A MONTANA LETTER FROM A PETER-BOROUGH BOY—INTERESTING ADVICE TO UNSETTLED YOUNG MEN—CANADA BETTER THAN MONTANA—"THE MA-PLE LEAF FOREVER!"

(From the Peterborough Examiner.)

Mr. G. A. Howson some time ago went to the "wild and woolly west" in search of fortune, and in a letter to a friend he gives his impressions of the country called Montana. From a letter dated at Missoula, Montana, May 15th, which Mr. Howson sends to Mr. John Haggart, the Examiner is permitted to make the following extracts:

I promised you before leaving Peterborough that I would write you, and tell you what I thought of the prospects this country affords for a man who wishes to better his condition in life, and who contemplates a change. I have often thought of my promise to you, and have as often decided to write to-morrow, but upon reflection I concluded it were better to wait until I saw more of the country, and could form a better idea of its true merits or demerits. You will say it took a long time to reach a conclusion, but remember that it is a difficult thing to do; so hard for me to do that I am undecided yet.

Every old timer, every real estate agent, every land owner, and every newspaper, is a boomer, and according to them Montana is the hub of the universe, the great, the rich, the golden, in fact a place in which is found a panacea for all earthly woes—a veritable Paradise. But the unemployed who listlessly walk the streets from day to day (and they number thousands) vainly seeking work, who find their little pile fast diminishing, and who have not money enough to take them home, tell a different tale, and I often hear them cursing the men who induced them to come here.
I have concluded that if a man has some money and is in a position to go into some business that he understands, he can do better than in the east; for, although rents and freights are fearfully high, yet prices are not cut and profits are good. A shop like Dolan & Co's., and as well situated, would rent for $300 to $350 per month; but a suit of clothes such as sells for $12 to $14 there, will bring from $40 to $60 here.

I am also of opinion that a man who has no money, and who must labour for a living, can do better in Canada than he can here. It is true, wages are high, but everything else is high in proportion, and I doubt if a man saves any more here than he would in Canada, even if he gets employment, and thousands can't get it. Clerks and professional men are out in the cold here and should not come. There is really only three vocations here, viz., mining, railroading and shop-keeping, and the two latter industries are fully filled; and as to mining, it is at best uncertain, and men are roughly handled. To-night the Northern Pacific, with a special train, carried 800 negroes, picked up at St.
Louis and Virginia, over into Washington, a few miles west of where I am now, to take the place of some coal miners who had struck for better terms.
I saw the crowd, and a rum one it was.
I mention it to show that miners are not satisfied. I have seen a great deal of this country; I have been in nearly every city and every town in the State.
The scenery is romantic and grand; the air is light and pure. I believe it is a healthy place, and if a man once gets a footing, he may do well here if he minds himself. If he has any bad habits he should not come, or, at least, he must leave them behind. The saloon and gambling house are the curse of this land, and woe to the man that patronizes them. I am writing this letter in a pretty little town called Missoula, on the western boundary of Montana, about 175 miles from Helena. I have been here ten days. I like the little town; it has a population of about 5-000. It is about 120 miles west of the main divide, and is about 3,500 feet above sea level. Fruits, such as grow about Peterborough, flourish here. The water is good and the weather simply delightful. It is situated at the head of a beautiful valley, just where the Northern Pacific Railway emerges from the Hell Gate Canyon. At my elbow roses are blooming and flowers of all shades and colors abound, while off in the distance on every side I can see the snow-capped hills. It is a pretty picture, but the most endearing sight of all to me was a maple tree, the first I saw in this country. Trees will not grow in many of the towns here.

I have crossed the main divide of the Rocky Mountains ten times, gone thro' tunnels two miles long, passed through deep ravines and dark canyons, hemmed in by mountains of bare rock of fantastic shape, whose snow capped summits pierce the clouds, climbed over mountains 8,000 feet high, seen many a beautiful cascade as it leaped and tumbled, in its impetuous and headlong rush to sea, but I never saw anything that so thrilled me with delight, as did that little maple tree. I did not hug the tree for fear of attracting attention, but I took a seat near it, and inwardly, with all the affection of my soul, I sang "The Maple Leaf Forever."

As for myself, I am well in health, I do a good business, but I am not making as much as I would like to. Railway fare is 5c to 7c per mile. Hotel fare $3 00 per day. A cigar costs 15c or two for 25c. Beer and other drinks, 15c. for a thimblefull. It does not effec-me, however, as I never taste it, and if ever I live to get to Peterborough, I will show you one man who ran the gauntlet of the wild Northwest and never tasted liquor. I met James and Wm. Kemp here, nephews of Mr. E.
Kemp, foreman at Adam Hall's. They are fine young fellows and doing well.

My address is
G. H. Howson,
Room 6, Atlas Building, Helena, Montana.

It is proposed to colonize the Arabian shore of the Red Sea with exiled Russian Jews.

There are 5,000 prisoners in Russia awaiting suitable weather for transportation to Siberia. The prisoners will be voluntarily accompanied by their wives and families, numbering 10,000 persons.

The police at Odessa are fattening hugely by blackmail on wealthy Jews.
Prominent Jews think the time is not ripe to form a Jewish nation in Palestine, as wealthy Jews would not invest capital in such a hopeless enterprise.
