

LURING GAMETO DEATH.

Beasts of Prey That Play on the Curiosity of Their Natural Food.

A writer in a well-known sporting paper tells how he and a friend lay down behind a log one day and watched for a flock of canvasback ducks to come into the broad river. Pretty soon in came a flock of thousands that alighted 500 yards from the shore and began to plume themselves duck fashion. One of the men tied his red handkerchief on the end of a stick and began to wave it at intervals in sight of the ducks. The ducks began to cock their heads sideways, and after a while they began to swim toward the log. They came within twenty yards and the men jumped up, and one got nineteen the other fifteen ducks with the four discharges.

Readers will remember how the panther on the plains of Patagonia that gets as near a herd of guanacos as it can, then lies down behind a bush on its back. It puts one paw up in the air, then another, then the third and fourth, and after a bit all four at once. That seems curious to the guanacos and they grab one by the neck. Up jumps the panther, and lights on the nearest ones' back and breaks its neck.

A fox in Nova Scotia comes down to the Bay of Fundy and goes jumping along the beach a couple of rods and back again, rising on its hind legs at each about face and waving its big tail in the air. The little flock of four or five geese out on the water begin to wonder what can be the matter with the fox. They swim up into the shallow water to investigate when in dashes the fox and grabs one by the neck. The men have taken advantage of this trick and have trained dogs to do as the fox does. For lack of a dog men themselves have ambled about on their hands and knees to attract the birds.

A wild house cat, black as coal, was seen by a hunter, walking slowly up and down a level stretch of sand near an old house on the Connecticut River. Three black ducks were far out on the river and like the geese came swimming slowly in, out of curiosity, but the man could not wait to see what would happen. He killed all three ducks with his gun.

GOOD INFLUENCE OF BUDDHISM.

The following statistics will make all the converts to Buddhism rejoice. They are taken from the criminal reports of India, and show one criminal for every 274 Europeans, 1 in 509 Asiatics intermarried with Europeans, 1 in 709 Christians born in India, 1 in 1,361 Hindus worshipping Brahma, and 1 in 3,787 Buddhists. For every true Christian this comparison is appalling, or ought to be.

FISH IN AN OLD WELL.

Some queer fish were taken out of the recently reopened well on the United States fish station at San Marcos, Tex. There were several salamanders, varying in length from 11-2 to 41-2 inches. These creatures live on land or water, have human-looking faces, hands and feet, bulldog head, tail of an eel and body of fish. There were also large numbers of shrimps, resembling sea shrimps, only smaller. It is an artesian well, and everybody wants to know where the creatures come from.

MARRIED AFTER DEATH.

A marriage after death has taken place in Russia. A young Jewess having died suddenly, her relatives decided that, as she was betrothed, she should be married, and thus "escape the disgrace of entering the other world as a single woman." The ceremony took place in the cemetery, after which the body was returned to the coffin and lowered into the grave.

THE LAND OF EVANGELINE

One of the Most Romantic Spots in Canada.

But it is No More Free from the Ills to Which Flesh is Heir Than Less Favored Localities—An Account of a Strange Malady From Which a Gasperaux Farmer Suffered.

From the Acadian, Wolfville, N.S.

Perhaps there is no more beautiful or picturesque spot in Nova Scotia than the valley of Gasperaux, in the "Land of Evangeline." Winding its way through the centre of the valley is a beautiful little river, while nestled at the foot of the mountains which rise on either side to the height of hundreds of feet, is the romantic looking little village of Gasperaux. About two and a half miles from the village resides Mr. Fred J. Fielding, one of the most thrifty farmers in this section of the country. Your correspondent called upon him and found a very genial, intelligent and apparently a very healthy looking man. In reply to our question, Mr. Fielding said, "Yes, I was near to death's door at one time, but thank God I am a new man to-day. You see, he went on that pump in the kitchen, beneath is a well about 20 feet deep, which was the cause, I think of all my illness. I went down last fall (1894) in it to clean it out and was only a short time at the bottom, when I took with a severe pain at the back of my head and a burning sensation in my throat and lungs, such as caused by the inhalation of brimstone. A sort of stupor also was gradually coming over me when by a huge effort, I succeeded in regaining the kitchen once more. A lighted lamp let down became extinguished, thus showing that the accumulation of gas had caused the trouble. The pain at the back of my head continued to trouble me and one day while working in a back field I suddenly lost the use of my left eye, right arm and left leg. At times I could not speak but towards evening I began slowly to grow better. The next day at about the same time I was seized again in the same manner. I now called in the family physician who told me that a blood vessel had burst in the back of my head. He left me medicine. The pain in the back of my head never left me and I continued to feel miserable. About two months after this second attack while sitting in the post office of the village I was suddenly seized again and getting out my horses and wagon started for home. I had not gone far when the lines dropped out of my right hand and I again found myself blind in my left eye and the right arm and left leg paralyzed. The horses now carried me home but passed the house in the direction of the barn. My wife thinking I had gone on to the barn paid no attention for perhaps 15 minutes, when she sent one of the children to see what was keeping me. At this time I was unable to speak and had to be assisted into the house. Before bedtime I began to recover somewhat and felt fairly well the next morning, but was again seized during the day in the same manner, and the report reached the village that I was dead. Neighbors came flocking out expecting that it was true. As the medicine I had tried seemed to do me no good, I now thought I would try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and by the time I had used six boxes the pain had left my head and I felt as good as new. I now ceased using them for about a month when I thought I felt a recurrence of the pain at the back of my head. I sent again and got three more boxes and used them. It is now about five months since I used the last pill, and I have never had a recurrence of the attack, besides I feel myself a new man. I am now 89 years of age, and have always worked on a farm and never enjoyed work better than last summer and autumn and am positive Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured me. I now always keep them in my house and when my wife or children have any sickness our resort is to this medicine and always with the very best effect.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are offered with a confidence that they are the only perfect and unerring blood builder and nerve restorer and when given a fair trial disease and suffering must vanish. Sold by all dealers or sent by mail on receipt of 50 cents a box or $2.50 for six boxes, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y. Beware of imitations and refuse trashy substitutes alleged to be "just as good."

