Americans Must not Shoot Deer.

THE PROVINCIAL SECRETARY WILL NOT ISSUE PERMITS TO THEM.

TORONTO, Oct. 25.—Every season the northern lakes and woods are overrun with American sportsmen, a large percentage of whom kill large quantities of Canadian game and fish and pay nothing whatever for the privilege. This season no permits will be granted for deer shooting to residents of the United States. The Provincial Secretary has wisely decided not to grant any, owing to the fact that the demands for permits have this year been beyond all reasonable numbers. It is probable that a great many Americans will go shooting without permits, however, and save the $25, which is the price of a permit.

VIOLATING THE FISH LAW.

Enquiry at the Crown Lands Department yesterday showed that for the Nepegon waters, which are very popular indeed with American fishermen, $355 has been received for fishing permits. As the privilege in the e waters costs $5 this sum represents 71 fishermen—at a generous estimate 25 per cent. of the foreigners who fished in these waters.

In other parts of Ontario, Muskoka, Lakefield and Victoria County the privilege costs $1, and the officials of the Crown Lands Department admit that very few of the hundreds of Americans who every year fish in Ontario pay for permits. At Lakefield 17 permits were granted, at Garden River 4, and at Peterboro about 20. It is a pity that so much of Canada's game should be robbed by such a pirate nation, and the greater precautions which have this year been adopted in Muskoka under instructions of the Provincial Secretary are to be commended.

AFTER THE CLUBS.

Sportsmen claim that the local clubs in supplying their guests with quail and other birds prohibited by the game laws from being exposed for sale are guilty of a contravention of the act, and a test case will be brought before the magistrate.

Awful Calamity.

TWO HUNDRED VILLAGERS DROWNED
BY THE FLOOD IN ITALY.

CAGLIARI, Oct. 22.—A most appalling calamity has befallen the village of San Seperate, situated a short distance from this city. It is estimated that not less than 200 of the villagers have been drowned. The flood swept through the village with sudden fury, and in a moment the streets became rivers that carried everything before them. Houses were lifted from their foundations and carried down by the floods. Their occupants did not have an opportunity to attempt to save themselves. Many were asleep when the torrent carried off their houses, and were awakened to find themselves struggling in the water. Men, women and children were drowned, and not a single effort could be made to save them, so sudden was the disaster. Half the houses in the village were swept away. The place is isolated by the flood, and access to it is very difficult.

A rich strike in the Lingham gold mine, Belmont township, Hastings county, is reported.

Neill the Poisoner.

THE DOOMED MAN SAID TO HAVE CON-
FESSED TO THE MURDERING OF THREE GIRLS.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—The News of the World declares that it is in a position to state that Neill, the doomed woman poisoner, in an interview in jail confessed that he poisoned Matilda Clover, Emma Shrivell and Alice Marsh, but declared that he had not poisoned Ellen Doworth, and said that up the last moment he had a feeling that he would be acquitted. Since he was sentenced Neill has been as impassive and as cool as before. When he was taken to Wandsworth jail on Friday night he said: "Thank heaven it is all over. The judge was dead against me, but perhaps that was his duty." On Saturday Neill asked to be allowed before the day set for his execution to see Laura Sabbatini, to whom he was engaged to be married.

Must Protect Themselves.

IMPERIAL TROOPS WILL BE WITHDRAWN
FROM THE COLONIES.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Considerable surprise was caused in political circles, and especially in colonial circles, Saturday, by a report that Mr. Gladstone proposed to withdraw British troops entirely from the North American colonies and require that Canadians and Newfoundlanders maintain their own means of defence. It is known that the question has been seriously discussed among members of the Cabinet, and that Mr. Gladstone is decidedly favorable to throwing the colonists in all parts of the world as much as possible on their own resources. He has no idea of abandoning territories that are directly under Imperial jurisdiction, but believes in training the self governing colonies to be able to rely upon their own resources, both military and naval.

It is not improbable that before another twelve months have elapsed the Canadians will be called upon to occupy the forts now garrisoned by Imperial troops; and that the Cape Government will also be required to undertake similar responsibility. It is said that Mr. Gladstone has expressed the opinion that if the colonists should learn something by experience as to the cost of military strength and display, they will be less likely to involve themselves and the Empire in costly and unprofitable wars.

Canny Andy Carnegie.

Like our own Redpaths and Stephens, who are spending in England the plunder they gathered in Canada, Andrew Carnegie, the Pittsburg iron monopolist thinks free trade the best policy for Great Britain, but wants McKinleyism continued in the United States. The Redpaths, Stephens and Carnegies want free trade for the country in which they spend their money—they want to buy at the lowest rates possible, but they think it is just and proper that the farmers and other working classes in Canada and the United States should be plundered for their benefit. Mr. Carnegie's argument is simply that it would be grossly wrong to rob the working classes of England for the profit of greedy monopolists, but that such robbery is quite just in the United States. Andrew is too canny, however, to live in the country where such a system exists. He supports a policy which forces the farmers of the United States to sell their products at free trade prices, controlled by the value of such products in the British market—but for himself he lives in England and buys at free trade prices while exacting monopoly prices for his Pittsburg iron goods. Great is the patriotism of the tariff-fed manufacturer. —Ottawa Free Press.

The Anti Popery Association held a meeting in London to protest against the election of Mr. Stuart Knill, a Roman Catholic, as lord mayor. The meeting broke up in disorder.

The last official action necessary to give vitality to the new commercial treaty between the Spanish Government and the United States has been taken, and the treaty is now ready to go into operation.

A blind man with a hand organ has lately been parading the streets of Alexandria, Ind., with a placard on his breast which read: "I am blind and the father of eight children by a horrible accident."
