

The Druggists' Profit.
Busy Clerk—How can I serve you, madam?
Madame (producing half a dozen letters and some postage stamps.)—Just put some mullage on these and stick 'em on for me. I soaked them off some misdirected envelopes, because I had read so much about the bother it was for druggists to sell postage stamps. Don't say all women are thoughtless any more, will you now?

A Hint to Hunters.
Farmer—What are you prowling around here with a gun for? There is no game within twenty miles of here.
Nimrod—I know it. That's the very reason I'm hunting around here. I won't feel disappointed if I don't get a shot at anything.

Breaking the Record.
Mrs. Lushforth—"I am glad to see you home so early, but you seem to be full, as usual."
Mr. Jaggs Lushforth—"Zhoozhah? Jane, 'f your powers vobzervation was equal to your ek—ek—expienice you could plainly see I've passed all prevus records."

Put to the Test.
Travers—"I want to ask you a question. Suppose that five years from now I should be walking the street clothed literally in rags, wearing a battered old hat and shoes full of holes. Would you think enough of me then to take me by the hand, buy me a new outfit, give me a bath, put five dollars in my hand and send me away with your blessing?"
Dashaway—"Why, of course I would. How absurd."
Travers—"Then bring the scene a little nearer. Suppose that in four years from now you should meet me as I have described myself, with this exception—that I had on a good hat. Would you still do the square thing?"
Dashaway—"Why, certainly. What?"
Travers—"Make it still nearer. Call it three years and say I didn't need a bath. Throw off the blessing and make it two years."
Dashaway (facetiously)—"Make it a year, with a good pair of shoes, eh? Substitute a new suit and—(a great light dawning on him)—"O-h—"
Travers—"And, if you are a man of your word, let me have five dollars!"

Going to Stop it.
Landlord—"I want to notify you that I want the room you occupy."
Single Lodger—"Why, what's the matter?"
"In the first place, you have not paid your rent; and, secondly, you kiss my wife every time my back is turned. That's going to stop on the first of next month."—[Texas Siftings.]

A Serious Lack.
Young Mr. Forundred (in Squash Center)—Aw, my good man, do you evah have fox hunts heah?
Native—Nope.
What is the mattah? No foxes?
Plenty o' foxes.
No dogs?
Plenty o' dogs.
No horses?
Plenty o' horses.
Then—aw—what is the mattah?
No fools.

Of Remarkable Memories.
There was a Corsican boy who could rehearse 40,000 words, whether sense or nonsense, as they were dictated, and then repeat them in the reversed order without making a single mistake. A physician, about 80 years ago, could repeat the whole of "Paradise Lost," without making a mistake, although he had not read it for 20 years. Euler, the great mathematician, when he became blind, could repeat the whole of Virgil's "Aeneid" and could remember the first line and the last line of every page of the particular edition which he had been accustomed to read before he became blind.
One kind of retentive memory may be considered as the result of sheer work, a determination toward one particular achievement without reference either to cultivation or to memory on other subjects. This is frequently shown by persons in human life in regard to the Bible. An old beggarman at Stirling, known 50 years ago as "Blind Alick," afforded an instance of this. He knew the whole of the Bible by heart, inasmuch that if a sentence was read to him he could name the book, chapter and verse; or if the book, chapter and verse were named, he could give the exact words.
A gentleman, to test him, repeated a verse, purposely making one verbal inaccuracy. Alick hesitated, named the place where the passage was to be found, but at the same time pointed out the verbal error. The same gentleman asked him to repeat the nineteenth verse of the seventh chapter of the Book of Numbers. Alick almost instantly replied, "There is no such a verse. That chapter has only 89 verses." Gassendi has acquired by heart 6,000 Latin verses, and in order to give his memory exercise he was in the habit daily of reciting 600 verses from different languages.

An Old English Lyri.
A wet sheet and a flowing sea,
A wind that follows fast
And fills the white and rustling sail
And bends the gallant mast.
And bends the gallant mast, my boys,
While like the eagle free,
Away the good ship flies, and leaves
Old England on the lee.
O for a soft and gentle wind!
I heard a fair one cry:
But give to me the snoring breeze
And white waves heaving high;
And white waves heaving high, my lads,
The good ship tight and free—
The world of waters is our home,
And merry men are we.
There's tempest in yon horned moon,
And lightning in yon cloud;
But hark the music, mariners!
The wind is piping loud,
The lightning flashes free—
While the hollow oak our palace is,
Our heritage the sea.

