to invest a small amount each month where it will be safe and yield you good returns in 7½ years?

CAN YOU AFFORD TO SAVE

1c. a day for 7½ years and get $100
10c. a day for 7½ years and get $500
50c. a day for 7½ years and get $1,000

LITTLE AND OFTEN FILLS THE PURSE.

Do you want to buy a home with the money you now pay for rent? So long as the masses of the people do not save anything out of their earnings, just so long will their spendings go into the hands of those who do save, and they are the capitalists. This is why the few own the houses and the many pay the rent.

FOR FULL PARTICULARS call on or address any of the above named officials, at Fenelon Falls. —39-lyr.

Her Heroic Death.

A NURSE REFUSES TO LEAVE HER PATIENT IN A BURNING BUILDING.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Feb. 2.—The Deaconesses' Home, Jennings avenue, was burned yesterday. The fire started in the basement, and before it could be extinguished four of the fifteen patients in the house and hospital were dead and the building was almost entirely destroyed. Minnie Baumer, one of the nurses, appeared at the upstairs window and implored those below to assist her in getting out her patient, William Aylmer, one of the burned men. For a moment the brave woman stood looking down into the crowd below her, and then duty triumphed over her desire to be saved. The smoke was pouring from the windows above her, and her white, startled face appeared as a picture in a frame of darkest ebony. Then she turned into the room and she was seen no more until her blackened form was carried tenderly from the building shortly after.

An Important Decision.

The Supreme Court of Belgium has just given judgment in a case involving the right of a husband's ownership of his wife's legs after amputation. A surgeon who had preserved the leg of a lady patient in a jar of spirits, labelled with her name and the particulars of the case, was sued by the husband for the return of the severed limb. The surgeon demurred, admitting that the plaintiff had proprietary rights in the leg while it formed part of his wife, but argued that the leg, in its present condition was the result of his (defendant's) skill and the work of his own hands, and that he was clearly entitled to keep it. The court heard long arguments pro and con, deliberated a fortnight, and ordered the delivery of the leg to the husband.

Jack Dempsey Insane.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—The last chapter in the eventful career of Jack Dempsey, the once invincible middleweight pugilist, has been reached. He is now a physical and mental wreck, though his friends are trying zealously to conceal his real condition. Dr. Ward, of Coney Island, states that the pugilist's mind is unbalanced, and he can only hope to revive his shattered faculties by good medical treatment and careful nursing. The physician states that Dempsey is likely to do himself irreparable injury if left alone. He defines the case as melancholia, superinduced by worry and drink. Dempsey is now confined to the home of his brother Martin in Williamsburg.

A Murderous Assault Case.

OMEMEE, Ont., Jan. 2.—About five miles east of here last night Thomas Foster, who had been staying with his friend, Andrew Faulkner, lately, took up an iron poker and struck Wm. Faulkner over the head and laid him out. He then went to Andrew and laid his skull bare in four places and pounded away unmercifully at his arm and shoulder till life was almost extinct. Then he left the house. Faulkner's sister got word to another brother named Samuel, who procured medical aid and then he went to Lindsay and swore out a warrant. Foster was arrested by County Constable Short and taken to jail. Andrew Faulkner's condition is serious. Foster is now in Lindsay gaol awaiting his trial. He says the action was committed in self defence.

Farm Products Under the Wilson Bill.

BUFFALO, Feb. 4.—The customs receipts at the port of Buffalo for January, 1894, were but $43,933; for January of this year they were $63,396, an increase of $19,462. In almost every instance where the duty has been diminished the importations have nearly doubled and in some cases they have increased to even a larger extent. This is especially true with Canadian barley and foreign fabrics. Barley is now being shipped here in immense quantities. Other Canadian farm products since the new law went into effect have found a demand in Buffalo markets. Live stock, including sheep, lambs, cattle and some horses, contribute to the influx of taxable goods from across the border.
