Burtch's Big Show.

Our bill-boards announce the appearance of Geo. Burtch's new sensation at Fencion Falls on Wednesday, May 22nd, and, from the excitement the large bills have caused, it no doubt will be greeted with large crowds at both performances. Even the small boys are saving their pennies, that they may witness the big show. The large tents will be pitched on the market square. No doubt the 22 d of May will be a busy day for Fenelou Falls .- Adv.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the Fenelon Falls Gazette. SIR,-

I have been listening during the last few days, and hark! what have I heard? Well, just so much that I fear to report it all, lest I should weary you with its length, but the following are a few of the remarks -the pros and cons, as it were-of the village: " Nevison is the constable again." "Hope he'll attend to it better than before." "No, it will be done in the same way." "Councillor John was against it. Masons and Presbyterians run the town." "Golden is out with a petition praying the council to purchase the old building recently occupied by the Presbyterians." "Well, Golden is not a Presbyterian." " No, but he can stretch his neck long enough to drink out of the bottom of a churn. He knows if the old church be pucchased and moved to the market square he will likely get a job of drawing sand and stone to build a foundation under it. That was suggested—the petition—by some member of the council at the last sitting." "Oh, yes! they are all Presbyterians except Slater." "Bad enough to mix politics with municipal affairs, but it's worse to bring church matters into it." "They are a most inconsistent council anyhow. What could you expect? Sandford got into the council in '94 by howling about the electric light company and the low rate of assessment of the stone mill, and when he got there what did he do? He was about the only man who appealed against any assessment, and that was his own. It was too high!! Geo. Martin was decidedly against the way they got the contract and by-law, etc., the principle of the thing was wrong, but he was in favor of the lights, etc. Now these men would like to buy the old church from the Presbyterians-from themselvesto help 'the cause' along."

"I am surprised at Dickson," says one, "It's not Dickson's fault," says another. " Dickson is against such a measure, and thinks it is a disgrace on the name of his church, but does not like to say much, because he would immediately be accused of selfishness, having a hall of his own."

Now, Mr. Editor, I could fill a whole column of your paper with this kind of "round town" talk, but let us come to the point. If the present council dare to purchase that building for a town hall they will call forth the indignation of nearly all the ratepayers of the village, excepting those who are at present looking through colored glasses, and will certainly violate their declaration of office. How they can have the audacity to purchase from a committee made up partly of themselves is more than I can understand. But it is said that Mr. McLeod has taken the church off the hands of the Presbyterians. All right; if he has let him keep it and make the best of it. He is a practical man and supposed to know what he is doing. But I may just | Saturday, the 1st day of June, '95, say right here, that many think that that has not been a genuine deal, but done in order to work a fake on the town with the present council. But you may say the council have been petitioned to purchase it. I care nothing for petitions as a general rule, because if some ratepayer of influence, or a first-rate fellow, were to get up a petition to hire a man to cut the tails off all the dogs in town, or build a temple for Mahomet on the market square, he would get signatures to it right here in Fenelon Falls. Why not buy Dickson's hall, if they are bound to get one? It is larger, can be used for concerts, entertainments and troupes, and in that way produce a revenue, has a basement which easily could be fixed for a lock up, and is just as convenient to the front street as the one in question. say, let it drop.

Yours, &c., LISTENER.
