

Carpets and Oil-Cloths, No. 9 Keenan's Block, Kent Street, Lindsay.

and probably the words of a poet would better explain my meaning when he says: "Slander, that worst of poisons ever finds An easy entrance to ignoble minds." This is all I propose saying upon the subject, though I could give the public a toothsome morsel regarding the spite Mr. S. R. Robb has against me.

Yours truly,
A. Q. St. George,
Vancouver, Nov. 9th 1891.

Personals.

Miss Robson, of Lindsay, came on New Year's Day to visit her relatives at the Falls and remained until Monday.

Mr. D. G. Clark, came home from Cunningham on New Year's Day.

Mr. James Dickson returned last Saturday from his surveying expedition to Rainy River district, but he and we have been too busy ever since to exchange more than a few words.

Mr. W. E. Ellis left on Wednesday for Oshawa and may be away nearly a fortnight. Mr. Duncen, of Lindsay, has charge of his drug store during his absence.

Mr. Allan McKillen's two brothers and his brother-in-law, Mr. McWhinney, who have been visiting here for some time past, left yesterday morning for their homes in Michigan.

Powles' Corners.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

The annual school meeting was well attended this year. Mr. John Marshall was the retiring trustee, and Mr. Ed Worsley was elected to take his place for the ensuing term. Miss Jenny Mitchell has been engaged to teach the Junior department of the public school here.

The organization known as the Farmers' Alliance has a membership now of about 35, with good prospects for more.

Miss Lizzie Ryley, of Waubanshene is visiting her aunt, Mrs. James Powles. Mrs. John Glaspell, Mrs. W. B. Wiles and Mrs. Walter Hill, of Tiny, are visiting friends and relations here.

SLEIGHING.—The fall of snow that commenced on Wednesday has made good sleighing; but this (Thursday) afternoon the wind is from the southwest, and many fear the snow will all go again.

METHODIST CHURCH.—The Rev. Thomas Snowdon, of Bobcaygeon, will (D. V.) preach Missionary sermons in the Methodist church next Sunday at 10.30 a. m., and 7 p. m., and the Rev. Dr. Howi will address a mass meeting of the S. S. children at 3.30 p. m.

A COLORED CONCERT.—The Canadian Jubilee Singers gave a concert last Wednesday evening in Dickson's hall, which was well filled. Three or four of them have very fine voices, which are particularly effective in Negro melodies; but some of the audience have expressed the opinion that they were not doing their best, and others thought that the concert was rather shorter than it should have been.

For $10 Edward Owens, of New York, risked his life to save a pug dog from a burning house. He saved the dog, but was so burned that he had to go to the hospital.

BIRTHS.

Knox.—At Fenelon Falls on Friday, Dec. 25th, the wife of Mr. James Knox of a son.

Rutledge.—In Fenelon on Tuesday, January 5th, the wife of Mr. Alexander Rutledge of a daughter.

Fallowfield.—In Fenelon Falls on Thursday, January 7th, the wife of Mr. Samuel Fallowfield of a daughter.

MARRIED.

McCauley.—LITTLETON.—At the residence of the bride's mother, by the Rev. D. N. McCamus, on Wednesday, Dec'r 30th, 1891, Mr. S. Walter McCauley to Miss Jane Littleton, both of the township of Fenelon.
