

Carpets and Oil-Cloths, No. 9 Keenan's Block, Kent Street, Lindsay.

which he cultivates in good style, and raises as much and sometimes a good deal more from it than many do from 100 acres....Mrs. S. Marshall is visiting relatives near Omamee, and will be home about the first of February.

DON'T FORGET IT.—Don't forget the True Blue's basket social to be held in their hall next Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. There will be vocal and instrumental music, and a good time may be expected.

INSTITUTE SALE.—The annual auction sale of newspapers and magazines taken at the Mechanics' Institute will be held in the reading room on the evening of Monday, the 29th inst., commencing at 8 o'clock.

MISSION SERMONS.—On Sunday next the pulpit in St. James's church will be filled by Rev. Rural Dean Cheighton, who will deliver sermons on the subject of missions, and collections in aid of diocesan missions will be taken up.

A THIRTY DAYS' SALE.—Mrs. R. McDougall announces that she intends to have a thirty days' cash sale of all the goods in her store at prices that will astonish purchasers. Now is the time for ladies who have a little spare money to spend it to advantage.

MUSIC LESSONS.—We direct the attention of our readers to Miss Thistlethwaite's professional card on our first page. This young lady, who but recently became a resident of the village, has obtained a large class of pupils but can attend to a few more, and rightly thinks that advertising in the Gazette is a good way to get them.

THE PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.—A few days ago the Empire declared that Sir Oliver Mowat intended to break his promise that there should be no dissolution of the House until after another session and hold the Provincial elections at once; but the announcement that the Legislature is to meet on the 14th of February proves that the Tory organ had no ground whatever for its assertion.

WEST VICTORIA.—At a convention of the Reformers of West Victoria in Lindsay, on Saturday last, to nominate a candidate at the approaching contest, the choice fell upon Dr. John McKay, the present representative, who—considering his large majority at the last election and the satisfaction he has given his constituents—has very little reason to fear any opposition that may be brought against him.

S. S. FESTIVAL.—The annual festival of the St. James's church Sunday school was held in Dickson's hall last Tuesday evening. After the children had enjoyed a sumptuous tea, the doors were thrown open to the public, and, after several carols had been very well sung, upwards of 150 views were given by Mr. John Slater with a small but excellent magic lantern. There was a good attendance, a fair collection, and the festival was in every sense a success.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHT.—The time finally fixed upon, after several postponements, for the advent of the electric light in Fenelon Falls, was 8 p. m. on Monday of last week; but when, shortly before that hour, the two machines were set to work, it was found that the smaller—the "exciter," as it is called—though perfectly new, had something the matter with it, and those who were watching their lamps, in the expectation of seeing them lighted up for the first time, soon found that they were watching in vain. An expert who came from Toronto had no better success than Mr. Parkins, who has charge of the plant here; and when the balky machine was taken to Lindsay and refused to be "charged," it was at once evident that it had some internal defect that would necessitate its dissection, and another was at once telegraphed for. On Friday afternoon it arrived at the Falls by train, and about 9 o'clock, when but few were expecting it, every electric lamp but a few defective ones was emitting a blaze of light.

A DOLLAR AND COSTS.—Amongst those who came to the Falls on Monday evening to take part in the skating carnival were a couple of young blooding from Lindsay, who got into the "cooler" instead of into the rink and passed the night in durance vile. One of them, who appeared to be drunk, was using such profane language outside the rink that, after being expostulated with in vain, constables Jones and Nevison were taking to the lock-up, and his friend, who tried to rescue him and even went so far as to strike one of the constables, was also arrested. Next day they were up before magistrates Junkin and Naylor, and, as they admitted and expressed contrition for their offence, they were only fined a dollar and costs, the amount which each had to pay being $5 72. Fenelon Falls is a bad place to play the rowdy in, as all who have tried it have found to their sorrow; and the sad experience of the two young fellows from Lindsay is but the experience of other young fellows from that town and from various other places who have visited our pretty, picturesque and peace-loving village under the impression that they could "paint it red."

Major Samuel Hughes, M. P.
Major Samuel Hughes, M. P.,
Gone to the winds is your renown,
You thought to break a blacksmith's head,
And then go bragging through the town.
You said he lied, and he replied;
And then you struck—and so did he:
Dark offspring of all sorts of sires,
Your downfall was a sight to see.

Major Samuel Hughes, M. P.,
Some meeker blacksmith you must find,
(If such there be) to 'light upon,
When next to bully you're inclined.
For, as a rule, a blooming fool
Who makes such unprovoked attacks,
Will get it somewhere on his phiz,
Or "where the chicken got the axe."

Major Samuel Hughes, M. P.,
There are strange stories in my head
Of how Reeve Kylie used you up,
Of how he fought and how you bled.
Men ope'd their eyes in wild surprise,
And merrily each wagged his jaw,
When you were let up from the ground,
And they your old lacrosse-cut saw.

Major Samuel Hughes, M. P.,
If you performe must use your hands,
Are there no small boys at your gate,
No little girls about your lands?
Go cuff their ears or pull their hair,
Or jam their faces in the snow,
Pray Heaven for a braver heart,
And let the sturdy blacksmith go.

CORRESPONDENCE.
Clemence's Camp, Muskoka.
To the Editor of the Fenelon Falls Gazette.

Sir,—
Since my last letter to the Gazette there has been considerable change in our camp. Five of our men started out on the last Saturday in December, intending to get home in time to vote. We are sorry that all hands could not get out to vote, as the drawing started sooner than we expected, and it seemed rather too much of a sacrifice to break up the camp entirely, and so five votes for prohibition were lost.

The Draper logs are all in the river, and we are moved into Oakley township and drawing to Echo creek. We are boarding out, and our old cook turns out to load. We are about three miles from Fraserburg, and four miles from the "little brown cot on the hill," where we were camped last year. The boys are all well and hearty, and Robson is getting so mischievous we can hardly manage him. To ease the mind of the doctor I may say we have had no attacks of the gripe or any other ailment since he left. All for this time.
