

Carpets and Oil-Cloths, No. 9 Keenan's Block, Kent Street, Lindsay.

PLATE GLASS.—The sheets of plate glass broken in some of our store fronts by Chris. Brandon on the 11th ult. have been replaced by new ones, which arrived a few days ago. The pieces of the one that was insured are at the disposal of the insurance company, but the others are the property of the owners of the stores, and Mr. Nevison has a diamond with which he can cut them to fit any window or other frame not too big for them.

SPRING BARGAINS.

We have secured a large quantity of Boots and Shoes at a sacrifice. No matter how we got them—you can have them at less than wholesale prices.

Ghastly Tragedy.

A MAN OUT OF WORK MURDERS HIS FAMILY AND THEN SUICIDES.

DOLGEVILLE, N. Y., March 31.—Fritz Kloetzler murdered his wife and four children at his home here last night and then committed suicide. He was formerly employed in the felt shoe shop of Alfred Dolge & Son. He was one of the leaders of a band of 20 socialists here. For several weeks he had been out of work, and his family had been supported by the town for the past few days. He had been selling off the furniture piece by piece until only a few chairs and a little bedding remained. Kloetzler had apparently been contemplating the tragedy for several days.

On the second floor, in one of the back bedrooms, on a few blankets, with their heads against the wall, were found the bodies of the entire family of six. First in the row of bodies was that of Mrs. Kloetzler. Her throat had been cut. The second was that of the daughter, Frieda, 12 years of age. There was a ghastly gash across her throat. Kloetzler's body was next. It had a big gash in the throat and a knife wound in the heart. Next came the body of five-year-old Elsie. There were no marks on her body. She and another child had been poisoned. The last body was that of the three year old son, Bruno, whose head was nearly severed from the trunk. The bodies were cold when found, and the probabilities are that the tragedy was committed soon after Overseer of the Poor Ransom left the house. Kloetzler's head lay on the body of his daughter Elsie. There are indications that the crime was arranged between the husband and wife. There was no evidence of a struggle.

Returned.

The Bobcaygeon Independent says:—"Mr. Stanley Davey and family have returned from Dakota and the west. He was away three years, and has had all he requires of the golden west. Those interesting individuals who state that you don't feel the cold in the Northwest are to some extent correct, only they invariably neglect to mention that it gets in its work all the same. No man feels a bullet going through him, but it makes him feel terribly when it has gone through. If a man were sure of two crops out of three life in the west would be possible. For a man without capital loss of all he produces leaves him in circumstances that are at least pinched, puckered and unpleasant. A total loss two years in succession, and a man has no use for any chance of a possibility of a crop the next year. His desire is to have himself decently planted. Mr. Davey takes the Beehive Farm on Sturgeon Lake, a good farm and one of the prettiest places in the district."

The Bay of Quinte is clear of ice. This is the earliest opening of navigation on the bay in 30 years.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the Village Council and People of Fenelon Falls:

I hereby beg to return my sincere thanks for the liberal grant made by the Council to me, and for the subscription taken up on my behalf, and to express my very high appreciation of the very handsome way in which the people of Fenelon Falls have dealt by me.

S. NEVISON,
Village Constable.
Fenelon Falls, April 5th, 1894.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the Fenelon Falls Gazette.

Sir—
For the benefit of certain parties who seem to pay more attention to my business than they do their own and for the purpose of informing the public, I wish to make an unqualified denial of the statement going the rounds that I tried to influence Mr. John Thom on to hold the wages of working men at a certain rate per day. I have never had any conversation with Mr. Thomson on the question of wages since he came to the Falls. Any one but an idiot would know that it is to my interest, as well as every other business man's, to have the working men get as high wages as possible. Hoping these gossips, madders and backbiters will in future adhere more closely to the truth, and thanking you for the space in your paper, I remain yours truly

JOHN H. BRANDON.
Fenelon Falls, April 4th, 1894.

I certify that the statements made by Mr. Brandon in the above letter are absolutely true.

JOHN THOMSON.