Why his Wife is "Fidgety."
I have the best cook in the town,
Whose bread is delicious and white;
Her coffee is fragrant and brown,
Her pastry a perfect delight.
But she daily complains of the worry they bring—
She's my own darling wife, but a fidgety thing!
Your wife is worn out, and needs Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the only medicine guaranteed to cure debilitated women. How many overworked American ladies we see with lack-lustre eyes and haggard faces, growing old before their time, from those exhausting ailments that men know nothing of. They can be permanently cured by this remedy, as numberless grateful women will attest. Price refunded, if it fails to give satisfaction in every case. See guarantee printed on bottle-wrapper.
Saints are not made in a day, but sinners can be made in a moment.
A Love Song in M Flat.
"My modest, matchless Madeline!
Mark my melodious midriff means:
Much may my melting music mean—
My modulated monotonies."
This young man stayed out too late, serenading his lady love. He caught a cold, which developed into catarrh, but he cured it with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, a sovereign specific for chronic cases. "Cold in the Head," Catarrhal Headache. It corrects the tainted breath, stops the offensive discharges, heals the irritated throat and nose, leaving the head clear, and smell and taste unimpaired. It costs but 50 cents, and the proprietors offer in good faith $500 for a case they cannot cure.
The survival of the fittest is the doctrine that always wins in a dog fight.
Some Strange Misnomers.
Much of the Russia leather comes from Connecticut, Bordeaux wine from California, Italian marble from Kentucky, French lace from New York, and Spanish mackerel from the New Jersey coast. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery comes from Buffalo, N. Y., but there is nothing in its name to criticize for it is truly golden in value, as thousands gladly testify. Consumption is averted by its use, and it has wrought many positive cures. It corrects torpid liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, banishes dyspepsia and scrofula, renews the lease of life, and tones up the system as nothing else will do. What is more, it is guaranteed to do all this, or the price is refunded.
"I believe in taking things quietly," remarked the thief.
Fifty-one thousand dollars was given in prizes by the leading yacht clubs in England last season.

The person who can least spare it is often most willing to give others a piece of his mind.
Nasal Balm has cured cases of Catarrh when doctors failed. It is the greatest Catarrh Remedy of the age. If you are troubled with this disease give Nasal Balm a trial.
The Pleasure Ridge Distillery warehouse, at Louisville, fell on Monday, and 25,000 barrels of whisky were smashed. The adjacent grounds were completely flooded, and several workmen were injured, some of them probably fatally.
The easy quiet way in which T. A. SLOCUM'S OXYGENIZED EMULSION OF PURE COD LIVER OIL has won its way into public favor speaks volumes for its merits. At the office of the company, Toronto, Ont., can be seen scores of valuable testimonials while any druggist will tell you that for all pulmonary difficulties it stands unrivalled.
Modesty is a bright dish cover, which makes us fancy that there is something very nice beneath it.
Dr. Harvey's Southern Red Pine for Coughs and Colds is the most reliable medicine in use.
It is announced that the German Government intends establishing factories for the manufacture of the Koch consumption lymph.
At Clophill, near Luton, a boy named Stimson vomited a large brown lizard. He is believed to have swallowed it when quite small while drinking water at a well.
Easy to use, pleasant and agreeable, is the verdict of all who have tried Nasal Balm for Cold in the Head or Catarrh. A trial will convince you of its merits.
One thousand stand of arms are to be issued to each of the states of North and South Dakota, Wyoming, Nebraska and Montana.

The Universal Verdict.
Here is a sample from a large farmer, Marsden Smith, Brussels, Nov-8, 1890: "I enclose $63, second payment on Chopper. I certainly never paid for anything more cheerfully than I pay for this 20 inch Mill.
"It surpasses my expectation every way and is beyond the representations of your agents. It does seem to me it must require a wonderful stretch of conscience for these iron plate machine fellows to claim they have the best chopper on earth. Surely they never saw your Standard Mill running."
[Mr. Smith had an expensive plate mill previous to the Standard.]
