A Victory in London.

Sir Oliver Mowat's majority was elected in London on Tuesday last.
Since the general election his opponents have persistently maintained that the number of Conservatives, Patrons and P. P. A.'s combined exactly balanced the number of straight Liberals, and that consequently Sir Oliver hadn't a majority of even one, but they can't say so any longer. The contest—a bye-election—was necessitated by the retirement from politics of Mr. Meredith, and Mr. Thomas S. Hobbs, the Liberal candidate, beat Mr. Esary, the Conservative, who is mayor of the city, by the splendid majority of 800. The result is not surprising, as Liberal principles are spreading everywhere, and at the general election in June last Mr.
Meredith's majority over Mr. Hobbs was only 137. Possibly one of the reasons why the late leader of the Opposition accepted a judgeship was that he foresaw defeat in his own riding if he went to the polls again. It is a great satisfaction to know that Sir Oliver has at last got a majority, even if it consist entirely of Mr. Hobbs.

How to Prevent Strikes.

The conclusion of an article in last Tuesday's Globe on the result of the commission to enquire into the Pullman employees' strike is as follows:

"The committee suggests the consideration by the States of the adoption of some system of conciliation and arbitration, like that, for instance, in Massachusetts, giving the Board of Arbitration more power to investigate strikes, whether requested to do so or not. The commission urges employers to recognize labor organizations; that such organizations be dealt with through representatives with special reference to conciliation and arbitration when difficulties are threatened or arise. The commission is satisfied that if employers everywhere endeavor to act in concert with labor, that if when wages can be raised under economic conditions they be raised voluntarily, and that if, when there are reductions, reasons be given for the reductions, much friction can be averted. It is also satisfied that if employers will consider employees to be as thoroughly essential to industrial success as capital, and thus take labor into consultation at proper times, much of the severity of strikes can be tempered and their number reduced."

The voluntary raising of wages by employers when they can fairly afford to do it, would, we fancy, soon put an end to strikes. The vast majority of workers have a fair share of common sense and right feeling, and nearly every conflict between Capital and Labour arises from the self-determination of the former to monopolize all the benefits of seasons of prosperity, and force the latter to bear all the loss consequent upon hard times.

Three Accidents.

On the 15th inst. one of Mr. Charles Wise's little twin sons, about eight years old, accidentally struck his brother on the inside of his left leg, between the foot and ankle, with a sharp axe, inflicting a gash about three inches long, and so deep that Dr. Graham had to put three or four stitches into the edges of the wound to draw them together before applying sticking plaster and ban-daging the limb.

On Saturday last Mr. Frank Bell, who was employed on Howry & Sons' alligator north of Minden, met with a very serious and painful accident, which will lay him up for a considerable time.
The alligator—which, as the great majority of our readers know, is a steam tug that can travel an either land or water—was being taken over a portage; and, while it was slowly crawling along, Mr. Bell stooped under the steel cable to pass to the other side. Unfortunately, as he was in the act of doing so, some person attracted his attention by speaking to him, and he unthinkingly raised his left hand, which was caught between the cable and the iron roller over which it passes, with the result that the thumb was literally smashed and the first and third fingers were badly crushed, while the second finger, strange to say, was but slightly injured. Mr. Bell went to Minden as soon as possible, and stayed long enough to have his hand dressed a couple of times by Dr. Curry, after which he came on to his home at the Falls, where he is attended to by Dr.
Graham, who has hopes that the fingers will not be very seriously affected by the accident, and that even the thumb will in time grow together sufficiently to be of considerable use.

On Wednesday forenoon Mr. Joseph Chabot, while splitting wood at Mr. C.
W. Moore's, by some means struck the front of his right boot with the edge of his axe, which cut through into his in-step, inflicting a painful but not very serious wound.

ing and skating rink was held in Jor-

Personals.

Mrs. Charles A. Graham, of Toronto, daughter of Mr. Wm. Golden, is visiting her relatives at the Falls.

Mr. Wm. Robinson, of the Bobeaygon Independent staff, was at the Falls last Saturday, on his way home from a few days' deer hunting out north, and called in to get acquainted with the Gazette.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robertson of Peterborough were at the Falls from Wednesday afternoon until this morning.

