

FOUND DEAD IN BED.—We clip the following paragraph from the Peterboro' Times of Monday last, the 10th inst:—"Saturday morning Mr. Dan McIntyre, who has been a resident of Keene for years, was found dead in his bed. The deceased slept alone, and when his room was entered yesterday it was found that death had come in the night. The deceased was about 65 years of age and was well known in the village and in town. His wife and two sons, Messrs. A. A. and Malcolm McIntyre, reside in town. He also leaves two daughters, Mrs. A. Weir, residing near Keene, and the other at Fenelon Falls."

METHODIST YOUNG PEOPLE.—The Young People's Societies of the Methodist Church are very much interested in their conference gatherings which are to be held this month. Toronto Conference Young People will meet in Toronto on February 27th and 28th; Hamilton Conference will meet in Berlin on Feb. 25th and 26th, and the Bay of Quinte Conference will meet in Belleville on Feb. 18th to 20th. This is the first of the Conference Conventions held, and great enthusiasm is being manifested in the preparations now in progress. The Methodist societies in this section will go to Belleville. Reduced railway fares are arranged, and the expectation is that 300 or 400 of leading Methodist young people will rally in the city. Enquiries concerning the convention, programme, etc., should be made to Rev. C. W. Watch, Secretary, Brighton.

"TOUCHE" TUPPER.—We see it stated that "Mr. LaTouche Tupper, inspector of fisheries, Selkirk West, Manitoba, has shipped from the Selkirk hatchery a consignment of half hatched white fish eggs to the hatchery at New Westminster. These white fish will eventually be deposited in the Okanagan and other fresh water lakes of British Columbia. This is the second shipment of white fish eggs sent to the Pacific Province, the first shipment of two million being made two years ago, and successfully hatched." Twenty-five years ago Mr. Tupper ran a drug store and courted the Muses in Bobaygeon; and being an out-and-out Tory, and possessed of some of the qualities for which The Great Stretcher (of whom he is a nominal relative) is noted, he long ago passed on to his reward. The air of Manitoba must be good for the viscera and conducive to longevity, or else doctors are sometimes mistaken; for in his Bobaygeon days Touche Tupper was understood to have something so dreadful the matter with his inside that he couldn't possibly last for many years, but here he is yet alive and kicking, and no doubt abusing the Grits at as great a rate as ever.

Mrs. John Peyton, of Orange, Va., will attain her 100th birthday next month. She has a son 80 years old who is station agent on the railroad at a place near her home. He was appointed agent forty-three years ago.

About 400 French Catholics held a mass meeting at Danielson, Conn., on Feb. 9th and adopted resolutions not to pay one cent toward the church in any form whatever, until a French Canadian priest is furnished. They signed a circular to that effect and will have it distributed among the French families this week.

Nogent sur Marne, France, has a town clerk who has tried seventeen times, without success, to commit suicide. His latest exploit was to throw the office furniture at his fellow-officials, fight the people he met in the street, and try to murder his wife, winding up by drinking corrosive sublimate. The doctors counteracted this, and he is ready to begin again.

A son of James McComb of Mono Township was hauling wood into a shed on a small sleigh. He got on top of the sleigh to reach a rope that was hanging from the rafters. The rope had a noose on the end; the sleigh slipped under his feet, his head by some means got through the noose, and he was hanged in sight of his younger brother, who gave the alarm, but assistance came too late.

The latest wonder reported from Glasgow is a bicycle rider who has no legs and only one arm; he is only 13 years of age, very bright and active, in spite of his physical imperfections. A neighboring bicycle manufacturer agreed to make a wheel which the boy could ride, and he did so. One hand guides the handle bar, and bars of steel lead up from the pedals to the short stumps which are all he has for legs.

The death recently occurred in St. Bartholomew's Hospital, London, of the colored lion tamer named William Beaumont. Whilst going through a performance with the lions at the Agricultural Hall on Christmas eve, he was attacked by one of the lions, which tore a large piece of flesh from his arm as well as injured his spine. He was at once taken to the hospital, but symptoms very similar to hydrophobia supervened, and he died subsequently in great agony.

Great loss of life and very large destruction of property have been caused in the northern part of Queensland by a tornado and floods. Great numbers were drowned. The damage to property is estimated at $2,500,000. Several coasting vessels are missing, and it is believed that they have either foundered or been driven ashore and that all aboard of them were lost.

A curious case of a soldier refusing to do duty has just been before a military tribunal in Germany. Trot is the name of a private in an infantry company stationed at Lusterburg. He is the son of a landed proprietor. He said he was willing to do military duty six days in the week, but would not "desecrate the Sabbath." He is still in prison, and will remain there until he changes his mind in this matter.
