(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

Death has again visited our village. Mr. W. S. Scott, for so many years a resident of this place, but lately of Minden, passed away on Saturday morning, the 14th inst., after a severe illness. All that medical aid could do was done, both at home and in Toronto hospital, but after the operation was performed (trying to remove the cancer) he only had time to reach his father's home here, when he rapidly sank. The afflicted wife, family and relatives have the sympathy of all the community. The funeral on Monday afternoon was very largely attended. An impressive service was held at the house by Rev. E. Soward, and afterwards by the Forsters. In the procession were the band, of which Mr. Scott was president, the Forsters, True Blues and O'Idfellows.

Mrs. James Gilmore died at her daughter's residence at Rennie's. Her body will be brought here for burial. She will be missed in our village, as she has been a resident for a number of years.

Johnston's School.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

The temperance entertainment given in this place on the 3rd inst. was a success in many respects, but the future alone can determine the degree of success. It is to be hoped that it has made impressions for good on the minds not only of the young, but of all present, that time cannot efface. This being a temperance topic, a couple of our temperance boys consistently introduced, not a cup of cold water, but a pall of God's own brewing. No toasts of course were given, nor expected, as it would have been quite out of place on this occasion, but all could look forward and upward and thank the heavenly brewer for both boys and water. The only toasting was the toasting done at the stove, and might serve to illustrate how a surface heat could be produced without liquor. For those who did not avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing and seeing for themselves, either through indifference or want of ambition, I can only draw on your imagination. After a stroll to No. 11, you'd then and there have been welcomed—

"Parents, friends, we bid you welcome,
To our school-room dear;
And we join our loving voices
Now to greet you here;
Welcome, welcome, welcome, welcome,
Yes, we welcome all."

Then you'd next have noticed how everything contributed toward the same grand object—the pall of cold water which the Eternal brewed for his children; the inviting stove, emitting its welcomed rays; the animated black-board facing you on all sides, and saying on the west of a large ornamental banner, "Abstain," and with another large scroll on the east, "Abstain," while it mirrored on its south side King James's Counterblast (on tobacco), and on the north side appeared a goblet or two with an adder's head projecting over the brim, while a bell appears in the background, exclaiming, "Ring out the false, ring in the true!" Combine with these scenes on the board the wall maps, which appeared, even, to re-animate the whole phantasmagoria. The map of China says, "I was forced to wear a tail, as a badge of subservieny, but other civilized nations from whom better is expected wear a voluntary tale—the tale of drink. You may call mine 'piggy tail,' but I call yours the drunken tale of rye splits, giuger ale, lager beer, etc."

Another entertainment talked of—surprise party to-night—trustees' meeting soon—the sick are now convalescent—revivals at Baddow, much good done and still more hoped to be done.

Powles's Corners.

(Correspondence of the Gazette.)

What great rejoicing and happiness there would be in many homes if every saloon and hotel were closed for all time to come. The Dominion Government should give us a prohibitory liquor law and not bother themselves with the Manitoba school question.

Mrs. James Marshall is suffering with inflammation of the lungs, and one of her grandchildren is also sick with the croup. Under the care of Dr. Graham of the Falls we hope to soon see them in their usual health.....Mr. Thomas

KNIGHTS OF THE MACCABEES.—During the last few days the Knights of the Maccabees have been rousing up in earnest, and as a result two special meetings were held on the 10th and 12th inst., and ten new members were enrolled and several applications received on file. At the latter review the following new officers were duly elected and afterwards installed by Sir Knight Geo. Townsend, D. S. C.:—Acting Past Commander, Thos. Johnston; Lieut. Commander, C. W. Burgoyne; Record and Finance Keeper, Thos. Graham; Sergeant, Alex. Wilson; 2nd Master of Guards, Simon Cooper; Picket, F. H. Beloh.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The Peterborough Times of the 18th inst. says:—"Yesterday noon a lumberman by the name of Condon, living in Ashburnham and employed in Howry & Son's camp, knocked off work at noon complaining of a sense of suffocation and pain in the chest. Upon reaching the shanty he grew rapidly worse. Everything was done for him that the information of his co-laborers could suggest, but was of no avail and the end came. While he thoroughly appreciated their kind efforts, his only plea was "Let me die." He had prophesied this end for some time. The body was brought to Peterborough and turned over to Mr. Bellegem for care. The deceased was about 32 years of age."

VICTORIA PATRONS.—The following paragraph was telegraphed from Lind say to the Toronto papers on Monday last:—"The committee appointed by Victoria County Association of the Patrons of Industry to consider the political situation met in the Corresponding Secretary's office in Lindsay on Saturday last, and decided not to interview the present party candidates but to place an independent candidate, of their own in the field. A convention of the Patrons and all independent electors will be held in Lindsay on Saturday, March 23, at 1 p. m. for the above purpose. Messrs. J. L. Haycock, M. P. P., and R. C. Braudon of Ontario County will be present."

A STOVE ROOM.—Large as are Mr. Joseph Heard's present premises they are not sufficient for the requirements of his rapidly increasing business, and he is now making preparations to put up what he calls a "Stove Room," as his stock of cooking, parlor and box stoves, of which he has a large variety, now has to be kept in a storehouse at the rear of the yard, which is very inconvenient for Mr. Heard and his customers. The new building is to be forty feet deep, twenty feet wide and two stories high, and the front will be flush with the front of the store, with which it will correspond in general appearance. The stone for the foundation and some of the joists and rafters are already upon the ground.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Orange.

To the Editor of the Fenelon Falls Gazette.

Sir,—The orange is a beautiful fruit, but it is being squeezed all it can stand. It got a severe squeeze in Simcoe county, till it nearly dried up, but, being allowed to rest a while, the old orange filled up again, and a portion of the contents escaped and washed a highly colored Orange official out of office at Ottawa. Still there was enough left, and a portion was used in the Trent Valley Canal, and partially soured until frost came and preserved a portion by freezing, and kept it from spoiling the Gull river waters, which it was in a fair way of doing. A portion of the juice may keep and be palatable next June if the vessels don't burst with the frost or something else by that time. As politics at Ottawa seems very embarrassing just now, would it not be well to try factory cheese. It is recommended by some as a great help to digestion. If it would help to remedy the Manitoba School Bill it would then be better than orange juice. But should the Patrons of Industry brew or distil some decoction that would be palatable and good to take, and lay the dust about June next, it might become popular and supersede the others, providing it was not excisable. It is well known that the clergy live by our sins, the medical men by our diseases, and the law gentry by our misfortunes. Could not some of those in the professions mentioned provide us with a remedy, or shall we have to wait until Mr. McLaughlin takes his seat at Ottawa next Parliament? Expecting fair play to all, I remain

NORTH VICTORIA ELECTOR.