Ryckman's Kootenay Cure.

Positive Cure for Rheumatism and Paralysis.

Wants all Her Friends to Know.

An Ottawa Lady had no hope, but tried it and was cured.

Mrs. Thomas A. Pirie, Ottawa, adds to the great volume of voluntary testimonials the following story of the case:

Ottawa, August, 7th, 1895.

S. S. Ryckman, M. P.

Dear Sir:—I cannot find words to express to you my gratitude for the services your Kootenay Cure has done me. I had been treated by the best physicians in Ottawa for Rheumatism, but they told me that my case was so complicated, my trouble having originated from La Grippe, that any relief they could give would only be temporary. Just at this time I heard of your remedy, and you were kind enough to call on me. I had very little hope of relief at first, the rheumatism having settled in my muscles and almost destroyed my nerves. However, I determined to try once more and began to take your medicine, and in my case, physically speaking, old things have passed away and all things have become new. I can go anywhere, unaided. My nerves are as strong as ever they were in my life and no change in the atmosphere has any effect on me now. I cannot thank you enough, but write this so that some other sufferer may read it and seek relief. You can refer any person to me at my residence, 199 Albert Street, Ottawa, and I shall be only too happy to give them any information in my power.

Yours gratefully,
MRS. THOMAS A. PIRIE,
199 Albert St., Ottawa.

GLADSTONE'S WORKING HOURS.

Mr. Gladstone gets to work at 10 in the morning and stops at lunch time. When the lunch gong sounds he lays down his pen. Though Mr. Gladstone does not get to his library, until 10, he begins his day's work at 8 o'clock every morning, for he reads in bed while he is taking his breakfast—a luxury which until quite recently he has not allowed those about him to impose upon him. His eyesight is troubling him a great deal nowadays, and he cannot read as he would like.

SHERIFF WILKINS FREED.

Years of Slavery, and How He Escaped.

Talks About His Deliverer Daily in Gratitude Gains Fifteen Pounds in Weight Since His Rescue.

Urbana, Ohio, (Special).—This town is greatly exercised over the remarkable rescue of Sheriff R. P. Wilkins from one of the worst forms of slavery known to man. He has now fully recovered from the results of his experience, and talks freely and gratefully of his deliverer. In an interview to-day he said: "I have been a perfect slave to tobacco for over twenty five years; I smoked from twelve to fifteen cigars a day. November 4th, last, I bought my first box of No-To-Bac from Anderson & Cramer. I had little faith, and to my great surprise, after using part of the third box, I was completely cured and did not have the least desire for tobacco. To-day I feel better, I sleep better, think better, and I have gained fifteen pounds in weight, and there is not a day passes that I do not recommend No-To-Bac to many of the tobacco users who I know are destroying their lives and vitality by the use of the weed.

Further investigation revealed the fact that over 500 people living in this town and the surrounding country who have been cured by No-To-Bac. Anderson & Cramer stated that they were the first to start the good work here, as Mr. Anderson termed it. "Yes, we introduced No-To-Bac into this town about three years ago. The demand at the start was very light, the folks had no faith in it, but we sold to a few people, and to our great astonishment every one reported a cure. Since that time we have sold hundreds of boxes and every one under a guarantee to cure or refund the money, and strange as it may seem we have never had a call to refund money."

No-To-Bac not only relieves the nervous irritation and makes the use of tobacco entirely unnecessary, but at the same time builds up and fortifies the general physical condition. As a natural invigorator and stimulant we believe there is no preparation in America to equal it.

The public should be warned, however, against the purchase of any of the many imitations on the market, as the success of No-To-Bac has brought forth a host of counterfeiters and imitators. The genuine No-To-Bac is made by the Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago, Montreal and New York, and is sold under a guarantee to cure by all druggists, and every tablet has the word No-To-Bac plainly stamped thereon."

Thomas Petry, Esq., Aymer, Que.: "I have been troubled for about five years with severe heart complaint. At times the pain was so severe that I was unable to attend to business. The slightest exertion proved very fatiguing, and necessitated taking rest. I tried Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, and obtained immediate relief. I have now taken four bottles of the remedy, and am entirely free from every symptom of heart disease. I hope this statement may induce others troubled as I was to give this most valuable remedy a trial."
