Official returns just issued at St. Petersburg show a marked increase in the ravages of cholera in the parts of the Russian empire where the disease is epidemic.

Madden says that in the British West Indies two cent rices ago pins, slices of bread, pinches of snuff, drams of whiskey, soap, coconuts, eggs and other common articles were all used as money.

Tired of life, W. H. Irving, of Charles street, Winthrop Beach, Mass., committed suicide early on Saturday morning on the lake shore, near the foot of Diver-sey street. The method used was horrible and most revolting. A partly filled can of powder by his side and the torn and mangled face indicated that the suicide had filed his mouth with powder and then, probably with a lighted match, had caused it to explode.

The Luckey Murder.

SMITH'S FALLS, ONT., July 31.— Charles Luckey, who was found not guilty of the murder of his father at Newbliss, near Smith's Falls, last spring, will be again tried at the Fall Assizes for the murder of his mother and sister, who were murdered at the same time.
 Detective Greer is still at work on the case, interest in which has been revived in the neighborhood of the scene of the awful occurrence by the statements of a man who now comes forward and says he saw a young-looking man actually murder the girl. His story is that on the day the Luckey family was cremated he was on his way to Irish Creek to take the train for the States. He took a short cut across the Luckey farm and passed close by the house. When just beside it he says he saw a young-looking man in pursuit of a girl, who was running away screaming at the top of her voice. A short distance from the house, he says, the man overtook her, struck her down with a steel yard and dragged her back into the house. After seeing this, he says he continued on his way, went to Jasper, took the train for a point in the States and said nothing about it to anyone until his return a few days ago. Detective Greer will investigate this latest report.

Taxes on Necessities.

The Toronto News (Conservative) says:—
 "The cotton taxes are the cause of universal complaint and with good reason. A housewife cannot buy a thing into the manufacture of which cotton enters without first paying enormous tribute to the Dominion Government.
 On $14,707 worth of cotton shirts imported last year the customs dues amounted to $6 846. Cotton towels valued at $51,000 paid duty to the extent of $12,000. The sum of $82,000 was given for cotton socks imported and the Federal taxes on the same totalled $34,000. Colored fabrics of cotton worth $147,000 were bought abroad, and the customs collectors gathered in toll upon them to the amount of $36, 000. General manufactures of cotton goods figure in the exports to the extent of $361,000, and the duty on the same was $126,000. And $72,000 was paid in customs taxes on $289,000 worth of thread that was purchased in other countries."

A Cargo on Fire.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—A thirty-six days' battle with flames was ended last night on the arrival of the British ship Cedarbank from Newcastle, New South Wales. The vessel started March 3rd, coal laden, and on June 20th the cargo was discovered to be on fire.
 Fully 260 tons of coal were thrown overboard, and then, owing to the extreme heat in the hold and the great difficulty in handling the burning coal, it was found necessary to desist. Large quantities of water were thrown into the hold day and night. On July 26th two explosions occurred and flames burst out and ran all over the hold, but the hatches were battened down. The vessel will be beached and her cargo flooded.

Reviving the Wayside Inn.

The bicycle has produced some queer changes. It is restoring the wayside inn, among other things. Along certain country roads not far from Boston, which are much frequented by wheelmen, and especially along those in the direction of the beaches, there are little summer restaurants or cafes which derive the largest part of their income from passing riders of bicycles. Ice cream, chowder coffee, cakes and that sort of thing find a ready sale to parties of heated wheelmen, who sit upon open platforms and gossip with the waiter girls, who are generally of a nice sort of country persons; and presently they fare along the road again, quite like cavaliers of old.—Boston Transcript.

A Chicago paper gives a sensational Ireland's agricultural prospects are very bright. Reports from different parts of the country state that there will be an abundance of hay, and a splendid yield of oats, potatoes and roots.
