A Great Storm.

SHIPPING SUFFERED IMMENSE DAMAGE—BRITISH CHANNEL STEAMERS AND FRENCH WAR SHIPS IN DISTRESS—HEAVY LOSS.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—The gale along the English Channel last night was the most violent experienced this year. The channel steamers report having had fearful passages. The Victoria was unable to make Dover, and returned to Calais. The steamer La Flandre was badly damaged, and many of her sailors were disabled. The barkentine Elizabeth Jane, loaded with grain, was found derelict, and towed to Dover. Nothing has been heard of her crew. The warships anchored at St. Malo, France, were in serious danger, and put out to sea flying distress signals. Cherbourg and many ports are crowded with damaged craft. The steamer Preussen was torn from her moorings at Hamburg, and damaged many other vessels, with which she collided, although she sustained no damage herself. The storm was very violent in Paris. Much damage was done to chimneys, roofs and windows. Three persons were killed by falling chimneys and several more were injured. The velocity of the wind, as recorded on the Eiffel tower, was 82 miles an hour. Deaths and injuries due to the storm are reported from Nantes, Rouen, and other towns in France. Telegraph and telephone lines were blown down in France, Belgium and Germany. The loss of property and live stock by the floods in Devon, Cornwall, Dorset, Somerset and elsewhere in England is enormous. This evening the wind blew with increased violence in the west and south of the United Kingdom.

The hurricane which has prevailed along the coast of the North Sea has done a great deal of damage, and considerable loss of life is reported. The telegraph wires throughout Germany have suffered greatly from the storm, and in many sections they are wholly prostrated.

Anaconda Has Won.

Anaconda has won. Someone will ask who is Anaconda, and what has he won? Anaconda, gentle reader, was the rival of Helena in the fight to be capital city of Montana, and the electors decided in favor of its superior claims. What were these claims? Why, Anaconda set them forth thus before the contest:

	Anaconda.	Helena.
Men who wear overalls.....	0	3,220
Men who wear silk hats.....	2,625	3
Men who wear silk nightshirts.....	2,910	4
Men who do not wear night-shirts at all.....	186	3,016
Men who wear kid gloves.....	4,550	4
Men who carry dinner buckets.....	2	4,028
Champagne, daily consumption (quarts).....	1,245	2
Beer, daily consumption (quarts).....	4,088	8,854
Ladies who nurse their own babies.....	124	2,876
Ladies who do their own work and washing.....	8	2,980
Ladies who own pug dogs.....	2,285
Average number of children per family.....	4	54
Four-in-hand turnouts.....	112
Men who have dress suits.....	8,658	16

Pug dogs and dress clothes appear to have been fatal to Helena's chances.—Empire.

Burglars in Peterborough.

PETERBOROUGH, Nov. 13.—Last night thieves effected an entrance into the residence of Mr. Sheriff Hull, and, taking from the sleeping-rooms the clothing of the male occupants, took them to the woodshed, when they were rifled, and a gold watch and $13 belonging to a son were stolen. One pair of trousers, belonging to another son, containing a large sum of money, were fortunately unseen by the burglars. No trace of the way in which the house was entered was discovered. There are numerous petty burglaries in town, and the tramp element is numerous and bold.

A lion is at large near Washington court house, Ohio, and the people are in a state of fright. The beast is supposed to have escaped from a circus. At the town of Birtle, Manitoba, the other night, William Bole and Thomas Webster, two well known young farmers, attended a dance. They quarrelled over a girl and a vicious fight ensued. Bole was terribly beaten and died next day, never recovering consciousness. Webster is in jail.
