A Fearful Disaster.

EXPLOSION OF A CARGO OF DYNAMITE ON BOARD A SPANISH VESSEL.

SANTANDER, Spain, Nov. 4.—The ship Volo, having a cargo of dynamite on board, caught fire last night. A large crowd soon gathered in the vicinity of the quay, and the police make no attempt to drive them away. The Governor of the province personally directed the efforts of the firemen to extinguish the flames. Suddenly there was a dull roar, followed by a report that shook the city. Every house around the quay was wrecked, the walls being blown down. Many persons were killed and injured. The Governor has not been seen since the explosion. His secretary who was standing beside him when the explosion occurred, says he was stunned by the shock. When he regained his senses he looked for the Governor, but could not find him. It is feared he was killed and that his body was blown into the bay. The commandant of the civil guard and many officials and workmen were badly injured. The town was paralyzed by the disaster and no attempt was subsequently made to extinguish the fire that had extended to the adjoining quays. Telegrams have been sent to Valencia, Burgos and Valladolid, asking that engines be sent on special trains to fight the fire. The Volo belonged to the Vazco de Andaluza Co.

The hospitals are filled with the injured and the physicians are doing everything in their power to alleviate the agony of the terribly mutilated persons writhing upon the cots. At the time the Volo blew up the Spanish steamer Alfonso XII was lying alongside of her. The steamer was completely destroyed, all her officers and 40 of her crew are missing and it is certain every one of them was killed. Portions of the Volo and Alfonso XII were thrown into the middle of the town, carrying death and destruction with them. The explosion damaged many vessels in the harbor. The prefect and a number of the military are among the victims. The telegraph lines were destroyed and only one wire is working out of the city. It was found impossible to check the flames even with outside assistance, and half the city has been destroyed with fire and explosion. The railway station has been burned and so rapid was the spread of the flames that the trains could not be hauled out.
They, too, were destroyed.

MADRID, Nov. 5.—An official report from Santander this evening says that the bodies of 165 persons, killed by the dynamite explosion aboard ship on Friday night, have been recovered. The search is still in progress. Many persons are missing. At present 190 persons are under treatment for injuries received on Friday night. The damage to property amounts to several million francs.

MADRID, Nov. 7.—The latest details concerning the disaster at Santander on Friday last show that the number of dead, missing and wounded is fully 1, 000. The people have not recovered from the effects of the catastrophe, and are entirely apathetic, paying no attention to business but standing about the streets discussing the awful calamity that has befallen the city. The men and women living near the waterfront, who providentially escaped from the wrecking of their homes, can be seen in numbers standing near the huge masses of debris that filled the streets waiting to recover the bodies known to be under the ruins. The scenes everywhere in the vicinity of where the destruction was wrought are sad in the extreme, and whenever a body, crushed and mangled beyond recognition, is removed from the ruins, a heartrending wail goes up from the women, who fear that the shapeless mass of flesh may be all that remains of one of their loved ones.

There is no doubt many of the dead will never be identified.

Montana's Era of High Prices.

A reporter for the Salt Lake Tribune reports a conversation with a man who kept a fruit stand in Helena in 1868.
It was only a small stand in front of a store but the rent of it was $30 a month, and he was obliged to pay in advance.
Much of his stock in trade was brought 1,600 miles by stage. Twenty-five cents would not go far in those days at a fruit stand. One man who was courting a young lady used to come to my place and buy four apples for $5 and carry them to his sweetheart. I always picked out four of the best ones, wrapped them in tissue paper and put them into a neat candy box. After awhile he got married and I sold him no more apples.
The first year's pineapples sold for $7 apiece. Oranges were $2.50 or $3 each, and the men who are rich in Montana to-day did not buy them. The first sweet potatoes ever in Montana were sent to me and cost me $1.35 a pound.
My first customer for them was a Chinese, who bought two pounds at $1.50 a pound. Book-keepers were then paid $12 a day. A very ordinary wooden building rented for $400 a month.
Newspapers sold for 50 cents each and magazines for $1 25.

The famous Chinese giant, Chang, died at Bournemouth, England, on Sunday.

Rose and apple blossoms were picked in a garden at Charlottetown, P. E. I., about the middle of October.

Prince Henry of Battenburg, husband of Princess Beatrice, received a serious injury to his left eye while inspecting the Armstrong gun works at Elswick.
He will perhaps lose the sight.

Seven masked train robbers held up a train at Newport, Ark., on Friday night. They robbed the express safe, rifled the passengers' effects and killed Conductor McNally, who offered resistance.

Joseph Morrow, of Metcalfe township, had an Indian hired man and a jar of liquor. The Indian found the liquor, Mr. Morrow says, and got drunk.
Someone informed Magistrate Noble, of Stathroy, who fined Morrow $50 and costs—$83 95 in all. Morrow took two months in jail rather than pay up.

RHEUMATISM CURED IN A DAY.—South American Rheumatic Cure, for Rheumatism and Neuralgia, radically cures in one to three days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause, and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits.
75 cents. Sold by W. R. Madill, druggist.

It is said that the estate of the late Sir John Abbott will realize upwards of $500,000. The four sons, Messrs.
Harry Abbott, J. B. Abbott, William Abbott and Arthur Abbott, and his son-in-law, Mr. R. T. Heneker, have been appointed trustees and executors, in trust, to pay Lady Abbott an annuity during her lifetime, and to divide the estate in equal shares among deceased's eight children, four sons already mentioned, and four daughters, Mrs. R. T.
Heneker, Mrs. Phillips, and two unmarried daughters.

A private despatch received in London from Buenos Ayres reiterates the report published here on November 1 to the effect that the rebel warship Republica ran into and sank the Government transport Rio de Janeiro while the latter vessel was conveying troops from Rio Grande de Sol to assist the Government forces at Rio de Janeiro. The first reports of the affair stated that 5, 000 troops had been drowned. This despatch says 1,300 soldiers went down on the transport. The story lacks official confirmation, but Admiral Mello's sympathizers claim that it is true and that the insurgents have inflicted a severe blow to the Government.
