The British Elections.

In the elections in the old country on Monday last Mr. Gladstone gained 8 seats; the contest on Tuesday resulted in no advantage to either side, but on Wednesday the Liberals made further gains. At an open air meeting on Monday Mr. Gladstone said that his anticipations of a Liberal victory were as confident as they had been on the eve of the elections in 1880, and he hoped that their realization would be as equally complete as then.

Hon. Edward Blake and his son arrived on the Parisian at Moville on Monday morning, and an immense crowd was waiting to receive him. He was escorted to a hotel by a number of prominent home rulers and Catholic priests, and soon afterwards left for South Longford, the constituency he will represent in Parliament. He was in the best of health and spirits, and on Wednesday addressed a great meeting of Justin McCarthy's supporters at Londonderry.

Klu Klux in Canada.

The Globe says:—

"Mr. John Robinson of Lindsay, the petitioner against the return of Mr. Sam Hughes, M.P. for North Victoria, received the following letter, dated at Lindsay, March 25, and signed Klu Klux:—'I have been credibly informed that you are the miserable creature that has entered the protest against our good and noble, and also loyal, Sam Hughes, who has fought and bled for our country's sake. Now, you miserable fellow, take warning that the first dark night that you are caught out of your den you will be treated to a coat of tar and feathers. I am very sorry to think that in this nineteenth century we have a man in our midst who is so low that he will sell himself for one dollar and a quarter, when there was not a man in the whole north riding mean enough to do it. Vengeance is mine. Look out for us.' Sam should order out the forces against Robinson."

Not a few think that the above was written by Sam Hughes himself; but, if they are right, he has so worded it as to make it appear to be the production of some more illiterate person. Whoever the author may be, it shows the desperate measures he, at any rate, is willing to resort to, to keep the country under Tory rule. Thanks to the measures that were resorted to, and to the fact that a mistake was made in serving the notice of protest, Sam will retain his seat, and—as we heard a villager say yesterday—"he is a fitting representative of the men who elected him."

Wedding Bells.

We clip the following from the Port Hope Guide of the 29th ult.:—

There was a very pretty wedding at St. John the Evangelist Episcopal Church yesterday afternoon, the contracting parties to which were Mr. Carl S. Smith, M. A., Class '90, Toronto University, son of Mr. J. D. Smith, Wildwood, Hope, and Miss Julia M. Hagerman, daughter of Mr. T. R. Hagerman, Hillside, Port Hope.

Precisely at 5 o'clock the wedding party arrived. The bride, who looked lovely, supported on the arm of her father, and the bridesmaid, her sister, Miss Beth Hagerman, advanced up the aisle of the church, to where the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. Vernon S. Smith, and the Rev. Edwin Daniel, the officiating clergyman, were awaiting them; the choir singing the hymn, "The voice that breathed o'er Eden."

The immediate relatives of the bride and groom, after the ceremony, adjourned to the residence of the bride's parents, where a bountiful dejeuner was served. The presents were numerous, useful and valuable, amongst others a cheque of $1,000 from the bride's uncle, Mr. J. J. Hagerman, of Denver, Colorado.

The happy couple left by the 8 o'clock train for Toronto, where they spend a few days preparatory to going to their distant home in New Brunswick, where Mr. Smith will fill a responsible position in the Rothesay Collegiate School, and where he will be ordained next September and be licensed as curate to the "Stone Church," city of St. John's.

We and a host of friends and well-wishers trust that they may have a long and happy wedded life.

Foot-ball.

On the afternoon of Friday, July 1st, the Fenelon Falls foot-ball team drove out to Glenarm to attend the Presbyterian church picnic, and played a match against the Glenarm team which resulted in a victory for Fenelon Falls by 3 goals to 0—one goal scored by T. Edwards and two by W. T. Junkin. After partaking of a capital tea, the boys drove over to Zion, where the Methodists were having a picnic, and played Zion a match. They were again victorious, the score being 1 goal, by R. Delury, to 0. After the match they were entertained at tea by the Zion team, and returned home about 9 o'clock, well satisfied with the courteous treatment they had received at both Glenarm and Zion, as well as with their double victory. The following was the Fenelon Falls team in both matches:—Aza Northey, F. Washburn, A. Switheram, J. Armstrong, T. Graham, A. McCallum, E. Fyson, R. Delury, D. Twomey, Thos. Edwards and W. T. Junkin, captain.

