The Richest Woman in America.

NEW YORK, February 2.—Mrs. Hetty Green, celebrated as one of the most eccentric as well as the richest woman in America, has again negotiated one of her lightning-like disappearances. She occupied a third story rear hall room in a boarding house in Brooklyn, five days ago. She paid $7 a week for the room, and is said to have eaten her meals in the kitchen. Her residence at this writing is unknown. She became alarmed in the early part of last week over the fact that her living place had been discovered. That was enough for Hetty Green. She packed her few belongings, paid her reckoning and was off before Landlady Bonta could utter a remonstrance. She did not leave her future address. Mrs. Green has therefore sunk as completely out of sight, so far as the curious public is concerned, as if she had never cast the lustre of her riches and unique personality around the fastidious residents of Brooklyn Heights.

Various reasons are assigned for Mrs. Green's renunciation of the quietude of Brooklyn. The most commonplace is that the wealthy lady has never been known to remain long in one place. In support of this theory it is argued that the chief concern has always been to keep her residence a secret from even her near relatives, and that in order to preserve such secrecy frequent changes of domicile were necessary. As far as could be ascertained Mrs. Greene had resided with Mrs. Bonta for a little more than a month, which period, it is asserted, was beyond her accustomed limit of quiescence. It was therefore, it is claimed, high time to be up and moving. It is also stated that she recently received threatening letters, and that she feared abduction.

Numerous whitecap outrages are reported in St. Francis County, Ark.

Mr. Andrew Johnson died at his son's residence, near Norwood, on Saturday, aged 103.

Serious conflicts between Christians and Moslems are reported in Crete. An earthquake shock lasting ten seconds was felt at Keeler, Cal., and at Hawthorne, Nev., at 9 o'clock on Monday night.

Wild geese have already appeared at Long Point, two months earlier than last year, and the weather prophets see in this a sign of an early spring.

SHILOH'S CURE is sold on a guarantee. It cures incipient consumption. It is the best cough cure. Only one cent a dose; 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 per bottle. Sold by W. T. Junkin.

Last week Mr. Edgar, Napanee, had a pig of the Tamworth breed killed which weighed 511 pounds. It was but twenty-three months old.

One hundred tons of asbestos will shortly be shipped from the neighborhood of Tweed to Elizabeth, N. J. During the season 450 tons have been mined.

Detroit Sunday papers will no more be allowed to be sold or delivered in Chatham, and Chief of Police Young formally notified the newsdealers to this effect.

"Death to the bourgeoisie; long live Anarchy!" were the last words of Vaillant, the Paris Anarchist, who was guillotined on Monday morning. He died without showing any sign of fear.

Daniel Ritz, proprietor and publisher of the Hamburg, Ont., Independent, says: "I was suffering from dyspepsia and liver trouble. I took a few bottles of Shiloh's Vitalizer and it cured me. I can heartily commend it."

Corbett and Mitchell will give a representation of their Jacksonville fight in New York on the 19th, the proceeds to go for charity. "Honest John" Kelly, the same seconds, bottle holders, time-keepers and all have promised to be on hand.

They have a trotting dog in San Francisco that is said to be a fit rival for the Canadian champion Doc, owned by Willie Ketchum of Brighton. The new comer is named Ned, and is a pointer, weighing 71 pounds, while Doc is an Irish setter a good many pounds lighter. Ned hails from Chicago, and is trotting at the Midwinter Fair in San Francisco.

An Austrian, who professes to have been to heaven while in a trance, has preached total abstinence with so much effect that licensed liquor sellers have applied for Governmental "encouragement." The man has been threatened with imprisonment if he preaches abstinence in public, and is evading the "law" by remaining in a house and instructing a staff of lectors. Europeans will not allow the public utterance of "dangerous" doctrines.
