

Tramps in Convention.

ATTLEBORO, Mass., March 19.—For the past three days this vicinity has been overrun with tramps, who are holding their fourteenth annual convention at Hebronville. As a consequence, the hen roosts in this vicinity suffer severely. One of the knights of the roads told a reporter that all the tramps who happen to be near here when the time for the annual convention comes around, meet at the temple and talk over their haps and mishaps since they last met. The section hands working along the old colony road, here complain that they have been held up by members of the fraternity, and forced to hand over tobacco and other things the tramps wanted. The camp is well guarded, and pickets remain on duty all night. The convention usually lasts a week.

Thomas Nugent, who went from Packenham to Dakota, was found dead on the 11th of March frozen stiff in his seat, with his horses frozen to death ahead of him.

Fred. Hengle, a German goldbeater employed by Pierce, Kursh & Co., 36th street and Market, Philadelphia, deliberately placed his head under a heavy trip hammer and let it descend, crushing out his brains. The hammer weighed 100 pounds, and had a drop of six feet. Hengle had to use considerable strength to move the pulley holding the hammer in position. He leaves a wife whom he married a year ago.

Mr. Lupton, of Virginia, states in a late number of Insect Life that he began spraying his orchard last spring with London purple to destroy the codling moth, but he only sprayed one-third of his orchard. From that third he obtained 1000 barrels of apples nearly free from worms, while the other two thirds yielded only 883 barrels of sound fruit. He thinks his loss by not spraying the whole orchard was at least $2,500.

To Farmers.

So many infamous lies have been told respecting the GIANT CULTIVATOR by the Wisner agents, that I give the names of those to whom I sold last year.

Mr. SAMUEL McGEER stated, March 17th, that he was satisfied it was the best cultivator on the market.

Mr. JOSEPH PEARNS states that if he had to pay double the price he would not be without it.

Mr. JAMES AKISTER says he considers it the best money invested on his farm.

Now, I think I have the confidence of the farmers. I will do exactly what I promise, and that is:—I will warrant the Giant Cultivator for two years. I will have it taken to any field, in any kind of soil, and if it does not give as good satisfaction as any other cultivator made, I will hold my peace for ever after. Just to make it interesting, come and see me for prices. I have a W. ner, bought last year, that I will sell for $15.

JOSEPH HEARD.
