Hopeful Signs.

The latest bulletin issued by the Ontario Bureau of Industries shows that the yield of fall wheat per acre is greater by over two bushels this year than it was last, and that in spring there is an improvement to the extent of over four bushels. But, although the yield per acre is so much greater for '94 than it was in '93, the aggregate for the whole Province shows a falling off to the extent of half a million bushels in spring and three-quarters of a million in fall wheat. This is one feature of the case as regards the farmers. Another is found in the fact that the product of cheese is increasing by over 20,000,000 lbs. a year, the number of creameries is multiplying at an equally satisfactory rate and the amount of fruit exported from the Province was greater by one and a quarter million dollars in '93 than it was in '92. These are all most hopeful signs. They show that the cultivation of non-paying wheat is being abandoned for the production of commodities in which there is profit.—Toronto News.

After Canadian Pine.

A LUMBER MERCHANT OF VENEZUELA AT-OTTAWA TO SECURE OUR TIMBER.

OTTAWA, Sept. 10.—Johan Reuter, a Spanish lumber merchant of Venezuela, is at the Russell house. He is in Ottawa for the purpose of establishing a trade in Canadian pine logs between here and Venezuela. Mr. Reuter says that New York has been his market for logs for many years, but as a result of his trip to Canada, he has discovered that he can do much better by shipping from Montreal or Quebec, and at the same time get a better class of logs. His contract with the New York firm expires in December. After that date he will make Ottawa his purchasing point for Canadian pine. His yearly shipment will be 1,500,000 feet, or three or four vessel loads each year, each vessel carrying between 300,000 and 400,000 feet of logs. Montreal or Quebec will be the shipping ports. Before coming to Ottawa, Mr. Reuter visited the Michigan lumber district, but he thinks the Michigan pine is not half as good in quality as that floated down the Ottawa. Mr. Reuter states that Canadian pine is very much in demand in Venezuela, and is now being more used for building purposes than any other timber imported into South America.

Shot at French River.

A PROVINCIAL DETECTIVE KILLS A FRENCHMAN IN A BARROOM DISTURBANCE—AN INQUEST ORDERED.

PARRY SOUND, Sept. 10.—Particulars were received here to-day of a shooting affair at French River, in which Wm. Pereaute, a Frenchman from Penetang, lost his life.

A few months ago some of the Pereaute brothers, who live at French River, were arrested by Provincial Detective Duncan McRae and fined. On account of this they have since borne the detective a grudge, and on Friday evening last the four Pereaute brothers, with some other supporters, went into French River, it is said, with the intention of picking a quarrel with McRae. They first went to Phillip's Hotel, where a couple of them began quarrelling, and the officer ordered them away.

They then proceeded to Charlebois' Hotel, where there was trouble, and the detective was sent for.

McRae, after swearing in three special constables, proceeded there. He arrested one of the gang, and had him by the throat with his left hand, when all the others attacked him, and Wm. Pereaute grasped him by the throat, when McRae, with the intention of frightening them, drew his revolver with his right hand. William Pereaute was hammering him on the head, and aimed a blow at the revolver, when McRae, by the involuntary clutching of the weapon, discharged it, striking Pereaute over the left eye, killing him instantly.

The other brothers then ran away with the alleged intention of finding a crowd of supporters to lynch the officer, but hearing of this, the respectable people of French River were determined to protect him, and armed themselves, but the Frenchmen did not return. It is the general opinion of those present that, even if the officer had shot intentionally, it was perfectly justifiable.

Word was sent to Parry Sound for Coroner Capt. MacFarlane, but, as he was away from home, an inquest cannot be held till his return.
