

Carpets and Oil-Cloths, No. 9 Keenan's Block, Kent Street, Lindsay.

May Have Been Made by Aztecs.

While workmen were excavating for new gates just above the Marselles, Ill., dam, eight miles east of Ottawa, Ill., a few days ago, they discovered a stone roadway. Some fifty feet of a well-made pavement of slabs was uncovered, each stone being some twelve feet long, from one to three feet wide, and over two inches in thickness, with a break here and there filled up with cobblestones, which are also laid in regular courses. The roadway, so far as uncovered, is almost perfect. It is of the uniform width of twelve feet, and is laid upon a foundation of gravel and broken sandstone. The depth at which it appears is from four to six feet. It is thought to have been built by Aztecs or Tezucnons, who were driven from this region by the Indians.

The Cheokee Council and the United States Commission have agreed upon the sale of the Cherokee strip of Indian territory for $9,000,000.

The ship canal from Paris to Rouen is to be about 114 miles in length and twenty-three feet in depth, and the estimated cost is $30,000,000.

The life of Mrs. Booth will be published in March. Gen. and Mrs. Booth's love letters, covering a period of three years, will form a goodly portion of the book.

A Michigan man writes a postal card every day to the President and Commissioner of Pensions reminding them that twelve years ago he applied for a pension and has not yet received it.

Oscar Wadel of Albert Lea, Minn., recently received a check for $5,000 and word that he had succeeded to a barony in Norway. Wadel went on a carouse and last night was found dead in a barn.

The smallest baby ever born in Plainfield came to Elias Southard's household, at No. 52 West Third street, on Dec. 21. It is a little girl and weighs just one pound and a half. Dr. Jenkins says it is a bright and healthy child.

Mr. James McCullough, of the well-known Hamilton jewelry firm of Davis and McCullough, poured coal oil into his furnace on Saturday morning to hasten the fire. The flames burst from the furnace door and Mr. McCullough was burned to death.

At Birmingham, Ala., Sadie Brown presented her betrothed, William Reese, with a revolver as a Christmas gift. The next day Miss Brown wanted to break the engagement, and a quarrel followed which ended in Reese shooting the girl with the Christmas present. The murderer escaped.

A famished peasant in the Tscheljabinsk district in Russia killed five men for the purpose of robbing them and buying food with the money obtained. He was arrested while hiding the bodies. He told the prosecutor he murdered the men while they were sleeping, and that he only got four roubles. The prisoner seemed to have been driven insane by excessive hunger and cold.

The danger of the coal oil lamp has again been shown in Toronto. On Saturday night Mrs. Eliza Baker, a widow 60 years of age, was burned to death owing to a lamp explosion, and on Monday Mrs. Christopher Armstrong, of 342 Jarvis street, succumbed to frightful injuries received from the upsetting of an oil lamp as she was about to retire on Thursday evening.

The ingenious novelist could not invent a queerer hiding place for a will than one reported from real life by the Maine Farmer. The will was tacked up on the partition of a woodshed, a piece of brown paper tacked over it, and there it remained for years, no one but the author surmising its identity. After the testator died, in clearing out the shed the brown paper was removed and the precious document found.

The famous Russian woman bandit who has for the past ten years been the terror of Servia has been captured in a cave on the Rumanian frontier, where she was nursing her sick lover. Young, handsome, and a perfect marksman, she went about in man's dress, with her belt full of weapons and her rifle slung on her saddle, at the head of a band of devoted Haiducks, with whom she committed her robberies. Her people warned her that she was in danger of capture, but she refused to abandon her lover, and only surrendered after she had killed two gendarmes.