The Zion and Balsam Grove teams met at Mr. Imrie's barn raising on the evening of Tuesday, the 5th inst., and, after a stubbornly contested game, each side scored one goal, the result therefore being a draw. They met again at Mr. Worsley's raising on Saturday evening, when another hot game may be expected, as both sides are determined to win.

ACCIDENT.—On Friday last Mr. Henry Pearce's fifth son, Ernest, aged about 9 years, fell from a fence at the rear of his father's premises on Colborne street, and broke both bones of his right arm a little above the wrist. He was at once taken over to Dr. Wilson's office, where the fractures were reduced, as the technical phrase is, and immediately afterwards he was walking around with his arm in a sling.

Personals.

Mrs. Alex. McArthur of Lindsay has been at the Falls since Wednesday.

Miss Kate McInnis, of Cleveland, Ohio, is at the Falls visiting her sister, Mrs. J. R. Graham.

Miss Mary Cullon, who has been teaching school at Maple Lake, came home last Friday for the midsummer holidays.

Mrs. Thomas Marrs, of Toronto, and Mrs. James Kennedy, of Reaboro', daughters of Mr. John McArthur, are at the Falls.

Mr. Edward Morancey, formerly of this village and now of Peterboro', came to the Falls yesterday and will remain until to-morrow.

Miss Anderson, second teacher in the Fenelon Falls school, left for Whitby on Friday last, and Mr. McDougall, head teacher, left on Tuesday for Woodville.

Mrs. S. Swanton and family have been at the Falls since the 29th ult., and Mr. Swanton joined them on Wednesday last. They will probably remain about a fortnight longer.

Mr. John Thomson and Mr. John Meeks left on Monday for Hastings to build a saw and shingle mill for Mr. Wm. Fowlds, on the site of the one recently destroyed by fire. They will be absent at least ten weeks.

Mr. Thomas Scott got home on Wednesday from Bay City, Michigan, after an absence of about six weeks. He says he has been in several places in the States since he left, and the crops everywhere were perfectly astonishing.

THE CANADIAN POST.—This old and well known paper has changed hands, having been purchased by Geo. H. and Wilson, of Port Hope and Toronto, who took possession on the 1st of July. The price paid was $8,000, spot cash, which is about what we thought it would fetch. The Post, as a county paper has no superiors, and few, if any, equals, and the new owners, who are experienced journalists, will no doubt keep it in the front rank.

THE RAILWAY BRIDGE.—Almost everybody knows that the sum of $10,000 was included in the Dominion estimates for the railway bridge at Fenelon Falls; but we are unable to answer the question, often asked, whether a swing is to be put where the present bridge stands or a solid bridge built below the falls, nor can we obtain any reliable information as to when the work is to be commenced, though it will probably be before long.

THE 12TH OF JULY.—Next Tuesday will be the "Glorious Twelfth," and if the weather keeps as fine as it is just now (Thursday afternoon) there will be a big day in Fenelon Falls, as thirty lodges of Orangemen, etc., are expected to take part in the celebration. The arches across the main street will be well under way by the time the Gazette makes its appearance, and a lot of refreshment booths will no doubt be erected between now and Monday night.

THE WEATHER.—After a steady rain from morning until evening on Sunday, a splendid rainbow just before sunset gave promise of the fine weather we have had ever since, although there have two or three times been indications of more rain, which happily did not fall. We beg to respectfully inform the Clerk of the Weather that he is now giving us just what we want, and that it will do very well for the next two or three weeks, by which time the roots and after-grass will perhaps begin to feel rather thirsty.

A "RUCTION."—The partnership between Mr. Wm. Davis and Mr. Wm. Jackett as butchers in this village was not of long duration, and although it was, as far as we have heard, dissolved peaceably enough, the subsequent proceedings were of a rather violent and exciting nature. About 8:30 on the evening of Thursday of last week Mr. Jackett went to Mr. Davis's to get a waggon tongue that he claimed was his. Mr. Davis disputed the claim, and after some— we may perhaps more correctly say a good many—words of a very uncomplimentary nature had passed between them, Mr. Davis took off his coat and made a rush at Mr. Jackett, who promptly picked up a stone and threw it at his late partner. To save his head, Mr. Davis threw up his left arm, which was struck by the stone and both bones cracked longitudinally. Mr. Davis is now going around with his arm in a sling, and Mr. Jackett, who was arrested on a warrant soon after the affair, is
