

Astor in England.

The latest move in Mr. William Waldorf Astor's Trans-Atlantic career, the purchase of the Duke of Westminster's superb seat on the Thames "Cliveden," has been scalded across and the impression that the wealthy New Yorker is working for Parliament or perhaps an English title, is strengthened. Mr. Astor once ran for Congress in New York but in spite of the fact that he actually drove about the constituency scattering money to the poor people, he was defeated. He was the American Minister to Rome for a season and dabbled in literature while there, but his efforts failed to woo that fickle spectre Fame and are forgotten. Then he became a Londoner. He has a house in Carlton House terrace, where Mr. Gladstone lives, which overlooks St. James's park and which is said to have cost $1,000,000 for its decoration within; he has purchased the Pan Mail Gazette, and made it a Tory paper; he has lavished thousands on entertainments of all kinds, until now he counts many prominent people among his connections, even the Prince of Wales. He is said to have chartered a steamship, in which he will bring a party of his friends, dukes, earls, &c., across the Atlantic on an excursion, to house them for a while in his palatial Waldorf hotel, proceed with them in special trains to Chicago, visit the Fair and return again to Merry England; and now he has bought "Cliveden." What he will do next is not limited at, but doubtless he will make a bid for Windsor Castle at least. Mr. Astor has lived at "Cliveden" all winter, and has now paid $1,250,000 in cash for its position. Certainly no one who has seen this glorious place will think he has paid too much. It is situated 25 miles from London just below Cockham and above Maidenhead on the Thames. The banks rise here and are covered with luxuriant foliage, while Cliveden Manor, in the Italian style and after designs by Inigo Jones, commands a magnificent view of the river and is itself a point of interest for many miles. Hundreds of Londoners boat about there every Sunday, and take tea on the grass in front of the two or three quaint little half-timbered cottages which adorn the shore. I shall never forget the many happy moments which I have spent in that lovely spot, and can only hope that the new owner of Cliveden will be as gracious to the public as was the noble Duke until recently the lord of the soil.

Canadian Order of Foresters.

The Canadian Order of Foresters is a fraternal benevolent society, incorporated in 1879 and registered under the insurance corporation act, 1892, of Ontario. The objects of the society are to furnish its members with sick and funeral benefits and an insurance of one or two thousand dollars. The payment of these benefits range from about one dollar to one dollar and fifty cents per month, according to the age of the member, and the amount of insurance carried. The membership is composed of men only, and when admitted they must be between the ages of eighteen and forty-five. The present number of members is over 16,000, and the society has a cash surplus on hand for the payment of the insurance of over $215,000, $50,000 of which is in Dominion of Canada bonds, and the balance is invested in the best monetary institutions of the Province. In addition to these courts have about half a million of dollars in their treasuries for the payment of the sick and funeral benefits. The high secretary of the Order is Mr. Thomas White of Brantford, and it is expected that a court of this popular and purely Canadian society will shortly be organized here.—49-3m.

Voices For Fosterty.

The pope is represented as being introduced to the phonograph a few days since and as being strongly impressed by the thought that by this instrument his voice would be preserved to be heard again ages after he is dead. This is a great thought, although everybody is familiar with it. We live in a world so full of wonders that we are hardly conscious that they are wonderful. The voice of Pope Leo XIII has been made as lasting as the earth itself; it will be heard to the end of time. So it will be with the voice of Gladstone and many of the great men of our time, and in future ages the voices of commanding men and of wise women and of wonderful orators and surpassing thinkers and great singers will all be preserved to still coming time, just as the statues and portraits of such have been kept from past days to ours. A century from now the ear attuned to melody will listen to some living child of song and then turn away to compare her notes with those of Patti or some other singer who has warbled to the present generation.—Kansas City Star.

NERVOUS DISEASES.

As a cure for every class of Nervous Diseases, no remedy has been able to compare with the Nervine Tonic, which is very pleasant and harmless in all its effects upon the youngest child or the oldest and most delicate individual. Nine tenths of all the ailments to which the human family is heir are dependent on nervous exhaustion and impaired digestion. When there is an insufficient supply of nerve food in the blood, a general state of debility of the brain, spinal marrow, and nerves is the result. Starved nerves, like starved muscles, become strong when the right kind of food is supplied; and a thousand weaknesses and ailments disappear as the nerves recover. As the nervous system must supply all the power by which the vital forces of the body are carried on, it is the first to suffer for want of perfect nutrition. Ordinary food does not contain a sufficient quantity of the kind of nutriment necessary to repair the wear our present mode of living and labor imposes upon the nerves. For this reason it becomes necessary that a nerve food be supplied. This South American Nervine has been found by analysis to contain the essential elements out of which nerve tissue is formed. This accounts for its universal adaptability to the cure of all forms of nervous derangement.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, IND., AUG. 20, '88.
To the Great South American Medicine Co.:
DEAR GENTS:—I desire to say to you that I have suffered for many years with a very serious disease of the stomach and nerves. I tried every medicine I could hear of, but nothing done me any appreciable good until I was advised to try your Great South American Nervine Tonic and Stomach and Liver Cure, and since using several bottles of it I must say that I am surprised at its wonderful powers to cure the stomach and general nervous system. If everyone knew the value of this remedy as I do you would not be able to supply the demand.
J. A. HARDEE, Ex-Treas. Montgomery Co.

REBECCA WILKINSON, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I had been in a distressed condition for three years from Nervousness, Weakness of the Stomach, Dyspepsia, and indigestion, until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly, with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which done me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely remedy, a few bottles of it has cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world."

INDIGESTION AND DYSPEPSIA.

The Great South American Nervine Tonic Which we now offer you, is the only absolutely unfailing remedy ever discovered for the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and the vast train of symptoms and horrors which are the result of disease and debility of the human stomach. No person can afford to pass by this jewel of incalculable value who is affected by disease of the stomach, because the experience and testimony of many go to prove that this is the one and only one great cure in the world for this universal destroyer. There is no case of unmalignant disease of the stomach which can resist the wonderful curative powers of the South American Nervine Tonic.

HARRIET E. HALL, of Waynetown, Ind., says: "I owe my life to the Great South American Nervine. I had been in bed for five months from the effects of an exhausted stomach, Indigestion, Nervous Prostration, and a general shattered condition of my whole system. Had given up all hopes of getting well. Had tried three doctors, with no relief. The first bottle of the Nervine Tonic improved me so much that I was able to walk about, and a few bottles cured me entirely. I believe it is the best medicine in the world. I can not recommend it too highly."

No remedy compares with SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE as a cure for the Nerves. No remedy compares with South American Nervine as a wonderful cure for the Stomach. No remedy will cure Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It never fails to cure Cholera or St. Vitus' Dance. Its powers to build up the whole system are wonderful in the extreme. It cures the old, the young, and the middle aged. It is a great friend to the aged and infirm. Do not neglect to use this precious boon if you do, you may neglect the only remedy which will restore you to health. South American Nervine is perfectly safe, and very pleasant to the taste. Delicate ladies, do not fail to use the great cure, because it will put the bloom of freshness and beauty upon your lips and in your cheeks, and quickly drive away your disabilities and weaknesses.
