IN BROAD DAYLIGHT.

Real Living Picture Meets Another.

What She Yook for a Spirit Was Her Friend.

Ghosts don't walk in broad daylight, and yet when a woman finds herself suddenly confronted by the friend she has mourned as dead she is apt to experience a dictionary.

In a case like this no amount of presence of mind or self-possession can ward off the mingled teelings of astonishment, fear, joy and curiesity that will render a woman temporarily tongue-tied. It is only after again seeing the cherished smile of greeting, after again feeling that there is throbbing life beneath the dainty glove, and after again hearing her own name spoken in the ever familiar voice, that this strange tensation vanishes.

THE STRANGE MEETING.

The meeting of the two women whose pictures are here given, shows that everygay life furnishes experiences as thrilling as those that come to us only in our wildest dreams. And the fact that such meetings occur every day points a moral that every woman in the land should take to heart. Here was a woman in the prime of life, pursued by that sentinel which seeks its victim, among her sex alone.

From a living picture she became, in less than a year, a wreck of human wretchedness. From despondency to despair seemed but the remaining step, the last

HER LAST FAREWELL.

Overcome by the presentiment that precedes a lingering death, she asked to be removed to her old home in the West, and spoke what to all seemed to be her last farewell. In the very paper that chronicled her departure the doomed invalid found four letters written by Mrs. William Hoover, of Bellville, O.: Mrs. Caroline King, of New Boston, O.; Mrs. S. A. Monroe, Baltimore, Md.; F. F. Sargent, of United States Artillery School, Fortress Monroe, Va. These letters are printed below. They told how cures had been found for cases like her own-cases of " female weakness" and shattered health that had almost sapped life away. With no more hope than that which prompts the drowning man to catch a straw-for she firmly believed herself incurable, just as tens of thousands of women believe themseives incurable—she followed the advice contained in these letters. The result is best told in the woman's own words. "In less than five months," she writes, "I returned to my friends in the East, as well and strong in body and mind and as happy and free from pain as any woman in the world. I had gained nearly thirty pounds in weight and was so changed in face and form that when one of my dearest friends met me in broad daylight she almost fainted, for

"SHE BELIEVED ME DEAD."

She adds, "I owe my whole life and happiness to Dr. Pierce & Golden Medical Discovery and Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which cured meafter doctors, travel, baths, massage, electricity, had failed to even benefit !'

This woman's case, remarkable as it may seem, is not an exceptional one. Thousands and thousands of just such cures have been made in every State by these self-same special remedies for women's peculiar disorders and diseases.

STERILITY CURED.

Edward F. F. Sargent, Department of Photography, U.S. Artillery School, Fortress Monroe, Va., writes: "My wife cannot speak too highly of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, it having completely cured her of a serious womb trouble of long standing. She took five bottles altogether, and she has borne a large, healthy child since.

"She only wishes every poor, suffering woman should know of the inestimable value your 'Favorite Prescription' would be to them, and thanks you, gentlemen, from the bottom of her heart for the benefit she has received."

The brief talk on woman and her peculiar ailments given above is continued in the great doctor book described below :

GREAT DOCTOR BOOK FREE.

When Dr. Pierce published the first edition of his great work, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, he announced that after 680,000 copies had been sold at the regular price, $1.50 per copy, he would distribute the next half million free. As this number of copies has now been old he will, in accordance with his original offer, distribute, absolutely free (the receiver merely to pay for packing, customs duty and postage, asstipulated in the following coupon) 500,000 copies of this most complete, interesting and valuable common sense medical work ever published. In a single year this book will save more than a hundred times its cost in any family. It is a veritable medical library, complete in one volume. No man or woman, married or single should be without it.

It must be distinctly understood that not more than one copy will be sent to one family free.
