

Dealers in Dry Goods etc., No. 9 Keenan's Block, Kent-St., Lindsay.

TEA AT BADDOW.—There was a tea at Baddow on Wednesday night, but owing to the intense cold, nobody that we know of went from the Falls, and consequently, we have no report of the proceedings.

GOT HER DIPLOMA.—Miss Nie, who has been studying for some months past at the Loretto Convent, Lindsay, returned home on Saturday last, having finished her course and obtained a diploma as short-hand reporter, type writer and book keeper.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Geo. Lytle, of the Lindsay Watchman, was at the Falls on Tuesday and paid the Gazette a fraternal visit. Mr. J. A. Gillogly, General Agent of the Sun Life Assurance Co. of Canada, was in town this week paying a death claim to Mrs. Pocke of $1,000 on the life of her lately deceased husband.

ST. JAMES'S CHURCH.—Rev. Carl S. Smith will preach morning and evening on Sunday, Feb. 10th, at St. James's church, Fenelon Falls, and at 2.30 at St. Peter's, Verulam, on Missions. Collection for diocesan missions. A good attendance is requested. Rev. W. Farncomb will preach the same day at Cameron, Cambray and Lindsay.

AMALGAMATED.—The Toronto Mail and Empire have amalgamated, and a paper bearing both titles will henceforth sing the praises of Tory principles. The Empire never paid and was a white elephant to its stockholders who will no doubt be glad to get rid of it. The death of the Empire is the subject of a clever cartoon called "The Wake" by S. Hunter in Wednesday's World.

CARNIVAL.—The second grand masquerade and fancy dress carnival of the season will be held in the skating rink next Wednesday evening, and the managers will spare no pains to make it a success. The rates of admission will be as follows: Ladies and children, 15 cents; ladies in costume free; gentlemen 25 cents. Season tickets suspended for the night. For list of attractions and other particulars see posters.

THE PULP MILL.—After a few days' idleness, owing to the breaking of a coupling, the pulp mill resumed operations on Monday morning; and it is to be hoped that a long time will elapse before another stoppage occurs. There is some talk of adopting an invention by which the expense of making pulp will be very materially reduced, but as the machinery, which is made in the States, is so costly that the duty on it will amount to three or four thousand dollars, it is not likely to be introduced until the question whether it will pay or not has been definitely settled in the affirmative.

TWIN CALVES.—Last Monday a thorough-bred Holstein cow owned by the McGee brothers, of Fenelon, gave birth to twin bull calves, which at last accounts were doing well. The Messrs. McGee (Alexander and Robert) acquired the Hall farm near Powles' corners about six years ago, and it soon began to be seen that they had good heads on their strong bodies, and were working in a way sure to lead to success. At the last municipal elections Alic was nominated for the council, and made a very good run considering that he is a young man and not known to many of the electors outside of his own neighborhood.

Johnston & Stron, Lindsay.

A COLD SNAP.—Several times towards the end of last week the appearances known as "sundogs" were seen in the sky, and many persons said that they indicated a thaw; but they seem to have indicated the very reverse, for some time during Monday night there was a sudden drop in the temperature, and next morning Mr. Wm. Campbell's new registering thermometer showed that the mercury had been down to 18 degrees below zero, while the one at the post-office, which is in a more exposed situation, was 24 below zero at 7 a. m. During the day the cold grew more intense; Tuesday night was worse than the one preceding it; and early on Wednesday morning two, at least, of the village thermometers were down to 30 below zero. Next morning when our villagers got up they found that a welcome change had taken place, the temperature having risen about 12 degrees, and since then it has gone up considerably higher. The cold at different points during the "snap" was simply frightful; at Duluth it was 40 degrees, at Rainy River 42, and at Saginaw 65 degrees below zero. A man who came to Fenelon Falls from Bobcaygeon on the stage on Tuesday morning was very badly frozen. Numerous deaths by freezing are reported both in the States and Canada.

A BOVINE DETECTIVE.—For a long time past a private still has been in operation in the township of Stanhope, and as some of the men of the neighborhood imbibed too freely and frequently of the product, the women were naturally anxious to have it discovered and suppressed. With that end in view a detective was set to work, and hunted and spied in vain; but what he couldn't do was done a few days ago by a cow, who accidentally obtained access to a quantity of high wines or whisky and drank so much that she became literally dead drunk. Our informant did not ascertain to whom she belonged, but whoever owned her skinned her, cut her up and sold her to the foreman or cook of Howry & Son's lumbering shanty, a few miles away in the adjoining township of Sherborne. Whether the beef produced an exhilarating effect on the men who ate it, and whether the illicit distillery has been found and destroyed or is yet in operation, are interesting points upon which the villager from whom we obtained the above information could not enlighten us.

AN OWL CAPTURED.—On Saturday, January 12th, Mr. Thomas Junkin of Verulam found the remains of a hen which some predatory bird or beast had killed and partly eaten during the night, and as it was suspected that an owl had done the deed, one of the boys nailed the hen and a steel trap close together on the roof of the barn. Next morning the bait was there but the trap was gone and no one expected to see it again; but on Sunday, the 26th, Mr. Junkin went over to visit his relative, Mr. Lancelot Patterson, whose farm is about a mile from his own, and who, soon after he got there, asked him whether he had lost a trap. Mr. Junkin said that he had; and Mr. Patterson, taking him to the cellar and opening the door, showed him a horned owl, with the trap and chain hanging from one of his toes, and told him that he had found the bird in his barn, looking longingly at a turkey, the previous Friday night. Mr. Junkin released the owl from the trap, took him home and offered him the remains of the hen, which he greedily ate; and on Saturday last, when he heard of his capture, he was apparently in good health and spirits, and not at all lame from lugging around his heavy load of iron for a full fortnight.

Two hundred miners' families are reported to be starving in East Greenville, Ohio, a quarter from which help has not hitherto been sought. A specially urgent appeal will be issued.

"Remittance men" is the term applied in British Columbia to sons of Englishmen sent there to learn farming. "They go about in knickerbockers, big shoes, cloth caps and eyeglasses, painting things red as long as their remittances last. For two weeks before the next cheque arrives they keep quiet, because they have no money for making a noise."
A judgment for heavy damages has just been given in a case where a little girl contracted a cold resulting in death, on account of the seat which she occupied at school being exposed to a draught. The trustees paid the damages out of their own private purses. As this decision will form a precedent for future cases, it is likely to accomplish more than bushels of reports from Inspectors.

A Really Good Cup of Tea.
Is not only comforting and agreeable, but it is also very beneficial to one's health; but for years past Canada has been noted for the poor class of teas used, which have a bad effect upon the nerves. During the past few years, in fact, since "Salada" Ceylon tea has been introduced, Canadians have shown their appreciation of fine teas. It has been admitted by eminent physicians that no tea is so free from harmful qualities as Ceylon tea, and no Ceylon teas are so beneficial, as well as delightful, as "Salada," which is sold in lead packets, thereby preserving all the delightful fragrance that tea has on the estate. "Salada" tea can be obtained in Fenelon Falls only at W. L. Robson's.
