

He Was Satisfied.

Country boys who are inclined to think that life in cities is easy and comfortable compared with their daily toil in the country, are apt to find themselves mistaken when they come to town and subject themselves to the high pressure system of business establishments. An amusing example of this sort is related by a country exchange.

A farmer's boy went to the city, finding the work at home rather tiresome, and obtained a situation in a large "family supply" store where a "rushing business" was carried on. He took hold very well and his employers liked him. They were surprised however when he came to them before he had been two months in the store and said:

"Well, Mr. A—, I guess I'll have to get through here next Saturday night."

"Get through?" said his employer.

"Why, what's gone wrong?"

"Oh, nothing particular."

"Aren't you treated well?"

"First-rate, but I'll tell you just how it strikes me. Up on the farm we used to have the thrashing machine come once a year, and then we thrashed for three days, and you'd better believe we worked hard, but I tell you what, I've been here now seven weeks and you have thrashed every day! I guess I've got enough of it. He went back to the farm convinced that a farmer's life had its compensation.—Youth's Companion.

No Necessity to be in a Hurry.

It may be a comfort to some people to know that this earth will die a natural death in about 20,000,000 years through the burning out of the sun. By the way the sea is encroaching upon the continents and wearing them down the earth will be a big herring pond—all water—in about 10,000,000 years. Even if one supposed the duration of the sun to be prolonged to 40,000,000 years, it is still incontestable that the radiation from the sun cools it, and that the temperature of all bodies tends to an equilibrium. Then the earth and all the other planets of our system would cease to be the abode of life. They will be erased from the great book and will revolve, black cemeteries, around an extinguished sun. Such being the case, the demand for ascension robes should decrease, and those who are afraid the world will come to an end soon can go to bed in peace.—The Bethlehem Times.

Hornets Break up a Funeral.

A funeral train was thrown into the wildest kind of disorder at Plainfield, N. J., recently by a nest of hornets. The friends of Andrew J. Stewart, an elder in the First Church of Christ were accompanying his remains to Hillside Cemetery. One of the carriages ran over a hornets' nest which had fallen from an overhanging tree. The hornets swarmed out, and in an instant they had fastened on the horses and their driver, stinging them viciously. With a howl of pain the driver threw away the reins, jumped to the road, and dashed into the woods. The horses, mad with pain and blinded by the terrible stings, made a dash and collided with the carriage in front. The hornets clung to them until their fury had been spent, and then men who had jumped from their carriages got near enough to hold the maddened animals. The man and horses were in terrible pain next day.

A Household Pest.

Ants are often troublesome at this season. Washing the shelves and floors of closets with a strong solution of hot alum water or sprinkling cayenne pepper lavishly over their haunts will often keep them away, but the latter precaution cannot be taken where there are children. If they have managed to get the best of you and have forced their small but unwelcome selves into your larder, sprinkle powdered sugar through a sponge and leave it where they can get at it, if possible just outside of the closet where their presence is so undesirable. In a short time they will be holding high carnival and will have invited their sisters and their cousins and their aunts (a pun intended). Now is the time for the disappearing, so have ready a vessel of boiling water, gently lift the sponge and drop it in. Repeat with a dry sponge, and in a short time you will be rid of your tiny guests.

Cats have for some time been known to be the means of conveying the infection of diphtheria, and now they stand arraigned on another charge of a similar nature. A surgeon (says the London correspondent of The Manchester Guardian) has just distinctly traced an outbreak of scarlet fever in a house to the intrusion of a cat from an infected household, and it is even said that a case has come under the notice of a medical officer of health in which smallpox was so conveyed.

NERVOUS DISEASES.

As a cure for every class of Nervous Diseases, no remedy has been able to compare with the Nervine Tonic, which is very pleasant and harmless in all its effects upon the youngest child or the oldest and most delicate individual. Nine-tenths of all the ailments to which the human family is heir are dependent on nervous exhaustion and impaired digestion. When there is an insufficient supply of nerve food in the blood, a general state of debility of the brain, spinal marrow, and nerves is the result. Starved nerves, like starved muscles, become strong when the right kind of food is supplied; and a thousand weaknesses and ailments disappear as the nerves recover. As the nervous system must supply all the power by which the vital forces of the body are carried on, it is the first to suffer for want of perfect nutrition. Ordinary food does not contain a sufficient quantity of the kind of nutriment necessary to repair the wear our present mode of living and labor imposes upon the nerves. For this reason it becomes necessary that a nerve food be supplied. This South American Nervine has been found by analysis to contain the essential elements out of which nerve tissue is formed. This accounts for its universal adaptability to the cure of all forms of nervous derangement.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, IND., AUG. 20, '86. To the Great South American Medicine Co.: DEAN GENTLE—I desire to say to you that I have suffered for many years with a very serious disease of the stomach and nerves. I tried every medicine I could hear of, but nothing done me any appreciable good until I was advised to try your Great South American Nervine Tonic and Stomach and Liver Cure, and since using several bottles of it I must say that I am surprised at its wonderful powers to cure the stomach and general nervous system. If everyone knew the value of this remedy as you would not be able to supply the demand. J. A. HANDEE, Ex-Treas. Montgomery Co.

REBECCA WILKINSON, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I had been in a distressed condition for three years from Nervousness, Weakness of the Stomach, Dyspepsia, and Indigestion, until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly, with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which done me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely remedy. A few bottles of it has cured me completely. I consider it the greatest medicine in the world."

INDIGESTION AND DYSPEPSIA.

The Great South American Nervine Tonic

Which we now offer you, is the only absolutely unfailing remedy ever discovered for the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and the vast train of symptoms and horrors which are the result of disease and debility of the human stomach. No person can afford to pass by this jewel of incalculable value who is affected by disease of the stomach, because the experience and testimony of many go to prove that this is the ONE and ONLY ONE great cure in the world for this universal destroyer. There is no case of unmalignant disease of the stomach which can resist the wonderful curative powers of the South American Nervine Tonic.

HARRIET E. HALL, of Waynetown, Ind., says: "I owe my life to the Great South American Nervine. I had been in bed for five months from the effects of an exhausted stomach, Indigestion, Nervous Prostration, and a general shattered condition of my whole system. Had given up all hopes of getting well. Had tried three doctors, with no relief. The first bottle of the Nervine Tonic improved me so much that I was able to walk about, and a few bottles cured me entirely. I believe it is the best medicine in the world. I can not recommend it too highly."

Mrs. ELIA A. BRATTON, of New Ross, Indiana, says: "I cannot express how much I owe to the Nervine Tonic. My system was completely shattered, appetite gone, was coughing and spitting up blood; am sure I was in the first stages of consumption, an inheritance handed down through several generations. I began taking the Nervine Tonic, and continued its use for about six months, and am entirely cured. It is the greatest remedy for nerves, stomach and lungs I have ever seen."

No remedy compares with SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE as a cure for the Nerves. No remedy compares with South American Nervine as a wondrous cure for the Stomach. No remedy will at all compare with South American Nervine as a cure for all forms of failing health. It never fails to cure Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It never fails to cure Cholera or St. Vitus' Dance. Its powers to build up the whole system are wonderful in the extreme. It cures the old, the young, and the middle aged. It is a great friend to the aged and infirm. Do not neglect to use this precious boon; if you do, you may neglect the only remedy which will restore you to health. South American Nervine is perfectly safe, and very pleasant to the taste. Delicate ladies, do not fail to use this great cure, because it will put the bloom of freshness and beauty upon your lips and in your cheeks, and quickly drive away your disabilities and weaknesses.
