

Carpets and Oil-Cloths, No. 9 Keenan's Block, Kent Street, Lindsay.

Two Roumanian orderlies are suspected of having cut off a major's head in revenge for ill-treatment at his hands. Fears are entertained that the British ship Glenfinart, which sailed from Greenock August 2 for San Francisco, has foundered.

John Heslop, township clerk and treasurer, was shot by burglars at his home in Ancaster township early Tuesday morning. He died instantly.

A Dixon, Ill., despatch says: Mrs. Grace G. Ridley, of Amboy, awoke Friday after a sleep of nine months. She wandered about, but did not speak and could eat nothing.

William Hornman, a hermit and miser who lived in the utmost squalor and half starved himself, has been killed in the hut which he inhabited near Argentine, Kansas. He is supposed to have owned about $20,000 in cash, but no money can be found, and there are suspicions that he was murdered and robbed.
