

Carpets and Oil-Cloths, No. 9 Keenan's Block, Kent Street, Lindsay.

SILVERWARE.—Mr. Joseph heard received a few days ago a splendid lot of silverware to which he invites the attention of all who need any such articles for their own use or for New Year's presents. His stock is far larger than ever before, and the prices a great deal lower than in towns and cities.

THE CHURCH CONCERT.—The concert given in the Methodist church, Fenelon Falls, on Thursday evening by Prof. and Mrs. Church, of Lindsay, was well attended and gave great satisfaction to all present, many of whom say it was by far the best musical entertainment ever given in the village. The Professor is gifted with an exceptionally fine voice, and Mrs. Church has few equals as a violinist.

A NEW FIRM.—Messrs. Jas. Arnold and Thomas Graham have bought Mr. Henry Austin's grocery and boot and shoes business, of which they will take possession on the 1st of January. But they have not bought the crockery, and, in order to get rid of it, it is being run off at almost any prices offered. We wish the new firm every success. Mr. Austin will henceforth confine himself to butchering and cattle shipping.

LEG BROKEN.—Last Friday Wesley Anderson, a farmer who lives south-east of Cameron, was working at threshing on Mr. Samuel Campbell's farm, and, in stepping over the tumbling shaft, his trouser leg, or some part of it, caught in the shaft, which tore the trousers and a felt boot entirely off him, and broke both bones of his left leg close to the ankle joint. Dr. A. Wilson was immediately sent for and attended to the sufferer, who is doing well so far.

BIRTHS.

Code.—In the township of Fenelon, on Christmas Day, the wife of Mr. Thomas Code of a son.
