Robbed Him.

STRANGE ADVENTURE OF MAJOR JOHN HUGHES OF NEWTONVILLE.

PETERBOROUGH, Aug. 25.—Major John Hughes, of Newtonville, Durham County, brother of Major Sam Hughes, M. P., Lindsay, and of Public School Inspector James L. Hughes, Toronto, had a thrilling experience in a boat on Rice Lake combined with a day and a half in a cabin.

Mr. Hughes, along with Mr. W. A. Reid, M. P. P., West Durham, and three others are camping on Lisgar Island, Rice Lake. On Thursday afternoon Mr. Hughes went to Bewdley, a little village about five miles from the island, on business, and left there to return home about nine o'clock. When about two miles and a half away a party of three men in a boat accosted him. It was proposed to Mr. Hughes that he take one of the men in the boat to help him row, as they were going down by the island. The major assented and had no sooner done so than he was struck on the head with a paddle and stunned. He was then tied hand and foot and a gold watch and $43 taken from him. He was taken to a log cabin on the shore and left where no person could see him or hear him call. All day yesterday he was confined in the dirty place, and late in the evening a man who is believed to be one of the robbing party came and took the cords off his feet but left those on his arms. He then drove Mr. Hughes some distance and left him alongside of the road.

Mr. Hughes awoke this morning and commenced to search for a farm house, and at last found one. He told his story and was given $2 by the farmer, and came to Peterborough from Keene, which was two miles from the place he was left at, and about 15 miles from the island. He is badly bruised and feels the worse of his experience. He has no idea of whom the captors were.

An Explosion in a Mine.

THIRTY-SEVEN MEN INSTANTLY KILLED IN A COAL MINE.

TACOMA, W. T., Aug. 25.—Thirty-seven miners were killed yesterday afternoon by an explosion in the Oregon Improvement Company's coal mine at Franklin, King county, thirty-four miles south-east of Seattle. The miners were trying to save the mines from destruction by fire when the explosion occurred. Those who rushed to the gangway when the fire was discovered escaped. Several of those caught were not instantly killed, and a desperate attempt was at once made by their comrades to rescue them from the flames. The entire mining community of Franklin aided to flood slope 62, in which the bodies of the miners lay.

Franklin is a coal mining town on the west slope of the Cascade mountains, and the usual heart-rending scenes were enacted about the entrance of the mine when a list of the killed and missing miners was made out. This is the mining district into which the colored miners were brought two years ago, resulting in a running fight with the strikers and several deaths. Negro and Swede miners predominate among those killed. Most of them had families. When the bodies of the dead miners were reached many were found to be in line, as if simultaneously overcome by stifling smoke. Some had been smothered and were not cut or even bruised. All were dead before assistance reached them.

Cattle Riot in Russia.

PEASANTS GROW DESPERATE AND RESORT TO MUSKETS, SCYTHES AND PITCH-FORKS.

WARSAW, Aug. 27.—Count Krzyzke-wicz, whose estates are near Krottingen, in the Government of Wilna, has been on bad terms with his tenants for several months. Several tenants refused to pay rent. On Saturday the count seized 30 head of their cattle as security. The peasants were intensely excited by the appearance of the count's officers, and let the cattle go only after having been driven with clubs from the sheds. Early yesterday morning 100 of them, armed with old muskets, scythes and pitchforks, marched on the count's castle. They demanded the cattle back. Some 20 servants and foremen ordered them to leave the neighborhood. In the fight which followed, four of the count's employees and six or seven of the peasants were killed, and many wounded.
