Victoria Boys in Vancouver.

From the Vancouver World of the 14th inst, we take with much pleasure the following :- "The lawyers of Vancouver recently formed a law association, the special duty of which will be to advance the general interests of the profession, to cultivate its ethics and to seek to secure the establisment of a law library. John Campbell was elected president and D. G. Marshall secretary.' Mr. Campbell is well known to many of our readers, being a Mariposa boy, and for some time previous to going west a member of the law firm of Barron, Mc-Laughlin, & Campbell. Mr. Campbell's library is said to be worth $4,000 ....... In the same paper also appears the item following-" Police Magistrate Jordan's salary was increased to $150 a month." The reference is to Mr. A. G. Jordan, formerly of Fenelon Falls. It is gratito see our Victoria boys so well succeeding in the far west .- Warder.

A tornado at Bethlehem, Pa., on Sunday caused a loss of $150,000.

About 350 bears were killed in Maine during the year ending in May, and some of the hunters have made a good living by the sale of the skins and the bounty of $5 paid by the State for each

The horse Gladiator was beaten at Windsor on Friday, and two men who had backed him and lost all their money went into the stable after the race and beat the poor brute unmercifully. The men are to be prosecuted for cruelty.

A return card sent from London to Hong Kong, via Vancouver, on the 19th of March, reached its destination on April 28th, and within three hours was on its way to London on a P. and O. steamer, arriving in London on May 30th, or around the world in 70 days.

Herr Werth, of The Freisinnige Zeitung, has been sentenced to three months' imprisonment for les majeste in having declared that Emperor William shot two stags on the Schorfhaide preserve in the close season, although he afterwards withdrew the statement and admitted that he had made a mistake.

The Agricultural Department has been experimenting with the inoculation of swine as a preventative of cholera. The results show that inoculation is unsife, causing the spread of the disease instead of preventing it. In Nebraska the losses from inoculation were 10 per cent., while the losses among uninoculated animals was only 4 per cent.

A resident of Huntingdon, Pa., advertised recently that he could prove that in spiritualism is a remedy for all pain. He proposes to place himself under the surgeon's knife and allow himself to be cut open, his heart removed. his lungs cut in halves, and other dismemberments made to prove that he is Here is an obituary notice from the Port Huron Times: The Patrons of Industry, of Grant township (Michigan, we presume,) held their last meeting on Saturday night. They voted to abandon the cause, and appointed a committee to divide up the money and property of the order between the 20 members in good standing at that date. A short time ago this lodge numbered over 200 members. The question was asked, " Has the order benefited the members financially or morally?" And the answer was, "No." So they voted to let it pass into history as a thing of the past.

The balloon ascension from the Boston Common on July 4th, one of the features in the celebration of that day, prepared by the city government, had a sad ending. On of the aeronauts acci- 8-t.f. dentally tore a hole in the side of the billoon while it was at a great height, and it immediately began to fall at a frightful speed. As a result Prof. August Rogers of Malden is dead, Thomas Fenton, his assitsant, is dying, and the third occupant of the balloon, Delos E. Goldsmith, a representative of the city Press Association, is suffering from the shock and the inhalation of gas. An immense crowd on the common witnessed the tragic event.