Miss Milly McCallum, who is teaching school at Kinmount, spent Thanksgiving day at home at the Falls.

Mr. Robert Rogers, the Evangelist who has been helping Rev. Mr. McCall in special services for nearly a month past, left this morning for his home at Pickering.

Mr. F. A. McDiarmid left for Toronto on Friday of last week and returned to the Falls on Wednesday.
While in the city he submitted to the operation of being "called to the bar," which, after the preliminaries are over, doesn't take much longer than having a tooth pulled, but is productive of much more agreeable sensations.

Mr. Thomas Beall of Lindsay was at the Falls from Monday until Wednesday, and was the guest of Mr. Thomas Robson, of Francis street west.

DON'T MISS IT.—Jim Fax, the popular humorist and vocalist, will appear in Dickson's hall on Monday next, the 26th inst., under the auspices of the Oddfellows. Admission, 25 and 15c.
A first class entertainment may be expected.

SALE OF FARM STOCK, ETC.—On Wednesday, Dec. 5th, Mr. J. J. Power will sell by auction on Mr. Thomas Howie's premises, lot 9 concession 2 in Somerville, a large quantity of farm stock and implements, for list of which and terms see posters.

THIRTY DAYS' SALE.—Mrs. R. Mc-Dougall's thirty days' cash sale, which commenced on Oct. 27th, is in full blast. All the goods in her store will be offered at prices that will astonish purchasers. Ladies who have a little money to spare should secure some of the bargains that will be offered.

WAVES.—Until two or three days ago a cold wave was passing over the States and Canada, and now we have a warm one. This (Friday) morning is quite mild, rain is falling, all the snow has disappeared, and the opening of the skating rink, which was expected to take place in a very few days, has been postponed sine die.

BANKRUPT STOCK.—Clark & Son having bought (and paid for) R. Taggart's bankrupt stock of cloths at a great reduction from the original price, they are prepared to make up ordered clothing proportionately cheap while the stock lasts. The cloths are of the latest styles and best quality, and were all purchased within the last few months.

SHILOH'S CURE is sold on a guarantee.
It cures incipient consumption. It is the best cough cure. Only one cent a dose; 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 per bottle. Sold by W. T. Junkin.

LIKE A TRAIN.—Noticing, last Tuesday morning, what looked from a distance something like a railroad train standing opposite Sandford's carriage factory, we went over to investigate, and found that it consisted of an engine, a water tank, a threshing machine and a clover mill, all the property of Mr. W.
H. Stevenson of Fenelon, and all on their way to Mr. John Avery's on the opposite side of the same township.
There were three teams and as many men, and Mr. Jesse Christian appeared to be officiating as conductor of the outfit.

Daniel Ritz, proprietor and publisher of the Hamburg, Ont., Independent, says: "I was suffering from dyspepsia and liver trouble. I took a few bottles of Shiloh's Vitalizer and it cured me. I can heartily recommend it."

TIME TABLE CHANGES.—On Monday last a change was made in the time table of the Victoria branch of the G. T. R., and the regular train now leaves Fen-elon Falls for the south at 8.30 a. m. and for the north at 3.20 p. m. The change has been made in order to allow residents along the line to reach Lindsay in time to connect with the morning train for Toronto. Letters mailed here for the south must be in the post-office by 8.10 a. m., and for the north by 2.40 of the latest; and, until further notice, no money orders will be issued or savings bank deposits be received after 7 p. m.

PECULIAR.—Mr. Robt. Welsh brought a horse into the village on Monday last to have advice about him, as he could eat nothing for upwards of a week. The animal was taken to Dr. Mason, who on examination found a piece of wood lodged across the back of the roof of the mouth, at the palate. The obstruction was removed, and the animal took his food again as usual. The wood was probably taken while the horse was eating hay, and looks like a piece of pine, though many of those who have examined it say that it has not the smell of pine.

The Peterborough Examiner says:— Messrs. Bert Brown, Jack Mervin, Jay Gould and Alex. Patterson were out, yesterday afternoon, accompanied by five hounds. They succeeded in securing five rabbits and three black squirrels. Strange to say, each of the squirrels had a white head. They evidently must have been of the same family as the one in possession of Mr. Matthew Jamieson, of the "Little Windsor." The only difference is that "Mat's" is mottled and the other one's are white-capped.
