

Carpets and Oil-Cloths, No. 9 Keenan's Block, Kent Street, Lindsay.

RECOVERING.—Constable Nevison, who was shot in the leg on Sunday, the 11th inst., by a lunatic whom he afterwards arrested, is steadily recovering, though hardly as rapidly as could be wished, and Dr. Graham, who is attending him, hopes to be able to announce in a very few days that he is entirely out of danger.

CAPT. SWEENEY, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cents. Sold by W. T. Junkin.

CHRIS. BRANDON.—Parties in town who witnessed the shooting of Constable Nevison by Chris. Brandon on Sunday, the 11th inst., have been subpoenaed to attend next Tuesday the opening of the court at which the trial will take place. As the young man is undoubtedly out of his mind and will go to an asylum for the insane, it would be useless to press the minor charge of damaging property, and the proceedings against him for smashing windows have very properly been dropped.

Daniel Ritz, proprietor and publisher of the Hamburg, Ont., Independent, says: "I was suffering from dyspepsia and liver trouble. I took a few bottles of Shiloh's Vitalizer and it cured me. I can heartily recommend it."

Newspapers.

(Belfast, Maine, Age.)

Printing offices are not run for the fun of the thing. They are business enterprises, pure and simple. An exchange well says that it is just as logical to ask a newspaper man to donate a certain amount of money to a private enterprise as to give the use of his type without even an acknowledgement. How many there are who forget this fact when they have a concert, lecture or other entertainment that may come in the list—just when they want from fifty cents to $5 worth of gratuitous advertising. Everybody knows, who has had any business experience, that the newspaper is the medium that is in touch with the people. At a concert recently given in Portland, the question was asked from the stage how many had read the announcement from the newspapers, and the per cent. was large in comparison to those who had read it from posters, hand-bills, etc. P. T. Barnum once said, "If you have ten dollars to spend, pay one for the article and the other nine in advertising." The old man knew a thing or two when it came to advertising. He further said, "I can out-talk anybody on earth but a printer. The man who can stick type and talk next morning to thousands of people while I'm talking to one is the only man I'm afraid of. I want him for my friend." Barnum knew how to use printers' ink, and more, he knew how to pay for it.

Theosophy and Death.

NEW YORK, March 17th.—The first Theosophical funeral held in this city since the funeral of Baron De Palm and the Hindoo satty fifteen years ago took place in the residence of Dr. H. V. Barclay, on 116th street, over the body of Miss Mary Olsen, a Swedish Theosophist, 28 years of age, who died in Chicago a few days ago. Charles F. Wright, a Theosophist, of London, officiated. Mr. Wright said that death was an experience all present had gone through many times before, it being inevitable that all things in nature should change form. When the soul abandoned the body, he said, it proceeded to heaven, not to a material heaven, but to a spiritual state of consciousness. In this state the soul lived an idealized life, absorbing the experiences of its last earth life. The stay in heaven in the average case was about 1,500 years, after which the individual was born again on earth to live another life. Death, he said, was less sorrowful to the soul than birth into this "vale of sorrow."

Pierced by a Pencil.

The Toronto Empire of Tuesday says: "Yesterday afternoon Robert Thomas, the 14-year-old son of Mr. W. J. Thomas, president of the Ontario Brewing and Malting Company, met with a very painful accident that will nigh cost him his life. The lad, with a number of other boys, joined in a game of football on the Model school grounds. While lustily pursuing the sphere he stumbled and fell forward, striking his forehead upon a lead pencil protruding from the vest pocket of a fellow-player. The pencil pierced his scalp for two and a half inches and broke off close to the skin. The boy fainted, and was at once conveyed to the office of Dr. Elliott, who, after several hours' labor, succeeded in extracting the pencil. The lad had a narrow escape from death, for had the pencil entered the brain, as it might easily have done, the result would, of course, have been fatal. As it is he is doing nicely."

Louis Kossuth, the Hungarian exile, died on Tuesday.

Navigation opened on Saturday at Owen Sound and also at Goderich.

Henry George, the noted advocate of single tax, lectured in Detroit on Saturday night on "The Hard Times."

A tariff war is threatened between Russia and Austria, owing to the latter's refusal to reduce the duty on wheat.

Six or more persons were killed, about 50 wounded, and much property destroyed by a cyclone in Texas on Saturday night.

The Westminster Gazette says Mr. Gladstone will occasionally make his appearance in the House of Commons, and will retain his old seat at the Treasury benches.

The power of the Great Falls of the Potomac is to be utilized by an electric company which will operate in Washington and a number of towns and villages in that district.

South Brant prohibitionists, at a convention held in Brantford on Saturday, pledged themselves to support Hon. A. S. Hardy, the candidate of the Mowat Government in that riding.

A terrific wind and electric storm passed over Arkansas, Tennessee, Texas, Iowa, Georgia and other States on Sunday night, destroying a great deal of property and killing a number of people.

At Winnipeg on Friday the jury in the case of Chamberlain, the alleged perjurer, failed to agree. A new trial was at once demanded, and another jury having been empanelled, is now proceeding. There is general astonishment at the action of the first jury.

Lord Rosebery made a speech at Edinburgh on Saturday, in the course of which he said the Commons could no longer be thwarted by the action of a non-elective body of legislators. He also made an emphatic statement that the Government's home rule policy remained exactly as it was under Gladstone.

News has been received from Australia of a new strike of gold, the richest in twenty years, near Ballarat, in Victoria. The find was made by two prospectors, named White and Jackson, who have pegged out their claim. The adjoining country has been taken up by other parties. Four thousand dollars were taken out the day after the strike was made.

A wedding took place in Beattyville, Ky., on Monday, which ended in a double tragedy. Rhoda May was the bride, Grant Cecil, the groom, became insanely jealous because Joseph Doneral, a former suitor of the girl, was among the guests. Cecil met Doneral, who was accompanied by John Burns, a youth of 19, and began firing a revolver. Doneral and Burns were killed, but it is claimed the shooting of Burns was accidental. A by-stander was also wounded. Cecil fled, leaving his bride, and has not been arrested. The young wife is prostrated.
