Crops in England.

WHEAT AT 18 SHILLINGS A QUARTER AND A YIELD OF 31 BUSHELS PER ACRE.

LONDON, SEPT. 2.—Wheat at 18 shillings a quarter is perhaps the most important fact of the week. The English farmer is now face to face with both a moderate harvest and the lowest prices ever known. The harvest is only moderate indeed, when compared with his prospects of last month. Down to that time the weather had been good. It has since broken, and while the yield remains large, the quality will be inferior. The wheat estimate is 31 bushels per acre, as against an average of 29.23 bushels for the last ten years. Barley is reckoned at 34 bushels, and oats at 42. Grass crops are still 50 per cent. above the average; but for the last three weeks large crops have been lying out which could not be carried on account of almost continuous wet weather. The best prices for wheat are quite four shillings per quarter less than last year. If these low prices be maintained, the condition of the British farmer will be, says a high authority, "deplorable." Twenty years ago wheat profits of highly cultivated farms in England were from $50 to $90 per acre. This year's crop is hardly expected to yield a profit exceeding $30. The conclusion of the expert I am quoting is: "Wheat to the pigs, and agriculture to the dogs."

Soldiers Got Mad.

THEY WRECKED A NEWSPAPER OFFICE AND THE EDITOR'S HOUSE.

ATHENS, Sept. 2.—Much excitement has been occasioned here by a unumvir act of vengeance against a newspaper published in this city. For some time past The Akropolis has been publishing a series of articles derogatory to the army. The articles excited much indignation in the army and the matter was heatedly discussed. Finally it was decided to put a stop to further adverse criticism on the part of The Akropolis. One hundred and thirty officers and men of all arms, proceeded to the office of the paper yesterday and wrecked the place. Nearly all the attacking party were armed with axes, with which the press and type and type cases were destroyed. The library was then attacked, the books therein being torn to pieces and everything of value hacked to bits. The debris was thrown into the street. Inflamed with their success at the office, it was proposed to attack the residence of the editor. The proposal was immediately acted upon, the soldiers marching in a body to their objective point. Arrived at this, the mob burst in the doors and destroyed all the household effects. Twenty of the soldiers have been arrested. The outrage is everywhere denounced.

Samuel Wilson, the Globe Walker.

MONTREAL, Sept. 1.—A short, undersized young man called on Mr. T. G. Shaughnessy, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific, yesterday afternoon, on a rather peculiar mission. His name is Samuel Wilson, and he is the youth who started out ten weeks ago from the Allan's office in Liverpool with the avowed intention of walking around the globe. What he wanted from the Vice-President was a permit to walk on the Canadian Pacific track from here to Vancouver, expecting to reach that point about the end of November. He came up from Quebec yesterday, walking all the way, having crossed over in the steamship Parisian. His boots have soles an inch and a half in thickness, and he expects they will last him until he winds up in Liverpool again. He says he is always glad to strike a newspaper town, being always sure of a hospitable reception. He will recommence his walk this morning.

Sixty Canadian pilgrims attended mass in Rome on Sunday, the Pope acting as celebrant.

The town of McKinley, Minn., has been destroyed by fire, and it is said 200 people have perished.

It is said that Boston capitalists are developing a new and rich oil field at Gaspe Basin, 200 miles north of Montreal.

A despatch from Little Rock, Ark., says the largest and most dangerous gang of counterfeiters ever organized in that country has been broken up by United States secret service detectives.
