A Swell Prisoner

WHO HAS RUN TO THE END OF HIS TETHER TEMPORARILY AT VICTORIA, B. C.

VICTORIA, B. C., April 15.—Victoria city jail has at present as a guest a stylish young Englishman registered under the name of Percy Whittall and who is charged with uttering worthless cheques in settlement of sundry wine bills. He pleads ignorance of business requirements and intoxication as the only excuse, and feels his position keenly. Barrister George Powell, who is retained as his solicitor, announces that the young man has an income of £40,000, and since his incarceration he has, by the death of his father, come into the peerage and vast estates, James Whittall (his father) having been a millionaire brewer of Dumfries, who was elevated by Mr. Gladstone after long service in the House of Commons. The son was mixed up in the Danlo-Belle Bilton scandal a few years ago and has since been travelling at a very fast pace—so fast that the family could stand it no longer, and when he was drunk, it is alleged, shipped him from Liverpool to the Pacific coast on the sailing barque Astoria, in order that his escape might blow over. On arrival at San Francisco he collected $3,000 there to his credit, spent it in a fortnight, and came here, where he proceeded to repeat his "celebration" on credit, and by giving cheques on local banks where he had no account. Had he not been intoxicated he certainly would not have done so, for Bell, Irving & Paterson, his agents at Vancouver, say they have instructions to pay all bills certified by him, though not to advance money.

A Rich Find.

PARIS POLICE DISCOVER A GREAT DEPOSIT OF EXPLOSIVES.

PARIS, April 14.—At Aubervilliers, in the Department of the Seine, five miles from the city, yesterday, the police discovered a quantity of explosives buried six feet under ground. The place where the explosives were hidden was at the junction of the roads leading to St. Ains and Lacourneuve, and it was marked in so peculiar a manner as to attract the attention of the police. The explosive material was contained in a dozen tin boxes, and consisted of sulphuric and picric acids, chlorate of potash, carbonate of soda, two kilogrammes of coarse powder, 10 kilogrammes of dynamite and a number of dynamite cartridges. Together with these was a quantity of scrap steel, nails, bullets, etc., and a reversible bomb, filled and charged. The latter was taken to the municipal laboratory with great care, while the other explosives were conveyed thither in a cart. An unusual number of loiterers have recently been seen in the vicinity of the place where the explosives were found.

Shot Dead While She Sang.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Peter Duane, 12 years old, living at Ridgefield Park, shot and killed Belle Shields, aged 14. The girl, with several others, was at the home of young Duane's father, and the party were gathered around the piano singing hymns. Young Duane went into the hall and brought back a heavy breech-loading gun, which he pointed in fun at the group. The gun accidentally went off and Belle Shields dropped dead on the floor. The shot had nearly torn off the top of her head. The boy, frightened at the result of his carelessness, rushed out of the house to the home of a brother, who took him to the Sheriff's house and gave him in charge. The girls had been singing "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and the unfortunate girl was just singing the line, "Let me to thy bosom fly," when the fatal shot was fired.

Pugilist Dixon is very fond of Charles Dickens's novels and thinks Dickens was a genius.

Over in the Panhandle of Texas there is one pasture that covers 3,000,000 acres. It is a wonderful tract for cattle pasturing.

Wm. Taylor, a farmer from near Glenmorris, blew out the gas in a room at the Market Hotel, Galt, and was found dead on Saturday morning.

Fishery Inspector Kerr of Hamilton, made a raid on a lot of Buffalo fishermen between Fort Erie and Point Abino on Saturday, confiscating two or three miles of nets. The Buffalo people were fishing in Canadian waters.
