Geo. MANNING, E. D. HAND,
Bailiff. Clerk.

Fenelon Falls, Feb'y 3rd, 1891.

The winter wheat crop in the south of Russia promises poorly, and there is a prospect of hard times for the small farmer.

The timber on our railroad amounted to 516,000,000 ties, or an average of 2,694 per mile of railroad, in use in this country in 1889; 310 ties per mile, or a total of 60,000,000, were annually required for renewals, and 13,000,000 for new construction.

"Rev." Abner Vernon, who has a mania for eloping, has been arrested at Phillippi, West Virginia. He has probably broken up more families than any other man in the State. His last elopement was with a Mrs. Echols, a poor miner's wife, who left a family behind, as did many others of his victims, whom he induced to take their husbands' little savings to elope with him.

An Indian hunter near Devil's Lake, in Saskatchewan, had a terrible fight for life with a bear. He was found by companions terribly mangled. Wolves are reported to be terribly ravenous this year on the southern part of Lake Winnipeg. Several mill men and Indians have had narrow escapes from death.
Two hunters who returned to Winnipeg the other day reported that they had been treed for two days by 16 wolves.

The Workman, published at Grand Rapids, Mich., has as its motto, "Wages to labor, Interest to capital; Ground rent to the Public Treasury," and it regularly prints as its platform the formula entitled "The Single Tax in a Nutshell," printed on the backs of the petition to Congress. It prints the matter sent out by the National Committee and prints much single tax matter beside. It is, moreover, a local paper, evidently depending for support on the local constituency it serves. Such papers afford gratifying evidence of the spread of single tax principles.

Thos. Clark, aged 16, who carries the mail from Oil City to Rongy Wyo, Colorado, has not been heard from for over a week. The route is over a terrible road. The snow in that section is five feet deep on the level, and the boy is supposed to have lost his way. His father, A. W. Clark, started to hunt for him on Friday, March 28th, in a driving snow-storm, and had not returned on the 30th. Search parties went out to look for them, and on Sunday a horse driven by the father was found dead between Ervay and Oil City. It is feared that father and son have both perished. The storm was the worst in the history of the country.

Riot in a Church.

DISGRACEFUL SCENES IN A PLACE OF WORSHIP.

PARIS, March 30.—There was a disgraceful riot in a church in the town of Pont-Audemer on Good Friday. The rector had organized a controversy between himself and his colleague, who assumed the roll of the devil's advocate, the latter's arguments to be refuted by the rector. This was to be followed by a procession of girls dressed in white and carrying lighted candles. A number of youths disturbed the ceremony by shouting and marking with chalk crosses on the backs of the girls. A snuffle ensued and the congregation ejected the disturbers. Afterwards the youths returned with reinforcements to the church, many of them with lighted cigars in their mouths. A tumult resulted, the worshippers being compelled to retire and stop the ceremony. The Mayor has issued a proclamation calling upon the inhabitants to defend the dignity of religion.

Opposed to the Marriage.

DEVONSHIRE SAYS HER GRACE IS TOO OLD FOR HARTINGTON.

LONDON, March 28.—What of society is left in England at this season of the year is stirred by the report of a serious difference between the Duke of Devonshire and his son and heir, the Marquis of Hartington. The Marquis, true to his life-long devotion, is resolved to marry the Duchess of Manchester, now a widow. To this the Duke is opposed on the ground that the lady is over sixty years of age and unlikely to have issue.
He wants to insure the descent of the title to the Dukedom in the direct line.
The Marquis of Hartington is immovable in his determination to marry the woman of his choice, regardless of consequence. Society takes deep interest in the dispute, the preponderance of sympathy being on the side of the Marquis.

Another Indian War.

REV. FATHER CRAFT PREDICTS A RE-NEWAL OF DISTURBANCES.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 30.—
Some time before the outbreak at Pine Ridge agency a letter was received here from Rev. Father Francis M. J. Craft, Indian missionary, predicting the disturbance. Yesterday another letter was received in this city by Mr. Eugene T. McAuliffe, from Father Craft, predicting another outbreak among the Indians at the agency unless the management of Indian troubles is at once transferred to the War Department.
He says causes of trouble will exist, and the whites are at the mercy of any rascal who finds it to his interest to annoy them. The only thing that hinders a speedy and permanent settlement of all difficulties by an immediate transfer of the Indians to the War Department is the desire of politicians to retain plunder. The American people should turn these politicians out of offices they have abused.

The Cattle Trade.

MONTREAL, March 30.—The operations of the syndicate, composed of Nelson Morris of Chicago, Mr. Goldsmith of New York and R. Bickerdike, which lately purchased the bulk of the distillery cattle in Canada, are being watched by the live stock trade in Montreal with interest and anxiety. It is believed that the object of the syndicate is to control the entire live stock export trade of Canada and squeeze the smaller exporters out. The immediate effect of the late purchases has been to raise the price of cattle in the country, and farmers are unwilling to sell their stock for export at figures which they would have accepted a month ago. Another object of the syndicate, it is said, is to control the price of steamer freights out of this port by threatening to ship the stock they have purchased via American ports if the rates here are not made satisfactory for them, but this is looked on as an empty threat, since they would have to be slaughtered on their arrival in English ports. But it is known that one of the members of the syndicate expects to see before long American cattle received in Great Britain on the same footing as Canadian cattle.

At Lake Benton, Minn., the heaviest snow of the year has fallen since Sunday.
