canadian insures under one sum the "ordinary contents" of all building not cut off by a distance greater than 40 ft., the same as if the contents were all under one roof. The London Mutual requires a separate sum on the contents of each building, if the distance is more than 12 ft. This is a very important difference in many cases.

8. In the Royal Canadian it is a part of the contract that standard STEAM THRESHERS may be used without a special permit and without any restriction as to the distance from stacks or buildings, caretakers, pails of water, kind of fuel or direction of the wind. Many of the policy holders in the London Mutual were obliged to run their own risk while threshing last season, because it was found to be impossible to comply with the conditions of their permit. When a farmer pays for insurance he should secure a policy which will hold him safe when it is most required.

9. The Royal Canadian is obliged to pay its losses within sixty days and usually takes much less. The London Mutual need not pay for ninety days, and since it has become so hard up as to be obliged to borrow money largely, it usually takes about the full time allowed.

10. The Royal Canadian policy is subject to the statutory conditions only. It has none of the numerous variations against the policy-holder printed in red ink on the back of the London Mutual policy.

11. As to security, the inspector of insurance reports that the Royal Canadian has $202,758, the amount he estimates to be necessary to enable the company to carry out all its engagements with its policy holders. Besides this he reports that it has to the good the $400,000 capital paid in cash by the shareholders, and a net surplus of $117,607 making in all a total cash surplus of $517,607 to protect its policy-holders against unexpected contingencies. In addition to these cash items it has a subscribed capital of $100,000 not called up. Regarding the security of the London Mutual the inspector reports that the amount of unearned premium it should have on hand is $290,309. To make up this amount in cash a second call would have to be made on the premium notes for a large amount, leaving a surplus of only $74,218, even if there were no bad debts, and this surplus is made up wholly of the unpaid balance of premium notes already heavily assessed. The company reports the losses adjusted but unpaid at the close of the year at $6,387, but the Inspector of Insurance finds that the liability for unpaid losses at the end of the year was $20,286. The cash on hand to pay these losses only amounted to $13,911.

In view of the foregoing facts farmers will have no difficulty in deciding as to the company in which they should be insured.

 17-3m. Agent, Lindsay.
